HANCOCK BOND ISSUE APPROVED

Ceramic Lot Plan Passes In 4-3 Vote

Narrow Margin Of Approval To Delay Purchase Of Tract

Council gave final approval Tuesday night, 4-3, to legislation under which the Ceramic Theater site will become a metered parking lot, but the split vote will lead to legislative delays that probably will prevent the city from completing purchase of the property before July or August.

The ordinance received the bare minimum of votes required for final passage on third reading. It provides for a $60,000 bond issue to finance the project — $45,000 to acquire the property from heirs of the Tallman Estate and $15,000 to raze the big building, prepare and blacktop the site and install meters.

2 'Jump Fence'

The close vote resulted because two councilmen who supported the legislation on second reading May 1 jumped the fence and voted in opposition last night.

The dissenting votes were cast by Councilman Clifford Cooper, who opposed it on all three readings, Robert Laughlin and Donald E. Smith. Favorable votes were cast by four who supported the legislation consistently since it first was presented at the session April 17 — Councilmen John Melvin, Norman Bucher, Donald Hancock and John Kelly.

Both Cooper and Laughlin voted "no" on first reading. But Laughlin switched his vote to "yes" May 1, leaving Cooper as the only dissenter. Last night was the first time Smith opposed the legislation.

The lot is intended to furnish spaces for 40 autos. The project is designed to be self-liquidating, with income from the meters providing money to retire the bonds in about 10 years.

Proposal Gets Support

Before the legislation was presented, Don Eckert, president of the East Liverpool Merchants Association, spoke strongly in favor of its enactment. He was accompanied by a delegation of businessmen.

If five favorable votes had been cast, the ordinance would have been enacted with an emergency clause and could have gone into effect immediately. However, since only four voted in favor, there will be a delay of 30 days before it takes effect.

In addition, another piece of legislation must be enacted to authorize Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver to sign the contract with the Tallman heirs to complete the purchase.

Acting on advice of Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, Council did not consider the final purchase legislation last night because the ordinance to provide the funds will not be effective before mid-June.

Action Date Uncertain

If three readings also are required for the next piece of legislation — and there's every indication that may be the case — then it will not be enacted finally

Airlift Of Americans From Cuba Scheduled

HAVANA (AP)—An airlift of Americans from Cuba is ready to start Friday, with at least 91 approved for the first flight to Miami, Fla.

The Swiss Embassy, arranging the airlift as the representative of the U.S. government in Cuba since Washington's break with Prime Minister Fidel Castro, said about 500 of the estimated 1,200 U.S. citizens still in Cuba have applied to go home.

In Midland Contests

Presutti Victor For Democrats; Miss Boston GOP

By EARL RANKIN

Rudolph (Rudy) Presutti, Democratic incumbent, won a five-way race for the tax collector nomination and Miss Margaret Boston was victor in a four-way Republican contest for the post in Midland voting Tuesday.

The borough settled several contests as part of Pennsylvania's primary but Burgess Eli Corak, Democrat, and William K. Komara, Republican, were unopposed in their bids for the burgess nominations. They will be paired in the Nov. 7 election.

Corak received 1,309 votes and Komara 559, according to complete but unofficial returns.

The chief contests aside from those for the tax collector nominations were the Republican nomination for constable and the Democrats for precinct inspector the judge post, both in the 4th Precinct.

All Democrat candidates, endorsed by the party headed by Corak, won their nominations. The Republicans had an open slate.

Presutti defeated Joseph Sassic, Rosemarie (Moonie) Stevenson, Mary Adams and Louis Gene Bruno for nomination for tax collector. Their vote:

Presutti	686
Bruno	440
Stevenson	156
Sassic	141
Adams	70

Miss Boston won over Peter J. Benedict, Mary Clements and Ermie D'Angelo. Their vote:

Boston	349
Benedict	194
Clements	51
D'Angelo	33

Democratic nominations to four Council posts went to the incumbents, Steve Germusa, Joseph A. Hibbard, William Vinovich and

Industry, Glasgow, Hookstown Vote In Primary In Beaver

Beaver County election officials still were counting minor subdivision votes from Tuesday's primary and this morning results had been announced for three Midland district boroughs.

They were Hookstown, Glasgow or Smiths Ferry and Industry. A number of area township also nominated for various posts.

Burgess Harry H. Davis of Industry, Democrat, and W. B. (Mac) Macbride, Republican, were unopposed for nomination for burgess.

Davis received 124 votes and Macbride 179. There were a few write-ins.

All other candidates were also unopposed except for a slight number of write-ins. Donald E. Doyle, with 140 votes, received the Democratic tax collector nomination and E. Jay Hineman, with 175, received that of the Republicans.

Democratic Council candidates Louis G. Phillips, 125 votes; C. R. Dunlap 126, and Lysle N. Eshenbaugh 116. Republican nominees were William A. Ralph Jr., 168; Homer N. Paul, 165, and Stephen J. Hazy, 160.

Matthew E. Jurkovac, Democratic candidate for auditor, received 136 votes and Mark S. Haram, Republican.

Doris E. Taylor received the Democratic judge of elections nomination in the 1st Precinct with 82 votes and Eleanor Bradford in the 2nd Precinct with 68 votes. The Republican nominations for the posts went to Helen E. Porter, with 124 votes, in the 1st Precinct, and Helen K. Bradshaw, 53 votes, in the 2nd Precinct.

FBI Enters Kidnap Case In Hancock

Youngstown Youth Forced By Gun To Drive Man Here

The Federal Bureau of Investigation today joined in the investigation of the kidnap-robbery of a Youngstown man who was forced to drive at gunpoint from the Mahoning County city into Hancock County early Tuesday night.

West Virginia State Police and sheriff's deputies from Hancock and Brooke Counties searched today for a mysterious gunman who abducted and robbed Donald Beard, 20, and threatened him during a wild, 60-mile ride.

Beard, clad in a yellow Youngstown University sweater and wearing white sneakers, told authorities at New Cumberland that when he got into his car in Youngstown he heard a voice behind him say:

"'Don't turn around, or I'll blow your head off'!"

The gunman then ordered young Beard to turn the rearview mirror upwards so that he would avoid getting a glimpse of the stranger in the rear seat.

Then followed the long ride from Youngstown, through East Liverpool, across the Chester Bridge, south over State Route 2 into New Cumberland, and north up State Route 2.

Between Newell and New Cumberland about a quarter of a mile from the Koppers Co. plant on Route 66, the gunman robbed Beard of $10 before vanishing into the woods, authorities said the young man reported.

Hancock sheriff's deputies were alerted by the youth from the Koppers Co. plant and roadblocks were set up in the area. Deputies warned motorists "not to pick up any hitchikers, and to inform them

Proposal At Wellsville

City Hall Razing Urged For New Post Office Site

Wellsville city officials have received a proposal from postal authorities that the City Hall be razed and a combination Post Office and city building erected at the site, it was revealed at a meeting of City Council Tuesday night.

Mrs. Mary Rahter, Council president, said Roy E. Ronke of Cleveland, postal department real estate agent, is willing to meet with Council and other officials to discuss the proposal.

The Post Office department started advertising April 20 for bids for construction of a new building at 12th and Main Sts. The bid notices later were withdrawn, apparently because of a procedural mixup.

Mrs. Rahter pointed out the third floor of the City Hall will have to be removed some day. She said the two adjoining properties can be purchased, the entire city building torn down and the new structure erected.

She said it could be leased to the government and in 20 years the city would own the property which by then would be entirely paid for. It was indicated the department would pay about $10,000 a year to the city for 5,000 square feet of space.

Stiffer Fine In Numbers Arrests Due

Wellsville Council Starts Legislation To Raise Penalties

The controversial "gambling legislation," designed to stiffen the penalty for possession of numbers slips, was passed on first reading by Wellsville City Council Tuesday night. Two more readings are required for it to become law.

Council also ordered legislation to hike the refuse collection rates. Similar legislation was defeated last year by Council.

The gambling ordinance provides a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 or a jail sentence of up to 30 days, or both, for possession of lottery slips. Presently, possession of numbers slips is considered a misdemeanor and the maximum fine is $50.

Tabled Previously

The legislation has been presented previously but no action was taken. Some felt it would effect various organizations conducting raffles. Solicitor William Bush had pointed out present legislation already governs lotteries.

The new legislation also governs possession of racing slips. Councilman Robert Taggart remarked he would like to see legislation brought in to fine the "big man" behind the operations and not just the little numbers writer.

Councilman Donald Miller, finance chairman, instituted the move to bring in legislation increasing the refuse collection rates. The department has been running in the red. Councilman Paul Nelson, refuse chairman, seconded his motion.

Bush Reports Survey

Bush said he had some suggestions to make on the legislation after having conferred with communities with similar problems. A committee meeting will be held to revamp the legislation presented previously. It called for a hike from $3.75 to $4.50 per quarter for householders and a proportionate increase for other classifications such as stores, restaurants, hotels and businesses.

Councilman William Stroble suggested a residence tax for the collection.

Mrs. Margaret Baldin, clerk, read a model resolution submitted by the Whitehall City Council offering encouragement to the Ohio General Assembly to investigate rate making procedures for public utilities. It urges the State Legislature to make the govern-

Rusk Urges All Of Troops Leave Laos

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk today demanded the withdrawal of all military forces from troubled Laos and charged the Communists are violating the cease-fire there.

Rusk told the East-West foreign ministers' conference on Laos that the United States is willing to pull out its military mission from Laos if Communist North Viet Nam does the same.

Rusk offered the conference a three-point plan to turn Laos into a neutral country removed from the pressures of the cold war so it can make "progress toward more stable political institutions, economic well-being and social justice."

In calling for Laotian neutrality, Rusk insisted that absolutely all foreign military personnel should be withdrawn.

"There is no problem about the withdrawal of the limited U.S. military personnel assisting with the training and supply of government forces," Rusk said. But he insisted that the Communists from North Viet Nam who have been assisting the rebels must also leave the country.

He said the United States does not want to see Laos "as a staging area or as a thoroughfare for agents of subversion, saboteurs or guerrilla bands to operate against Laos' neighbors."

Rusk called for effective international machinery to insure the cease-fire and charged that the Communist led Pathet Lao is repeatedly violating it.

WINNING SMILES. Hancock County Board of Education members were all smiles Tuesday night after returns from a special election on a $5¼ million bond issue showed the proposal passed easily. The vote and the percentage of approval are noted on the sign. From the left in the first row are John W. Boyd of Chester, Mrs. Mary Swartz of Weirton, J. Fred Allison of Newell, and Supt. Robert H. Hall. Robert Miller of Weirton, left, and Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, are in the rear.

Jury Acquits Policeman

Walker's Return To Force Slated

City Police Lt. Thomas A. Walker, acquitted Tuesday afternoon at Lisbon of a charge of larceny of a television set, is tentatively slated to return to regular duty the end of the month, City Hall officials indicated today.

Lt. Walker, indicted in April for removing a television set from the office of Police Chief Americo Radeschi where it was being stored as evidence, was cleared of the charge yesterday by a Common Pleas Court jury which deliberated an hour and 45 minutes.

Testifying Monday afternoon, the officer said he had only "borrowed" the set to enable Mrs. Audrey Demoratz of Church Alley to use it while her television set was in need of repair.

Walker, given a 30-day suspension without pay March 31 for "malfeance", later was granted a leave of absence at the end of April pending outcome of the case.

Chief Radeschi and Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver said this morning the 30-day leave of absence asked by Lt. Walker is due to expire at the end of May.

The jury of nine women and three men began deliberating the case at 2:50 p. m. yesterday, following closing arguments by the attorneys and the charge by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

The charge stemmed from a secret indictment by the Grand Jury which subpoened its own witnesses. Chief Radeschi Monday testified no charge was brought by his department against Walker other than the disciplinary suspension issued with certain conditional terms.

The television set, held as evidence in a 1960 burglary at a Dresden Ave. store, was removed from City Hall in February, and was located March 2 at the home of Mrs. Demoratz.

Walker subsequently signed a statement that he had loaned the set to Mrs. Demoratz for three weeks, and he and Mrs. Demoratz both testified Monday that it was being used temporarily by her.

In his charge to the jury yesterday, Judge Buzzard said it would have to decide whether there was felonious intent to steal or if the $127 set was loaned.

Royal China Leases Plant At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Plant 1 of the W. S. George Pottery Co., closed down for about five months was leased this morning to the Royal China Co. of Sebring for production of a number of orders the Sebring plant's capacity cannot meet at present.

Some 200 city potters are to be employed at the George plant, where production was sharply limited about a year ago.

A delegation of some six George officials and directors took the leasing agreement to Sebring today, where it was signed by Miss Beatrice Miller, president of Royal.

Royal officials said their firm has received a large number of dinnerware orders it cannot handle immediately, and will utilize the George plant to supplement its production. Royal employes about 750 and is operating at capacity.

Plans call for cleaning Plant 1 and moving unneeded materials and equipment to Plant 4 for storage. Plant 4 operated only briefly in the past few years. Repairs to the roof and sprinkler system are required at Plant 1.

Volunteer workers will be asked to aid in the cleaning.

23 Democrats Lend Hand

Legislature Overrides DiSalle Road Fund Veto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle finally has "had it" from the Republican-controlled legislature — after 4½ months.

With the help of 23 members of the governor's own party—19 in the House and 4 in the Senate—the GOP has overridden a DiSalle veto of a bill to take about $15 million a year from the Ohio Highway Department and give it to local governments for street and road financing.

The Senate vote was 24-14 (23 needed) and in the House, which took it up first, it was 100-35 (84 needed).

DeSalle has vetoed three bills. No attempt ever was made to override a veto on a jobless pay bill. Consideration of trying to override this week's veto of a bill on the voting rights of servicemen who intend to make Ohio their home still is pending.

All the Democrats who voted Tuesday to override DiSalle's veto of the bill to spread $15 million over Ohio's cities, counties and townships are from Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) with five exceptions.

They are Sen. Arthur Blake, D-Belmont, one of DiSalle's outspoken critics in his own party, and Reps. Thomas P. Gilmartin, D - Mahoning; Luther Mylander, D-Ottawa; Virtus J. Kruse, D-Fay-

County Board Airs School Merger Plan

Southern Local An Franklin District's Consolidation Eyed

LISBON — Various details of a proposed consolidation of Franklin Local School District with Southern Local School District were discussed at a meeting of the Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday night.

The Franklin Local Board of Education and the county board aired such matters as the feelings of Franklin residents concerning the proposal, whether Franklin would be represented on the new board, estimated taxes of the merged district and the general indebtedness of the two districts at present.

Also aired was the procedure of consolidation. The county board, which took no action last night, would approve the action at a regular meeting, and anyone opposed to the merger would have 30 days in which to obtain a remonstrance petition bearing signatures of 35 per cent of qualified voters seeking a public vote on the matter.

Should a public election be held both Southern Local and Franklin Local would vote.

It was indicated last night no immediate action is contemplated toward the merger.

Southern Local is about to launch a planned construction of a $760,000 high school, with a bond issue and state grant based on its present tax status and indebtedness.

The board took no action on a request from Edward Copeland of Hanoverton R.D., whose farm is in the northern area of Franklin Local, that his property be transferred into United Local School District.

Copeland, whose farm borders United, said his children now attend United schools.

The merger of Franklin and Southern Local has been recom-

Power To Be Cut Off During Newell Repair

Some 800 Newell and area power customers will be without service for an hour Thursday afternoon, starting at 3:30, to permit the Monongehela Power Co. to return a damaged transformer to service at the Newell Substation.

Walter Jordan, Chester manager of the utility, said service will be off in Newell, Newell Heights, 6th St. Rd., Glendale and Snow Hill, along with the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. and a refractory. The Globe Brick Co. and the Homer Laughlin China Co. will not be affected.

The transformer, fed by a 25,000-volt line, was damaged Sunday night when a "bushing" connection burned out, causing an oil fuse to fail. It blacked out the area for about an hour and a half.

Crews made repairs to the equipment Monday and were to make final insertion of the transfer into the system this afternoon.

New School Plans Given Green Light

Board Slates Quick Start On Erection Of 4 New Buildings

By CHARLES CRONIN

The promise of broadened educational opportunities was assured Hancock County youngsters Tuesday when voters gave overwhelming support to a $5,283,000 school bond issue.

A total of 5,894 turned out for the special election to approve by a vote of 4,584 to 1,310 the proposal to finance construction of four new schools and remodeling of several buildings.

Receiving support from virtually everywhere in the county, the issue was approved by 77 per cent. It required 60 per cent for passage.

Program Starts Soon

Relieved of worry over the fate of financing a building program to assure enough classroom space for a mounting influx of children, the County Board of Education will take immediate steps to expand the system.

Proceeds will provide for construction of two new campus-style high schools, a new junior high and new elementary building.

One of the new plants will be a 600-pupil senior high school to be erected on a 96-acre tract on Gas Valley Rd. in Pughtown for sophomores, juniors and seniors.

The ultra-modern building for Northern Hancock County pupils will lead to the end of athletic rivalries that have become so popular between high schools in Chester, Newell and New Cumberland, but will provide the latest features for educational training.

New School At Chester

A new elementary school in Chester for 300 pupils, and a 1,000-pupil senior high school and 300-pupil junior high school in Weirton also will be part of the expansion program.

The county board said today the four new schools will be constructed at the same time and the target date for opening of the buildings is September 1963.

Once the expansion program is completed, the county will have the most modern school system in West Virginia or the Tri-State Area, the board commented in surveying the election returns last night in New Cumberland.

The five-member board voiced gratitude that the proposal received at least 60 per cent support in all districts.

Support was strongest — 85 per cent — in Butler District (Weirton) where 3,177 cast ballots in favor of the proposal, and only 524 dissented. Unofficial figures

Water Cutoff Sets 'Holiday' For Westgate

The 1,800 students at Westgate School will receive an unscheduled half-day holiday Thursday because water service in part of West End will be turned off while city line crews make a connection to run a new 6-inch main to the sewage treatment plant.

About 100 households also will be affected by the turnoff, scheduled at 8 a. m., Water Supt. Donald T. Duke said. He warned affected residents to draw supplies of water in advance.

The cutoff will affect all of W. 8th St. from Westgate west as well as Leonard St., Denver St. and Gaston Ave. It is expected to end about noon.

School Supt. Ralph W. Betts said morning classes at Westgate will be canceled because lack of water would pose a serious sanitation problem. Junior High students will report at 12 noon tomorrow and elementary pupils will report at 12:30, he said.

The schedule, worked out this morning after school authorities learned of plans for the turnoff, is subject to slight variation depending upon bus schedules, the

The gambling ordinance provides a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 or a jail sentence of up to 30 days, or both, for possession of lottery slips. Presently, possession of numbers slips is considered a misdemeanor and the maximum fine is $50.

Tabled Previously

The legislation has been presented previously but no action was taken. Some felt it would effect various organizations conducting raffles. Solicitor William Bush had pointed out present legislation already governs lotteries.

The new legislation also governs possession of racing slips. Councilman Robert Taggart remarked he would like to see legislation brought in to fine the "big man" behind the operations and not just the little numbers writer.

Councilman Donald Miller, finance chairman, instituted the move to bring in legislation increasing the refuse collection rates. The department has been running in the red. Councilman Paul Nelson, refuse chairman, seconded his motion.

Bush Reports Survey

Bush said he had some suggestions to make on the legislation after having conferred with communities with similar problems. A committee meeting will be held to revamp the legislation presented previously. It called for a hike from $3.75 to $4.50 per quarter for householders and a proportionate increase for other classifications such as stores, restaurants, hotels and businesses.

Councilman William Stroble suggested a residence tax for the collection.

Mrs. Margaret Baldin, clerk, read a model resolution submitted by the Whitehall City Council offering encouragement to the Ohio General Assembly to investigate rate making procedures for public utilities. It urges the State Legislature to make the govern-

Rusk Urges All Of Troops Leave Laos

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk today demanded the withdrawal of all military forces from troubled Laos and charged the Communists are violating the cease-fire there.

Rusk told the East-West foreign ministers' conference on Laos that the United States is willing to pull out its military mission from Laos if Communist North Viet Nam does the same.

Rusk offered the conference a three-point plan to turn Laos into a neutral country removed from the pressures of the cold war so it can make "progress toward more stable political institutions, economic well-being and social justice."

In calling for Laotian neutrality, Rusk insisted that absolutely all foreign military personnel should be withdrawn.

"There is no problem about the withdrawal of the limited U.S. military personnel assisting with the training and supply of government forces," Rusk said. But he insisted that the Communists from North Viet Nam who have been assisting the rebels must also leave the country.

He said the United States does not want to see Laos "as a staging area or as a thoroughfare for agents of subversion, saboteurs or guerrilla bands to operate against Laos' neighbors."

Rusk called for effective international machinery to insure the cease-fire and charged that the Communist led Pathet Lao is repeatedly violating it.

WINNING SMILES. Hancock County Board of Education members were all smiles Tuesday night after returns from a special election on a $5¼ million bond issue showed the proposal passed easily. The vote and the percentage of approval are noted on the sign. From the left in the first row are John W. Boyd of Chester, Mrs. Mary Swartz of Weirton, J. Fred Allison of Newell, and Supt. Robert H. Hall. Robert Miller of Weirton, left, and Dr. W. Dale Williams, president, are in the rear.

Jury Acquits Policeman

Walker's Return To Force Slated

City Police Lt. Thomas A. Walker, acquitted Tuesday afternoon at Lisbon of a charge of larceny of a television set, is tentatively slated to return to regular duty the end of the month, City Hall officials indicated today.

Lt. Walker, indicted in April for removing a television set from the office of Police Chief Americo Radeschi where it was being stored as evidence, was cleared of the charge yesterday by a Common Pleas Court jury which deliberated an hour and 45 minutes.

Testifying Monday afternoon, the officer said he had only "borrowed" the set to enable Mrs. Audrey Demoratz of Church Alley to use it while her television set was in need of repair.

Walker, given a 30-day suspension without pay March 31 for "malfeance", later was granted a leave of absence at the end of April pending outcome of the case.

Chief Radeschi and Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver said this morning the 30-day leave of absence asked by Lt. Walker is due to expire at the end of May.

The jury of nine women and three men began deliberating the case at 2:50 p. m. yesterday, following closing arguments by the attorneys and the charge by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

The charge stemmed from a secret indictment by the Grand Jury which subpoened its own witnesses. Chief Radeschi Monday testified no charge was brought by his department against Walker other than the disciplinary suspension issued with certain conditional terms.

The television set, held as evidence in a 1960 burglary at a Dresden Ave. store, was removed from City Hall in February, and was located March 2 at the home of Mrs. Demoratz.

Walker subsequently signed a statement that he had loaned the set to Mrs. Demoratz for three weeks, and he and Mrs. Demoratz both testified Monday that it was being used temporarily by her.

In his charge to the jury yesterday, Judge Buzzard said it would have to decide whether there was felonious intent to steal or if the $127 set was loaned.

Royal China Leases Plant At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Plant 1 of the W. S. George Pottery Co., closed down for about five months was leased this morning to the Royal China Co. of Sebring for production of a number of orders the Sebring plant's capacity cannot meet at present.

Some 200 city potters are to be employed at the George plant, where production was sharply limited about a year ago.

A delegation of some six George officials and directors took the leasing agreement to Sebring today, where it was signed by Miss Beatrice Miller, president of Royal.

Royal officials said their firm has received a large number of dinnerware orders it cannot handle immediately, and will utilize the George plant to supplement its production. Royal employes about 750 and is operating at capacity.

Plans call for cleaning Plant 1 and moving unneeded materials and equipment to Plant 4 for storage. Plant 4 operated only briefly in the past few years. Repairs to the roof and sprinkler system are required at Plant 1.

Volunteer workers will be asked to aid in the cleaning.

23 Democrats Lend Hand

Legislature Overrides DiSalle Road Fund Veto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle finally has "had it" from the Republican-controlled legislature — after 4½ months.

With the help of 23 members of the governor's own party—19 in the House and 4 in the Senate—the GOP has overridden a DiSalle veto of a bill to take about $15 million a year from the Ohio Highway Department and give it to local governments for street and road financing.

The Senate vote was 24-14 (23 needed) and in the House, which took it up first, it was 100-35 (84 needed).

DeSalle has vetoed three bills. No attempt ever was made to override a veto on a jobless pay bill. Consideration of trying to override this week's veto of a bill on the voting rights of servicemen who intend to make Ohio their home still is pending.

All the Democrats who voted Tuesday to override DiSalle's veto of the bill to spread $15 million over Ohio's cities, counties and townships are from Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) with five exceptions.

They are Sen. Arthur Blake, D-Belmont, one of DiSalle's outspoken critics in his own party, and Reps. Thomas P. Gilmartin, D - Mahoning; Luther Mylander, D-Ottawa; Virtus J. Kruse, D-Fay-

County Board Airs School Merger Plan

Southern Local An Franklin District's Consolidation Eyed

LISBON — Various details of a proposed consolidation of Franklin Local School District with Southern Local School District were discussed at a meeting of the Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday night.

The Franklin Local Board of Education and the county board aired such matters as the feelings of Franklin residents concerning the proposal, whether Franklin would be represented on the new board, estimated taxes of the merged district and the general indebtedness of the two districts at present.

Also aired was the procedure of consolidation. The county board, which took no action last night, would approve the action at a regular meeting, and anyone opposed to the merger would have 30 days in which to obtain a remonstrance petition bearing signatures of 35 per cent of qualified voters seeking a public vote on the matter.

Should a public election be held both Southern Local and Franklin Local would vote.

It was indicated last night no immediate action is contemplated toward the merger.

Southern Local is about to launch a planned construction of a $760,000 high school, with a bond issue and state grant based on its present tax status and indebtedness.

The board took no action on a request from Edward Copeland of Hanoverton R.D., whose farm is in the northern area of Franklin Local, that his property be transferred into United Local School District.

Copeland, whose farm borders

Power To Be Cut Off During Newell Repair

Some 800 Newell and area power customers will be without service for an hour Thursday afternoon, starting at 3:30, to permit the Monongehela Power Co. to return a damaged transformer to service at the Newell Substation.

Walter Jordan, Chester manager of the utility, said service will be off in Newell, Newell Heights, 6th St. Rd., Glendale and Snow Hill, along with the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. and a refractory. The Globe Brick Co. and the Homer Laughlin China Co. will not be affected.

The transformer, fed by a 25,000-volt line, was damaged Sunday night when a "bushing" connection burned out, causing an oil fuse to fail. It blacked out the area for about an hour and a half.

Crews made repairs to the equipment Monday and were to make final insertion of the transfer into the system this afternoon.

New School Plans Given Green Light

By CHARLES CRONIN

The promise of broadened educational opportunities was assured Hancock County youngsters Tuesday when voters gave overwhelming support to a $5,283,000 school bond issue.

A total of 5,894 turned out for the special election to approve by a vote of 4,584 to 1,310 the proposal to finance construction of four new schools and remodeling of several buildings.

Receiving support from virtually everywhere in the county, the issue was approved by 77 per cent. It required 60 per cent for passage.

Program Starts Soon

Relieved of worry over the fate of financing a building program to assure enough classroom space for a mounting influx of children, the County Board of Education will take immediate steps to expand the system.

Proceeds will provide for construction of two new campus-style high schools, a new junior high and new elementary building.

One of the new plants will be a 600-pupil senior high school to be erected on a 96-acre tract on Gas Valley Rd. in Pughtown for sophomores, juniors and seniors.

The ultra-modern building for Northern Hancock County pupils will lead to the end of athletic rivalries that have become so popular between high schools in Chester, Newell and New Cumberland, but will provide the latest features for educational training.

New School At Chester

A new elementary school in Chester for 300 pupils, and a 1,000-pupil senior high school and 300-pupil junior high school in Weirton also will be part of the expansion program.

The county board said today the four new schools will be constructed at the same time and the target date for opening of the buildings is September 1963.

Once the expansion program is completed, the county will have the most modern school system in West Virginia or the Tri-State Area, the board commented in surveying the election returns last night in New Cumberland.

The five-member board voiced gratitude that the proposal received at least 60 per cent support in all districts.

Support was strongest — 85 per cent — in Butler District (Weirton) where 3,177 cast ballots in favor of the proposal, and only 524 dissented. Unofficial figures

Water Cutoff Sets 'Holiday' For Westgate

The 1,800 students at Westgate School will receive an unscheduled half-day holiday Thursday because water service in part of West End will be turned off while city line crews make a connection to run a new 6-inch main to the sewage treatment plant.

About 100 households also will be affected by the turnoff, scheduled at 8 a. m., Water Supt. Donald T. Duke said. He warned affected residents to draw supplies of water in advance.

The cutoff will affect all of W. 8th St. from Westgate west as well as Leonard St., Denver St. and Gaston Ave. It is expected to end about noon.

School Supt. Ralph W. Betts said morning classes at Westgate will be canceled because lack of water would pose a serious sanitation problem. Junior High students will report at 12 noon tomorrow and elementary pupils will report at 12:30, he said.

The schedule, worked out this morning after school authorities learned of plans for the turnoff, is subject to slight variation depending upon bus schedules, the

The Elephant And The Giraffe

Even the bushiest - tailed optimists who once looked forward confidently to summit meetings know now what is wrong with them.

They always add up to the same thing. Governments that wonder what the Soviet Union will do next come to summit meetings to try to find out. Mostly they don't find out what they want to know.

The Communist party strong men who run the Soviet Union have learned it is more frightening for their opponents to be left in suspense than to spell out for them what is in the works. Imagination is worse than reality and it doesn't cost anything.

THERE IS TALK again of another summit meeting, and whenever there's talk there's fire. Not only is it desirable to sound out U.S. opinion on these meetings but it is important to create an air of U.S. expectation. Otherwise, relations with the Soviet Union might as well be carried on the way President Kennedy said they should be carried on when he was a candidate — through the machinery of the State Department.

This is one more thing President Kennedy has learned since he took office. The machinery of the State Department is exasperatingly slow and disturbingly quiet. It leaves the impression nothing is being done, whereas a president of the United States wants to leave the impression that much is being done.

There will be, then, in all probability another summit meeting.

IT WILL BE like a meeting of the elephant and giraffe, with the other animals watching the proceedings and invited to give inklings of which side they would be on if the elephant and giraffe got into a fight.

The trouble with such a meeting is that the elephant always gets what it wants because it knows what it wants and is mean enough to scare off all would-be antagonists.

The giraffe is big, too, but a giraffe doesn't want anything but peace. It wants to negotiate with the other animals about peace. In a manner of speaking, it wants a summit conference in the jungle on the supposition that if it and the elephant can agree the other animals will not be able to start anything.

But the giraffe and the elephant never are going to agree on anything, because the elephant never will rest until all the other animals are so small no one looks up to them, which means there is no future for the giraffe.

AS FOR SUMMIT conferences, the elephant loves them. They always show how big he is and how everybody else wants to know what he is planning to do, whereas the other animals have no plans, except to try to keep the elephant from going on a rampage.

After what happened in Paris the last time, when the elephant tipped over everything in sight, even the giraffe can't feel optimistic about the prospect of another summit conference. But the giraffe wants peace, and only the elephant could insure peace.

River To Lake

As was pointed out at Monday night's dinner meeting of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce, plans are being advanced for the Lake Erie-to-Ohio River freeway.

Much remains to be done, but the progress is encouraging.

Here are some of the things that the road will do, as outlined by the highway association which has worked so energetically on behalf of the project:

Provide the shortest overland route from the great Lakes to the Ohio River, 86.5 miles in length.

Help Ohio meet constantly increasing competition from other states and foreign countries.

Provide safer, faster and more economical transportation.

Directly help to assure the continuation of many jobs now held in this section of Ohio and the surrounding area, as well as promote new job opportunities.

The river-to-lake freeway is one of the long-range projects that holds much promise for Columbiana County and the state as a whole.

Maybe Something Will Turn Up

Vice President Johnson has been told in Hong Kong that conditions in Communist China are so bad it's only a matter of time until the government collapses. It is tempting to believe this might be the end of communism in China.

The late John Foster Dulles thought at one time that the United States should wait for the collapse of communism because it was based on historic error. Many Americans had to wait after the end of World War I for the collapse of communism in Russia. They didn't think it could last.

Currently it is comforting to believe the collapse of communism will change things in Cuba, or if not in Cuba in Poland or in Czechoslovakia, or somewhere else. But even in East Germany, the collapse of communism never quite happens. It didn't happen in Hungary, Estonia, Latvia or Bulgaria.

When communism runs into its passages of trouble, it doesn't collapse. It uses new names, tries new tactics and re-establishes itself.

The same thing happened in the 18th century when monarchies were undermined by popular revolutionists who drew inspiration from the United States. The new governments staggered, but they were not replaced by the monarchies they had overthrown. They were succeeded by adaptations of the revolution they had instituted.

International communism breeds its own trouble. But if and when its regimes collapse, there will be no reappearance of what existed before. That has been destroyed.

Whether or not there will be an appearance of popular government that never existed before in some countries now dominated by Communists is an open question. Failure to encourage popular government and even to permit it in many places led to the despair which opened the way to Communist control. People who never had known freedom and popular sovereignty were totally unprepared to resist the Communist Conspiracy.

The Once Over

"Newt" Minow (What a name for a man fighting whales!) has made the sharpest attack on TV in history. But he had better have somebody "riding shotgun" on the "Cleanup Stagecoach" in his drive across the praries.

He rightfully declares war on calibre of programs and rides into the scene like Fearless Frank the heroic cowboy but he will need cavalry, faithful Injuns and some town marshals to win battle of what he calls the "Vast Wastelands" of TV.

He stalked into the barroom of TV Territory at the broadcasters convention, hands close to his six-shooters and the glare of Doc Holiday in eyes as he said "Throw down your weapons and do what I say." But our bet is that he will need thousands of Doc Holidays to get out alive.

This fight could wind up as a situation comedy, another airwave prize contest, a battle at the crossroads or a shrill screeching of auto tires as the Federal Private Eye goes all out but is balked at every turn.

We may even witness "To Tell The Truth" show with three characters, a strawman, convention orator and FCC chief coming before panel with the challenge "which is the real Newton Minow?"

Better News

While the weather has left much to be desired, there have been straws in the economic wind which have proved encouraging.

The steel picture in general has taken on a rosier hue as the result of reports the last few days. Especially gratifying to the area was the announcement by Crucible that it has recalled since May 1 more than 400 employes who had been furloughed.

This ties in with an earlier announcement by the Weirton Steel Co. that more than 600 had been called back there since the first of the year.

The unemployment picture is still the cause of great concern, but reports like those from Crucible and Weirton Steel help to buoy hope that the turn for the better is at hand.

But if it is more like a western with coach roaring into town, let's hope it is the FCC chief and not a New England schoolma'am who gets out.

Mr. Minow blasts TV as a "parade of games, comedies about totally incredible people, gangsters, cowboys, murder, sadism and endless commercials."

He tells broadcasters "Your trust accounting is overdue. Never have so few owed so much to so many." He doesn't mention fact that most of shows couldn't be orgies of violence if big industries didn't pay the freight.

Corporation biggies who often serve on anti-juvenile crime boards, boys clubs and civic betterment bodies make possible the pumping of murder routines into American home. Their performance in fact is "mystery show of year."

STUDENTS who defied air-raid orders in N.Y. got long jail terms. Our guess is they would establish new world sprint records if caught out in real bombing.

Naming one or two women "Mother of Year" is absurd. They are legion and fill every hamlet, city and state. The ones who carry on against the heaviest burdens, suffering and nearly broke, are innumerable but rarely get mentioned.

Going For The 'Non-Money'

By Victor Riesel

This classless society of ours is being "brain - machined" into a cashless society. We're not going broke. We're going in for "non-money." And at such a pace that one labor leader has sized up the credit card business as the next growth industry of the land. On Monday he formally launched his drive to unionize white collar workers at the Carte Blanche headquarters on Sunset Strip in Hollywood. In two weeks he'll start on the Diners Club in New York and soon on the far-flung American Express Agency.

Victor Riesel

Nor does Howard Coughlin, president of the Office Employes International Union and director of this newest of union campaigns, expect President Kennedy's anti-expense account tax drive to restrict the credit card industry. The "non-money" economy is nearer than we think, says Coughlin.

Cash, checks and money orders are not yet bow-and-arrow stuff. But electronic credit certainly is closing in on them.

My own brain being what it is, I turned to my friend John Diebold, inventor of the word "automation," for corroboration.

Diebold said that "non-money" was upon us and pointed to the U.S. Steel Corp. This firm, with its 190,000 employees, said he, as well as other large manufacturers, compute its weekly payroll and makes out checks through an electronic brain machine—the computor. But they now have quietly gone one step further.

THE "BRAIN" reckons the withholding tax and Social Security deductions of each worker. Then it puts all the financial information on a magnetic tape. This is automatically mailed to the Internal Revenue Service and the Social Security board.

There, whether the tape is IBM or Sperry's Univac, or any other make, it goes into a machine which strips it of all data and replaces the information on the government's own taped records.

At no time does any of these series of processes go through human hands. Financial transactions involved also are automatic.

But hold on. Soon even this tape will be as archaic as a Rudolph Valentino silent film. The information will be telephoned—by a company electronic brain machine — to a government machine.

The computor machine in the corporation's central office will be fed the withholding and Social Security data each quarter, for example.

This machine then will dial—by a series of impulses — the proper federal memory box.

If the governmental equipment is in use, it will by return impulse "ask" the incoming machine to wait. At the end of 10 minutes, or whatever time it takes, the reporting computor will automatically "dial" again.

THIS, IN EFFECT, will be the pattern of the electronic credit system. Howard Coughlin and many directors of the big computor manufacturing companies believe it will eliminate a tremendous number of cash transactions in the next decade.

Carte Blanche, for example, at 77 Sunset Strip, now operates in three shifts around the clock. Many of the employes are men operating tabulating machines, key punch machines and doing routine collection department chores.

So vast has this credit card thing become that on June 10 Carte Blanche will install a "tremendous" electronic brain which will make the firm one of the largest computor centers in the West.

Coughlin, who heads the nation's biggest and most successful white collar office - clerical union, says that the drive for the few thousand employes in the big three credit outfits is just the beginning.

"I might add," says Coughlin, 'that the representatives of the large electronic business machine companies state that salaries for individuals will someday be paid into bank accounts and specially adapted credit cards will be used for all types of purchases."

With his eye on this vast white collar field, Coughlin just had his union file with the NLRB for a representation election at Carte Blanche in Hollywood.

In two weeks they'll go after the Diners Club. In 10 years, if Coughlin succeeds, there may be as many union people working on "non-money" as there are on steel.

Then someone will invent a credit card which permits you to pay cash.

U.S. Has 'Selling' Job

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

It doesn't follow that because democracy works here it will elsewhere. In many places it hasn't. So the United States has to sell something besides democracy in a lot of places to keep them out of Communism.

It has to sell a chance for a good life.

The Associated Press from Tokyo reports that the army revolt which Tuesday overthrew the South Korean government had strong allies in grinding poverty and social ills.

It was in the pattern of army revolts which abolished or changed parliamentary governments in the Congo, Laos, Egypt, Sudan, Turkey, Pakistan, Burma, Iraq and Thailand.

Everywhere around the world an American-aided government is in danger of overthrow, by its army or communism, unless it gives the people assurance it is working for their welfare.

What is the image of the enormously rich and powerful America going to mean to a poverty-stricken peasant somewhere if a Russian tells him:

"It took the United States 200 years to get where it is. And in 200 years maybe your country can be just as rich. But it only took Russia 40 years to become the giant it is.

"You're 35. Your life expectancy under present conditions is only 40. You have only five years left.

"Are you willing to wait 200 years in the hope your country will become another America or do you want a better life than this in a hurry for yourself and your family under communism?"

If an American then tells the peasant about the blessings of democracy, it won't mean much if the peasant never really knew democracy.

Thus this country's problem, with its foreign aid, is to get the peasant's government to put into effect reforms and programs which will give this poverty-stricken man reason to think he can have a better life without communism.

The Communists began early with their promises. Right after the war in Southern Italy, before the first post-war elections, Communists went from door to door promising them land of their own. That one the Communists lost.

President Kennedy himself, in his speech last summer accepting the Democratic nomination, spoke of the "one-third of the world" that is "rocked by pangs of poverty, hunger and envy."

In a general way he expressed his awareness of the remedy called for when, in his State of the Union message in January, he acknowledged the huge task:

"Our role is essential and unavoidable in the construction of a sound expanding economy for the entire non-Communist world, helping other nations to build the strength to meet their own aspirations, to surmount their own dangers.

"The problems in achieving this goal are towering and unprecedented."

So far he has not attempted to talk to the American public on this problem at length—and with whatever solutions he may have in mind — except through news conferences and messages to Congress.

His message on foreign aid won't go to Congress for about another 10 days. There he may open up his thinking, with concrete proposals, in a way that hasn't been revealed yet.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I wonder if families still keep flax seeds to insert under the eyelids of those who "get something" in their eyes. This was standard procedure at one time in our family and I'd gladly have gone back to it today when I was in agony with what felt like the limb of a tree lodged in my right eye.

The comedian who wondered if the President, vice president and secretary of state, all out of the country at the same time, knew something he didn't know gets credit for the sharpest witticism of the year. It was Jack Paar.

Any way it's figured, the school classes I graduated in cannot have a reunion for several years, which is a matter of considerable comfort for me — and I am sure for all the other survivors.

Years ago, I was astonished when a man and woman I had just met guessed I was the kind of person who would own a certain well-known brand of garden tractor and I was and we swapped stories. Now I find people doing the same thing about a certain make of small automobile and we swap stories. I never have been able to spot these symptoms, except that years ago I could almost always tell when young doctors, dentists and lawyers had bought their first Buick.

In the issue over whether the United States should spend billions to get to the moon, for fear the Russians might get there first, I am unable to tremble with apprehension over this possibility. What gives me the twitters is the possibility the Russkies might get to Saturn. Or the Milky Way.

Setback For Freedom

Summit Talk Seen As U.S. Weakness

If President Kennedy holds a summit meeting with Nikita Khrushchev — now reliably reported to be planned — this will be construed throughout the Communist world as a sign of America's weakness rather than strength, especially in the wake of the administration's retreats in Laos and Cuba.

David Lawrence

It would be just as logical for Mr. Kennedy to meet with Fidel Castro. Both dictators have insulted a President of the United States. Both are guilty of mass murders and other international crimes

It was just a year ago that Nikita Khrushchev — after having invited President Eisenhower to visit Russia — deliberately refused to meet with him when the heads of government assembled at Paris.

The Soviet premier then withdrew the invitation in an outburst of vituperative propaganda. He hurled such epithets as "thief" and "coward" at President Eisenhower.

The excuse given for all this was the overflight of a U2 plane which the Soviet government knew was but one of a series of such flights for the previous four years.

Also, though it was proper to lodge a diplomatic protest to the United States government, it was highly improper to make a personal attack on the man who happened to be the President of the United States.

This was an act of ingratitude which put the Soviet people in an unfortunate light for it was an insult to the very man who, as the commander in chief of the Allied Forces in Europe during World War II, had helped to save the Russian people from being overrun by Hitler's armies.

If there had not been the successful invasion of North Africa and then of Southern Europe led by Gen. Eisenhower, the Nazi forces would have been free to pursue their invasion of Soviet territory on the Eastern Front.

The U2 episode was a pertinent subject for debate in diplomatic channels. There is, for instance, no clear-cut understanding among international lawyers as to how high planes or "sputniks" may fly over a country without permission. Or is there any persuasive argument in international law against the privilege of a government to protect itself against surprise attack, especially when an adversary is conducting espionage and a cold war throughout the world.

It will be said, President Eisenhower did go to Geneva in 1955 to participate in a summit conference and was ready to go into another such meeting in 1960 in Paris.

The truth is that the futility of such conferences has been pointed out repeatedly by many observers, including this one, ever since such meetings were first suggested.

IT IS TO BE NOTED that former Vice President Nixon a few days ago, in a public comment, urged President Kennedy to meet with Nikita Khrushchev but this by no means takes away from the present occupant of the House the responsibility for participating in such a meeting.

It will be recalled that again and again President Kennedy has intimated — and his secretary of state, Dean Rusk, has spelled it out — that there ought to be no summit meetings unless some agreement has been previously achieved through diplomatic channels on important topics.

The argument has been that summit meetings are all right to ratify agreements or understandings already reached at a lower level of diplomacy.

Mr. Kennedy started out rightly with an emphasis on quiet diplomacy in the hope of achieving a better relationship with the Soviet government.

If, as is claimed, some progress has been made by that method, then it is logical to continue that course rather than indulge in spectacles like the summit conferences for Khrushchev's main purpose in such a meeting is to afford him a big opportunity for Soviet propaganda.

DOUBTLESS it will be broadcast throughout the Soviet Union that President Kennedy made good his offer of an apology publicized during the 1960 preconvention campaign.

There are two major forces in the world today that can affect the issue of peace or war. One is military — but this is being more and more decried as a form of suicide. The other is moral force.

The theory behind moral force is that, while it should never be the sole reliance of a nation, it should be used to the maximum before there is any resort to military power.

Primary in the use of moral force is the need for a repeated emphasis on the principles of human freedom. The United States is desirous of helping in every way to emancipate the Russian people and the other peoples behind the Iron Curtain so that some day they may rise up and establish a free government. The moment autocratic force of major proportions is eliminated, it becomes safe for arms to be reduced and democracy can thrive in the world.

TO KOWTOW now to Nikita Khrushchev, however, only serves to dishearten the peoples behind the Iron Curtain, especially in the enslaved states bordering the Soviet Union where some day the revolt will inevitably begin.

Whether the fateful day of liberation is many years away or nearer at hand is a matter of speculation but for President Kennedy to ignore the insulting behavior of Nikita Khrushchev and to meet with him in Austria or elsewhere cannot but set back and weaken the moral position of the democracies of the world.

Letters To The Editor

In January of 1959 we had a flood which caused damage to the River Rd. in that it undermined the street and the large amount of ice damaged the guardrails.

The city was given several thousand dollars in aid to fix the street and guardrails. The city was going to put in new guardrails and fix the river bank. The city did fix it up a little. It is now about one year and a half later and there are still no guardrails and the road leans toward the river and is in poor condition. It is a very dangerous situation and I think the city should do something about it.

There are about nine business establishments along this road which hire quite a number of employes. The road in such bad condition does not help to improve the business of the establishments because people are afraid to use the road.

The city by now has received this aid, but I have seen very little improvement to this road in the last 18 months. Why nothing has been done I do not know. Maybe someone could tell me.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — The Grandview Dramatic Club presented a comedy, "The Bashful Mr. Bobbs," under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Stevenson.

Albert Simpson, president, presided at the annual senior class banquet in the First Presbyterian Church.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The 10th birthday anniversary of Rebecca Griscom Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, was observed with a dinner at the Spencer House in Ohio View.

Harry Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Patterson of Glenmoor, was named to attend the American Legion's annual Buckeye Boys' State in Columbus.

The Salvation Army marked its 57th anniversary here.

TEN YEARS AGO — Allen Rose, W. 4th St. potter, was named to the Board of Trustees of Carnegie Public Library.

Co-valedictorians at Salineville High School were Margaret Griffith and Evelyn E. King. The salutatorian was Donald Carman.

Odd Facts

One of the world's ugliest beings is the stonefish. It is also dangerous. Gnarled, wrinkled and warted, the stonefish bristles with 13 needlesharp spines that eject poison as deadly as that of a cobra.

The first sugar beet to arrive in America was sent by Joel Barlow, United States minister to France, to Dolly Madison, wife of the then president of the United States.

As pronounced by its people, Laos rhymes with "how."

The Elephant And The Giraffe

Even the bushiest - tailed optimists who once looked forward confidently to summit meetings know now what is wrong with them.

They always add up to the same thing. Governments that wonder what the Soviet Union will do next come to summit meetings to try to find out. Mostly they don't find out what they want to know.

The Communist party strong men who run the Soviet Union have learned it is more frightening for their opponents to be left in suspense than to spell out for them what is in the works. Imagination is worse than reality and it doesn't cost anything.

THERE IS TALK again of another summit meeting, and whenever there's talk there's fire. Not only is it desirable to sound out U.S. opinion on these meetings but it is important to create an air of U.S. expectation. Otherwise, relations with the Soviet Union might as well be carried on the way President Kennedy said they should be carried on when he was a candidate — through the machinery of the State Department.

This is one more thing President Kennedy has learned since he took office. The machinery of the State Department is exasperatingly slow and disturbingly quiet. It leaves the impression nothing is being done, whereas a president of the United States wants to leave the impression that much is being done.

There will be, then, in all probability another summit meeting.

IT WILL BE like a meeting of the elephant and giraffe, with the other animals watching the proceedings and invited to give inklings of which side they would be on if the elephant and giraffe got into a fight.

The trouble with such a meeting is that the elephant always gets what it wants because it knows what it wants and is mean enough to scare off all would-be antagonists.

The giraffe is big, too, but a giraffe doesn't want anything but peace. It wants to negotiate with the other animals about peace. In a manner of speaking, it wants a summit conference in the jungle on the supposition that if it and the elephant can agree the other animals will not be able to start anything.

But the giraffe and the elephant never are going to agree on anything, because the elephant never will rest until all the other animals are so small no one looks up to them, which means there is no future for the giraffe.

AS FOR SUMMIT conferences, the elephant loves them. They always show how big he is and how everybody else wants to know what he is planning to do, whereas the other animals have no plans, except to try to keep the elephant from going on a rampage.

After what happened in Paris the last time, when the elephant tipped over everything in sight, even the giraffe can't feel optimistic about the prospect of another summit conference. But the giraffe wants peace, and only the elephant could insure peace.

River To Lake

As was pointed out at Monday night's dinner meeting of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce, plans are being advanced for the Lake Erie-to-Ohio River freeway.

Much remains to be done, but the progress is encouraging.

Here are some of the things that the road will do, as outlined by the highway association which has worked so energetically on behalf of the project:

Provide the shortest overland route from the great Lakes to the Ohio River, 86.5 miles in length.

Help Ohio meet constantly increasing competition from other states and foreign countries.

Provide safer, faster and more economical transportation.

Directly help to assure the continuation of many jobs now held in this section of Ohio and the surrounding area, as well as promote new job opportunities.

The river-to-lake freeway is one of the long-range projects that holds much promise for Columbiana County and the state as a whole.

"It took the United States 200 years to get where it is. And in 200 years maybe your country can be just as rich. But it only took Russia 40 years to become the giant it is.

"You're 35. Your life expectancy under present conditions is only 40. You have only five years left.

"Are you willing to wait 200 years in the hope your country will become another America or do you want a better life than this in a hurry for yourself and your family under communism?"

If an American then tells the peasant about the blessings of democracy, it won't mean much if the peasant never really knew democracy.

Thus this country's problem, with its foreign aid, is to get the peasant's government to put into effect reforms and programs which will give this poverty-stricken man reason to think he can have a better life without communism.

The Communists began early with their promises. Right after the war in Southern Italy, before the first post-war elections, Communists went from door to door promising them land of their own. That one the Communists lost.

President Kennedy himself, in his speech last summer accepting the Democratic nomination, spoke of the "one-third of the world" that is "rocked by pangs of poverty, hunger and envy."

In a general way he expressed his awareness of the remedy called for when, in his State of the Union message in January, he acknowledged the huge task:

"Our role is essential and unavoidable in the construction of a sound expanding economy for the entire non-Communist world, helping other nations to build the strength to meet their own aspirations, to surmount their own dangers.

"The problems in achieving this goal are towering and unprecedented."

So far he has not attempted to talk to the American public on this problem at length—and with whatever solutions he may have in mind — except through news conferences and messages to Congress.

His message on foreign aid won't go to Congress for about another 10 days. There he may open up his thinking, with concrete proposals, in a way that hasn't been revealed yet.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

I wonder if families still keep flax seeds to insert under the eyelids of those who "get something" in their eyes. This was standard procedure at one time in our family and I'd gladly have gone back to it today when I was in agony with what felt like the limb of a tree lodged in my right eye.

The comedian who wondered if the President, vice president and secretary of state, all out of the country at the same time, knew something he didn't know gets credit for the sharpest witticism of the year. It was Jack Paar.

Any way it's figured, the school classes I graduated in cannot have a reunion for several years, which is a matter of considerable comfort for me — and I am sure for all the other survivors.

Years ago, I was astonished when a man and woman I had just met guessed I was the kind of person who would own a certain well-known brand of garden tractor and I was and we swapped stories. Now I find people doing the same thing about a certain make of small automobile and we swap stories. I never have been able to spot these symptoms, except that years ago I could almost always tell when young doctors, dentists and lawyers had bought their first Buick.

In the issue over whether the United States should spend billions to get to the moon, for fear the Russians might get there first, I am unable to tremble with apprehension over this possibility. What gives me the twitters is the possibility the Russkies might get to Saturn. Or the Milky Way.

Setback For Freedom

Summit Talk Seen As U.S. Weakness

If President Kennedy holds a summit meeting with Nikita Khrushchev — now reliably reported to be planned — this will be construed throughout the Communist world as a sign of America's weakness rather than strength, especially in the wake of the administration's retreats in Laos and Cuba.

David Lawrence

It would be just as logical for Mr. Kennedy to meet with Fidel Castro. Both dictators have insulted a President of the United States. Both are guilty of mass murders and other international crimes

It was just a year ago that Nikita Khrushchev — after having invited President Eisenhower to visit Russia — deliberately refused to meet with him when the heads of government assembled at Paris.

The Soviet premier then withdrew the invitation in an outburst of vituperative propaganda. He hurled such epithets as "thief" and "coward" at President Eisenhower.

The excuse given for all this was the overflight of a U2 plane which the Soviet government knew was but one of a series of such flights for the previous four years.

Also, though it was proper to lodge a diplomatic protest to the United States government, it was highly improper to make a personal attack on the man who happened to be the President of the United States.

This was an act of ingratitude which put the Soviet people in an unfortunate light for it was an insult to the very man who, as the commander in chief of the Allied Forces in Europe during World War II, had helped to save the Russian people from being overrun by Hitler's armies.

If there had not been the successful invasion of North Africa and then of Southern Europe led by Gen. Eisenhower, the Nazi forces would have been free to pursue their invasion of Soviet territory on the Eastern Front.

The U2 episode was a pertinent subject for debate in diplomatic channels. There is, for instance, no clear-cut understanding among international lawyers as to how high planes or "sputniks" may fly over a country without permission. Or is there any persuasive argument in international law against the privilege of a government to protect itself against surprise attack, especially when an adversary is conducting espionage and a cold war throughout the world.

It will be said, President Eisenhower did go to Geneva in 1955 to participate in a summit conference and was ready to go into another such meeting in 1960 in Paris.

The truth is that the futility of such conferences has been pointed out repeatedly by many observers, including this one, ever since such meetings were first suggested.

IT IS TO BE NOTED that former Vice President Nixon a few days ago, in a public comment, urged President Kennedy to meet with Nikita Khrushchev but this by no means takes away from the present occupant of the House the responsibility for participating in such a meeting.

It will be recalled that again and again President Kennedy has intimated — and his secretary of state, Dean Rusk, has spelled it out — that there ought to be no summit meetings unless some agreement has been previously achieved through diplomatic channels on important topics.

The argument has been that summit meetings are all right to ratify agreements or understandings already reached at a lower level of diplomacy.

Mr. Kennedy started out rightly with an emphasis on quiet diplomacy in the hope of achieving a better relationship with the Soviet government.

If, as is claimed, some progress has been made by that method, then it is logical to continue that course rather than indulge in spectacles like the summit conferences for Khrushchev's main purpose in such a meeting is to afford him a big opportunity for Soviet propaganda.

DOUBTLESS it will be broadcast throughout the Soviet Union that President Kennedy made good his offer of an apology publicized during the 1960 preconvention campaign.

There are two major forces in the world today that can affect the issue of peace or war. One is military — but this is being more and more decried as a form of suicide. The other is moral force.

The theory behind moral force is that, while it should never be the sole reliance of a nation, it should be used to the maximum before there is any resort to military power.

Primary in the use of moral force is the need for a repeated emphasis on the principles of human freedom. The United States is desirous of helping in every way to emancipate the Russian people and the other peoples behind the Iron Curtain so that some day they may rise up and establish a free government. The moment autocratic force of major proportions is eliminated, it becomes safe for arms to be reduced and democracy can thrive in the world.

TO KOWTOW now to Nikita Khrushchev, however, only serves to dishearten the peoples behind the Iron Curtain, especially in the enslaved states bordering the Soviet Union where some day the revolt will inevitably begin.

Whether the fateful day of liberation is many years away or nearer at hand is a matter of speculation but for President Kennedy to ignore the insulting behavior of Nikita Khrushchev and to meet with him in Austria or elsewhere cannot but set back and weaken the moral position of the democracies of the world.

Letters To The Editor

In January of 1959 we had a flood which caused damage to the River Rd. in that it undermined the street and the large amount of ice damaged the guardrails.

The city was given several thousand dollars in aid to fix the street and guardrails. The city was going to put in new guardrails and fix the river bank. The city did fix it up a little. It is now about one year and a half later and there are still no guardrails and the road leans toward the river and is in poor condition. It is a very dangerous situation and I think the city should do something about it.

There are about nine business establishments along this road which hire quite a number of employes. The road in such bad condition does not help to improve the business of the establishments because people are afraid to use the road.

The city by now has received this aid, but I have seen very little improvement to this road in the last 18 months. Why nothing has been done I do not know. Maybe someone could tell me.

Renewal Due For Mutual Fire Contract

Council enacted legislation Tuesday night clearing the way for the city to renew three-year mutual aid fire protection agreements with Wellsville, Chester and Midland.

The resolution authorizes Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver to sign new pacts with the three communities, continuing an arrangement that has been in effect for many years.

The legislation provides that any of the communities will send a truck and at least two firemen to help battle a major fire in any one of the other cities. No charge will be made of the city requesting the aid, it adds.

Firemen responding to calls outside their home cities will not receive extra pay and each city will be responsible for death or injury incurred by one of its own personnel, even though it may have occurred in another community, the legislation provides. The cities also will assume the responsibility for damage to their equipment.

In case a major fire breaks out in East Liverpool, for instance, while one of its trucks is fighting a blaze in another city the commanding officer has the right to order his equipment back to its home city.

Present contracts between the cities expire in July. Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper said the agreement is necessary for local firemen to be protected under state laws compensating them for death or injury if they are fighting a blaze outside the city limits.

Ike Declares Cancer Research Most Vital

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower didn't hesitate when asked what field of medical research he feels is most important today.

"I think cancer, unquestionably," he told a reporter Tuesday on his first visit to Johns Hopkins University since he was elected a trustee Jan. 9.

Eisenhower and several other trustees met with the visiting committee for the school of medicine to review activities of the school.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The new Washington Senators picked up 28 players from last year's American League teams in the expansion draft. However, seven of those drafted for $75,000 apiece are playing with other teams.

Civil Defense Units Will Help In Carnival

The 2nd and 5th Platoons of the Civil Defense Tuesday night accepted the Glenmoor firemen's request for assistance in their carnival planned in June.

Everett London, assistant platoon leader, presided at the session in the Glenmoor fire station when plans were discussed for the first aid training which will start shortly with classes scheduled on meeting nights.

The Rev. Charles Kampmeyer of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church gave prayer.

Cream a quarter cup of butter or margarine with a couple of tablespoons of sweet brown prepared mustard. Use the combination as a spread for toasted buns to go with hamburgers.

show the issue was supported by 72.6 per cent of the Clay District voters in New Cumberland and Pughtown (520 to 196) and 60 per cent in Grant District in Chester and Newell (887 to 590).

The board also lauded the County Parent-Teacher Council and principals and teachers of the various schools for their efforts in campaigning for the proposal.

Passage of the bond plan does not mean increased tax rates for property owners as the present levy rates will be extended for another 20 years, the board had pointed out.

The board will not certify the election results to the state tax commissioner, then offer the proposal to the state sinking fund. However, a waiver probably will be filed on the latter requirement to speed up the start of construction.

In addition to the new schools, the bond issue also will provide necessary funds for remodeling and improving the shower and locker rooms of Chester and Wells High Schools, windows for Weir High, and a heating plant for Weir Junior High.

Turnout Termed 'Good'

Though Tuesday was cloudy and cool with the threat of showers, the turnout at the polls was termed "good" and the total vote was only 106 shy of the predicted 6,000.

The number eligible to cast ballots was 22,395, based on registration. However, yesterday's turnout was the highest in a school election since 1957 when 7,395 defeated a $10 per capita tax. The vote on a $1 million school bond issue in 1958 was 4,707. The vote in a special election in 1959 for extending a 50 per cent levy for schools was 3,432.

The new buildings were designed by Kellam & Foley Architects of Columbus and sketches were displayed for the public during the campaign.

Some of the features of the new schools will be teaching through the media of television, and "team instruction." A hot lunch program for all schools also will be part of the modernized program.

Plan Follows Survey

The expansion program was recommended for the county following a six-month survey of the system by a research team from Ohio State University.

The county board earlier employed the consultant firm of Englehardt, Englehardt & Leggett of New York to fashion a curriculum for the new buildings. The architects designed the buildings with use of a guide prepared by the OSU research staff to house specific educational programs and curriculum.

The present tax rate that will be extended is $2.10 per each $1,000 assessed valuation. The annual cost to the average home owner is $5.25, school officials said. They added that if the assessed valuation goes up, the rate comes down and each homeowner will pay less. As more homes are built and new industry develops in the county, the cost will be less on each homeowner, officials said.

The board will canvass the ballots later. Here are the complete but unofficial returns from each precinct, with the "yes" votes listed first in each case:

Grant District

Precinct 1, 92 and 59; Precinct 2, 94 and 91; Precinct 3, 137 and 80; Precinct 4, 120 and 83; Precinct 5, 73 and 15; Precinct 6, 102 and 46; Precinct 7, 111 and 82; Precinct 8, 121 and 96, and Precinct 9, 37 and 38.

Clay District

Precinct 11, 80 and 20; Precinct 12, 51 and 18; Precinct 13, 47 and 42; Precinct 14, 134 and 77; Precinct 15, 208 and 39.

Precinct 30, 270 and 23; Precinct 31, 312 and 23; Precinct 32, 151 and 25; Precinct 33, 149 and 31; Precinct 34, 270 and 30; Precinct 35, 188 and 27; Precinct 36, 285 and 37; Precinct 37, 199 and 52; Precinct 38, 130 and 29; Precinct 39, 203 and 44.

3 Free On Bonds In Weirton Case

NEW CUMBERLAND — Two Weirton men and a woman posted bond Tuesday before Squire John D. Herron on charages of "being concerned with a numbers game" in Weirton.

Thomas M. McLister, operator of Mac's Place in Weirton, posted $500 bond on the numbers charge and $200 bond a charge for horse booking.

Jackie Gregory and George Karnoupakis, operators of the North End Bus Terminal, each posted $500 bond on numbers charges.

The trio was arrested Tuesday at 2 p. m. in Weirton by Hancock County sheriff's deputies.

Hearings will be held May 25.

Chester Man Given 1-10 Years In Prison

Gail P. Freeman of Chester was sentenced to a 1-10-year term in Moundsville State Penitentiary at a hearing Tuesday in Hancock County Circuit Court in New Cumberland.

Freeman entered a guilty plea to an indictment charging him with breaking and entering the garage of Kenneth McCardle, 300 Grant St., Newell.

Freeman entered innocent pleas to three other indictments of breaking and entering and the indictments were nollied by Judge Ralph E. Pryor.

Judge Pryor also revoked the probation of Steven Roy of Weirton and he was sentenced to 2-10 years in prison.

No Diploma But She Wins Fellowship

CHATTANOOGA (AP) — A young mother of four children, who never received a high school diploma, has won a $2,800 fellowship for graduate study at Peabody College in Nashville.

Mrs. Mary W. Headrick, passed an entrance examination to gain admittance to the University of Chattanooga, where she graduates this spring with honors.

Summer Reading Program's Value Aired At Meeting

The value of a summer reading program for students was outlined by Urban Petros, Beaver Local elementary supervisor, at a meeting of the Calcutta Parent-Teacher Association Monday night at the school.

Petros distributed and explained a guide to summer learning which he has prepared.

The group authorized a $150 grant for a lighting project at the Beaver Local High School football field. The ways and means committee reported $989 was netted from the school carnival April 22.

A demonstration was presented by the fourth-grade girls and boys in the physical education program. Walter Lineberry, retiring president, read a Review editorial.

The attendance award was won by Mrs. Grace Hanley's fourth grade. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be in the fall.

Skit Features Joint Event Of Baptist Groups

A humorous skit highlighted the joint meeting of the Philathea and Baraca-Lursaw Classes of the First Baptist Church Monday night in the social rooms.

Cast for "A Radio Station Program" was Mrs. Grace Taylor, Mrs. Roxie Shenkel, Mrs. Gladys Thompson and Mrs. Gladys Durham.

Mrs. Esther Hadfield gave a reading, "Jonah's Wedding Trip." The Philathea Class with Mrs. Taylor as chairman, presented the program.

Mrs. Loa Bowersock conducted devotions on "Promises and Mother." Her reading was "God's Sugar Bowl." The group sang "Standing on the Promises of God."

Individual business meetings were held. Harold Malone, president, presided for the Baraca - Lursaw Class. Paul Lightner offered prayer.

A discussion was held on the conference of the American Baptist Men of Ohio scheduled June 23-25 at Denison University in Granville. A delegate will be named.

Mrs. Thompson, president, conducted business for the Philathea group. Reports were heard from committee chairmen.

A card of thanks was read from Mrs. Norma Watson of Lisbon, a former member recuperating from a recent illness.

Mrs. Hadfield, chairman, announced quilting sessions will resume May 25 at the church.

Refreshments were served 35 by Carl Serafy, Lightner and Albert Bowersock of the Baraca-Lursaw Class.

The next joint meeting is June 29. The Rev. Glenn Woods, Ed Taylor and Charles Boso will have the program. Refreshments will be served by the Philathea Class with Mrs. Arzelia Green and Mrs. Ruth Welch, co-chairmen.

If you want to cook fish fillets in a very hot (550 degrees) oven, dip them in egg, then in bread crumbs, so the insides will be tender and not dried out.

PICK A CARD. Card sharp, indeed, is pert Penny Shorie, all decked out for the Fifth Annual International Gin Rummy Tournament in Las Vegas, Nev. To be honest, Penny is wearing other attire besides the playing cards. The cute little trick would be a queen of hearts in any man's card game.

Assailant Of Girl Probably Nearsighted

TORRINGTON, Conn. (AP) — The man who attacked 18-year-old Frances Weingart may have been nearsighted.

Miss Weingart told police her assailant struck her just as she was closing the door of the dairy store where she works. Then, she said, he squinted and exclaimed "Oh! I'm sorry — you're the wrong person" and fled.

Did you know that you can stew a chicken either whole or disjointed? Just cover the bird with water and add a small onion and carrot, a rib of celery, a bay leaf, several peppercorns and whole allspice.

Suspended Pastor Appeals His Case To Ohio's Synod

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin, "shocked and disappointed" by the action of the Cincinnati Presbytery in suspending him from office, has appealed his case to the Ohio Synod.

The presbytery suspended McCrackin from office and from the communion of his church Tuesday as the result of the minister's long dispute with the Internal Revenue Service. McCrackin has refused to pay income taxes, contending that war is a sin and part of tax money is used for military purposes.

The suspension is for an indefinite period.

McCrackin said he did not feel reasons for the presbytery's decision "are consistent with the evidence and testimony presented during the trial's session, nor in keeping with the historical position of the United Presbyterian Church."

McCrackin served five months in a federal prison in 1959 for declining to heed an IRS summons. McCrackin, an admirer of Gandhi's principles of civil disobedience, had to be carried bodily into U.S. District Court.

The presbytery's statement, issued after almost 11 months of studying the case, said McCrackin was "guilty by sufficient proof of sin (1) of resisting the ordinances of God in that upon pretense of Christian liberty you have opposed the civil lawful powers and the lawful exercise of it; (2) publishing erroneous opinions and maintaining practices which are destructive to the eternal peace and order which Christ hath established in the church; (3) failing to obey the lawful commands and to be subject to the authority of the civil magistrates."

McCrackin has continued to refuse to pay income taxes since his release from the federal penal institution at Allentown, Pa., in May 1959.

The Ohio Synod will meet June 13-16 at Muskingum College. If it reviews and upholds the presbytery's judgment, McCrackin can appeal to the General Assembly of the church in Denver, Colo., in May 1962.

2 Democratic Groups To Sponsor Fish Fry

The East Liverpool Democratic Club and the Central Columbiana County Democratic Club at Lisbon will sponsor a fish fry jointly Friday, May 26, at the DAV Country Club at West Point.

Plans for the event were discussed when the local club met briefly Tuesday night in its rooms on Mulberry St. Frank Bennett, president, presided. A special meeting is scheduled next Tuesday night.

College Students Hear Designer's Talk On Enamels

Don Schreckengost, East Liverpool designer, gave lectures last week to students and graduate students at the University of Syracuse and the Philadelphia Museum College of Art, explaining new uses of porcelain enamel in both architecture and in products for the home.

Schreckengost, who formerly taught for 10 years at Alfred University in Alfred, N. Y., spoke to graduate architectural students and ceramics and design students at the two schools under the auspices of the Porcelain Enamel Institute of Washington, an organization of 36 firms, the American Society of Industrial Design and the Industrial Designers Institute.

Schreckengost pointed out a recently developed porcelain enamel can be applied to aluminum, which formerly was colored in an anodizing process. The colored aluminum can be used for curtain walls in building exteriors.

Similar to glaze used on pottery, the porcelain enamel has the advantage of added strength and resistance to alkalai and fading. It can be used for building interiors and for household utensils such as cooking pots and pans.

Count on cooking a cup of rice when you want servings for four to six.

Suspended Pastor Appeals His Case To Ohio's Synod

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin, "shocked and disappointed" by the action of the Cincinnati Presbytery in suspending him from office, has appealed his case to the Ohio Synod.

The presbytery suspended McCrackin from office and from the communion of his church Tuesday as the result of the minister's long dispute with the Internal Revenue Service. McCrackin has refused to pay income taxes, contending that war is a sin and part of tax money is used for military purposes.

The suspension is for an indefinite period.

McCrackin said he did not feel reasons for the presbytery's decision "are consistent with the evidence and testimony presented during the trial's session, nor in keeping with the historical position of the United Presbyterian Church."

McCrackin served five months in a federal prison in 1959 for declining to heed an IRS summons. McCrackin, an admirer of Gandhi's principles of civil disobedience, had to be carried bodily into U.S. District Court.

The presbytery's statement, issued after almost 11 months of studying the case, said McCrackin was "guilty by sufficient proof of sin (1) of resisting the ordinances of God in that upon pretense of Christian liberty you have opposed the civil lawful powers and the lawful exercise of it; (2) publishing erroneous opinions and maintaining practices which are destructive to the eternal peace and order which Christ hath established in the church; (3) failing to obey the lawful commands and to be subject to the authority of the civil magistrates."

McCrackin has continued to refuse to pay income taxes since his release from the federal penal institution at Allentown, Pa., in May 1959.

The Ohio Synod will meet June 13-16 at Muskingum College. If it reviews and upholds the presbytery's judgment, McCrackin can appeal to the General Assembly of the church in Denver, Colo., in May 1962.

2 Democratic Groups To Sponsor Fish Fry

The East Liverpool Democratic Club and the Central Columbiana County Democratic Club at Lisbon will sponsor a fish fry jointly Friday, May 26, at the DAV Country Club at West Point.

Plans for the event were discussed when the local club met briefly Tuesday night in its rooms on Mulberry St. Frank Bennett, president, presided. A special meeting is scheduled next Tuesday night.

College Students Hear Designer's Talk On Enamels

Don Schreckengost, East Liverpool designer, gave lectures last week to students and graduate students at the University of Syracuse and the Philadelphia Museum College of Art, explaining new uses of porcelain enamel in both architecture and in products for the home.

Schreckengost, who formerly taught for 10 years at Alfred University in Alfred, N. Y., spoke to graduate architectural students and ceramics and design students at the two schools under the auspices of the Porcelain Enamel Institute of Washington, an organization of 36 firms, the American Society of Industrial Design and the Industrial Designers Institute.

Schreckengost pointed out a recently developed porcelain enamel can be applied to aluminum, which formerly was colored in an anodizing process. The colored aluminum can be used for curtain walls in building exteriors.

Similar to glaze used on pottery, the porcelain enamel has the advantage of added strength and resistance to alkalai and fading. It can be used for building interiors and for household utensils such as cooking pots and pans.

Ceramic Lot Plan Passes By 4-3 Vote

until July 3 at the earliest. And if a 30-day wait also is required before it goes into effect, it would be August before the director could sign the contract for the land purchase.

Council's next three regular meetings are on June 5 and 19 and July 3. There are hurdles in the executive branch also — Mayor Bert H. Goodballet's signature. A veto would kill the legislation, as the number of favorable votes mustered on final reading would not be enough to override the mayor's disapproval.

Before the legislation finally was passed last night, all of the councilmen except Bucher took the floor to explain their stands.

Eckert cited the Ceramic project as " step in the right direction," but warned that "it won't solve our whole parking problem."

Costs Seen Burden

"There's been a lot of talk about hating to see an old landmark go," Eckert said. "True, it is an old part of East Liverpool, but many other things are, too. Look at the changes taking place in West End. We can't stand in the way of progress.

"It would be wonderful if someone would take over the building as a theater or for some other purpose, but the costs of operating such a huge building are prohibitive.

"Parking is one of our city's big problems, but we're not alone. Several years ago, Pittsburgh made a survey which showed it would require 700 new parking lots just to take care of the increase in the number of cars.

"It's a piece of property that's doing nothing and it's becoming more of an eyesore, particularly since the fire in the little house nearby," the ELMA president said. "Someday soon the Trinity United Presbyterian Church property will be razed and there will be parking facilities on that site. With the parking lot already operated by the hotel, it means we will have a general parking district in that area.

Parking Inadequate

"We have good egress to East Liverpool via highways, but once those cars arrive, the parking is inadequate. We wish to commend Council for its efforts so far. This is a step in the right direction, but it won't solve our whole parking problem," he concluded.

"I think Mr. Eckert put this thing quite well," Hancock said. "I don't think there's any doubt in anyone's mind that we need more off-street parking. I hope it won't be held up for 30 days. I hope you three who oppose it will reconsider. I requested the public's opinion on this project, but I got only one telephone call."

"I agree we need off - street parking," Cooper said. "I've had a lot of calls against this Ceramic deal. I think there's cheaper and better situated places than the Ceramic."

"I received numerous phone calls," Smith said. "They all felt they didn't want the Ceramic as a parking lot. They told me there are two city lots (at E. 3rd and Market Sts.) that are not metered and are not used for parking."

Cites Tax Defeat

"I think this will have a lot to do with defeating our income tax," Laughlin said.

Cooper was given permission to speak a second time. "The city put meters on two of its lots at 3rd and Market, but the other two aren't metered," he said. "The people ask what is wrong with the other two lots.

"They can't figure out why the city can't use those lots cheaper than buying the Ceramic property. Of course, some say it is a long way to walk uptown from 3rd and Market."

"I consider the Ceramic a good investment for the city and the public," Kelly said. "as Cooper said, it is too far to walk from 3rd St. It's only 260 feet from the Ceramic to the center of the business district. As Mr. Eckert said, it will start to create a parking district on E. 4th St."

"I believe the East Liverpool Review gave good coverage to the parking lot proposition, but somewhere along the line the citizens became confused on what money would be used," Melvin said. "I would be pleased to purchase such a piece of property for myself on the terms the city will have—borrow the money and then sit back for 12½ to 15 years and let it pay for itself.

"In the future, the lot could be used as a site for a department store or some other new business," he added. "The city could release the property at a handsome profit and also obtain a new business. A move has to be started somewhere to provide additional parking. This is one of our first moves forward. We hope sooner or later the rank and file of the public will get behind the administration — not just this administration, but whatever one happens to be in office."

A moment later the vote on final passage was taken, resulting in the 4-3 split. President Charles Edwards declared it passed.

Mrs. Ranelli and Mrs. Candito were both write-ins. There were several other write-ins in the 3rd, 4th and 5th Precincts.

Democratic inspector of elections nominations went to Antonette Dapollonio, 243 votes, 1st Precinct; Zita M. Reed, 194 votes, 2nd Precinct; Margaret Vorkapich, 314, 3rd Precinct; and Margaret L. Hulton, 185, 5th Precinct. Mildred Kosanovich defeated Gertrude Searcy for the 4th Precinct nomination. Their vote:

Kosanovich	238
Searcy	135

Republican inspector nominations went to Dorothy S. Wain, 281 votes, 1st Precinct; Eleanor Reed, 117, 2nd Precinct; Sue Tucker, 16, 3rd Precinct; Ann Giovanelli, 60, 4th Precinct; and Elma Vukas, 49, 5th Precinct.

There were 3,172 eligible to vote and 2,287 cast ballots. Democrats led with 1,709 out of 2,082 eligible. The Republican turnout was 578 out of 1,067.

Kidnap

of any stranger clad in a mint-green jacket."

Beard said the stranger apparently hid in his unlocked car while it was parked in the vicinity of the Sheridan Ave. playground in Youngstown.

The youth told deputies he went to purchase some cigarettes, and upon returning to the auto, felt something "cold" pressed against the back of his neck. The abductor then warned him against turning around.

Beard was able to furnish only a bare description reporting only that the gunman wore a green jacket and apparently was a Caucasian.

Deputies used bloodhounds in the area where the suspect vanished last night. The hounds followed a trail in a circle and deputies said the gunman apparently returned to the higway and caught a ride.

Deputies maintained roadblocks until 2 a. m. today but found no trace of the suspect.

FBI officials from Wheeling arrived this morning at the sheriff's office in New Cumberland to question Beard. The FBI has the authority to investigate in such cases where an abduction path crosses into another state.

Beard told authorities that the ride started in Youngstown about 7:40, and ended along Route 66 about 9:15. The young man was driving a 1955 model, yellow and white Oldsmobile.

Deputies were busy last night and today checking out many reports of strangers wearing green jackets. All proved futile, however.

The youth spent the night in the sheriff's office in New Cumberland. He is a former Youngstown University student and has lived there only a brief time.

Study Sought On Change In Alley Traffic

Council asked its street committee Tuesday night to investigate a suggestion to establish one-way traffic in Potters Alley between Broadway and Walnut St.

The proposal to allow only westbound traffic through the narrow alley was made by Councilman Norman Bucher. He said cars bound in opposite directions can pass only with difficulty and that the alley also handles comparatively heavy pedestrian traffic.

More than one narrow thoroughfare in the downtown area is known as Potters Alley, but Bucher explained he referred to the alley which connects Broadway and Walnut St. about midway between E. 6th St. and the Horn Switch. He referred to it as "the alley that runs alongside where Kroger's used to be."

The 1961 edition of the city map calls it Potters Alley, although that same name sometimes is applied to other little thoroughfares downtown. Bucher said a one-way section of E. 6th St. a block to the south handles east-bound traffic adequately.

Several other street and traffic matters were posed or disposed of.

Council approved legislation for installation of a traffic light on Lisbon St. at N. Shady Ln. Dr., Fisher Park, to help safeguard children crossing the busy thoroughfare en route to and from LaCroft School. The light was requested about two months ago by a delegation from the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association.

The street committee was asked to investigate a petition requesting the city to vacate a short stretch of McKinnon Ave. between Smithfield St. and Fairmont St. The petition was signed by the owners of abutting property, Dr. and Mrs. C. Marvin Kinsey and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bateman.

Dr. Kinsey presented the petition in person. The street is costly for the city to maintain because of rubble that washes onto it, he said. If the stretch is vacated, the property - owners will landscape it and plant it in grass, he added.

Councilman John Kelly, reporting the street committee, presented a petition in which property-owners requested installation of an 18-foot concrete pavement on Princeton Ave. between Jennings Ave. and Auburn Alley, with a brick gutter on one side.

It's the first presented to Council under a new street program in which the city will assume a major share of costs. The petition was referred to the finance committee. Kelly said two other street petitions are circulating in his ward, the Second, and others are circulating in other wards.

Kelly also suggested that protective railings should be installed around the poles at Central Fire Station which firemen use to slide from the second floor of the building to the first on emergency calls.

"I think railings should be installed immediately — before someone falls down through one of those holes in the floor," he commented.

Councilman Donald Hancock said he has been asked several times how soon Council will put into effect some of the programs it has announced recently, including street paving, oiling and a recreation project.

"We're working on it; it takes time," he commented.

Council approved a report from Councilman Robert Laughlin rejecting claims filed against the city by five persons. Those who filed the claims were: Richard Feldman, 3285 St. Clair Ave., William R. Fry, 2047 Lisbon St., Marion Congo, 790 Pennsylvania Ave., Robert Corbett, 1120 Vine St., and Paul Headley, 1023 Anderson Ave., Wellsville.

The meeting opened with invocation by Maj. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army.

superintendent said. All pupils will be picked up at their regular bus stops, he said. The cafeteria will not operate tomorrow, so the students should have lunch before reporting, he added.

Water department crews will cut into a 6-inch line on old W. 8th St. at a point a short distance from the foot of Lisbon St. to install a T and a valve for the new main. The new main will extend 914 feet to the sewage plant, crossing the W. 8th St. "super-road" and then following old W. 4th St. Ext. to the plant.

However, the water will be off only for the time required to install the T and the valve, Duke said. Actual work on installation of the line will be performed by Chapin & Chapin, Inc., one of the contractors for the city freeway.

The new line will replace the present main which serves the sewage plant. It runs along W. 4th St. Ext. underneath the Newell Bridge—in the path of the freeway.

Merger

mended by an Ohio University survey team. Franklin was consolidated with Salineville, Yellow Creek and Wayne briefly some years ago, but the merger was dissolved because of technicalities. The other three districts subsequently merged as Southern Local.

In other business, the county board adopted the recommendation to use World History books for sophomore classes in the county system.

Mrs. Marilyn Solak, high school consultant; Richard Jones of Salineville, Supt. Dale Gates of United, George VanHorne, executive of Beaver Local, and Supt. Joseph Driscoll of Fairfield-Waterford selected the books.

Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, president, reported on a Northeastern Ohio School Boards Association meeting he attended in Kent recently. He was a member of the nominating committee. Willard Ferrall of Columbiana was appointed a member of the board as a representative of exempted villages. Atty. Elliott reported on what could be anticipated in state help for schools and also on the proposal for junior colleges or community colleges in Ohio.

The board recommended that the pupil accident insurance plan for 1961-1962 be purchased from the Erlston Agency of Canton, represented by Jack Mills of Guilford Lake. It will cost each child $1.50 per year with other rates for those in football practice or play.

The board also discussed the contract expiring Aug. 1 for Mrs. Solak but no official action was taken.

Supt. James L. McBride reported on replies received from Rep. J. Warren Bettis and Rep. Clarence Wetzel and the Senate Education Committee. He said he notified Dr. Samuel Hicks at Ohio University of approval of the Southern Local bond issue. Dr. Hicks was leader of survey made by Ohio University, which also suggested that Franklin Local and Southern Local merge. Supt. McBride also read letter from the Lake County Board of Education, approved junior college and community college legislation.

Supt. McBride said Fred Lohman, attendance officer for the county school system, made 26 home calls and 40 school calls during April and traveled 1,163 miles. He also read the monthly report of Hubert Lawrence county school psychologist.

Next meeting is June 20 at 8 p. m.

Cerebral Palsy Unit Gets Set For Election

Mrs. Dorothy Horsley, chairman, Mrs. Mary McCullough and Standley Hilbert were named to the nominating committee at the meeting of the Columbiana County Affiliate of the United Cerebral Palsy Association Tuesday night in the clinic rooms of the Mary Patterson Memorial. Twelve attended.

Lawrence Zollinger, president, conducted business and reported on the success of the recent open house event.

Miss Kathleen Potter, executive secretary, read the minutes. Routine reports were given by committee chairmen.

Election will be held at the annual business meeting June 12.

tion for inspector of elections in the 1st Precinct, and Mary Berovich, with 61, in the 2nd. Ellen P. Lemon received the Republican nomination with 125 votes in the 1st Precinct and Erma Strohm with 56 in the 2nd Precinct.

Some 146 Democrats and 183 Republicans voted of the 518 Democrats and 520 Republicans eligible.

In Glasgow Borough, where all nominations were made by write-ins, two candidates tied while one was unopposed, each with one vote for burgess.

William Keck and Leo Palmer tied for the Democratic nomination and Charles Rodway received the Republican nomination.

Patricia Keys received the Democratic tax collector nomination over the nearest candidate, Hazel Webb who had 2 votes and also tied with Niles Blackmore, with one vote each for the Republican nomination.

William Keck received 4 votes to win the Democratic nomination for justice of the peace over Edward Irwin who had 2 votes, and William Craine, one. Keck was the only write-in for the Republican nomination.

Daniel Gallagher, 15 votes, and Ralph Webb, 11 votes, won the Democratic nomination for two Council posts. They were opposed by Clifford Blackmore, who had 9 votes, Charles Rodway, 2, and John Gallagher, one.

Three tied for the Republican nominations for the two Council posts. They are Clifford Blackmore, Daniel Gallagher and Charles Rodway, with 3 votes each. Charles Camp and Ralph Webb received one each.

Charles O. Camp Jr. won the Democratic nomination for school director. The only other write-in was Ruth Blackmore, who had 2 votes. She won the Republican nomination with 4 votes and Camp received one.

William Craine received the most votes for the auditor nomination in both parties. He received 4, defeating Ila McCombs, who had one vote, on the Democratic ticket and 2 votes to Ethel Camp's one on the Republican ticket.

Emma Palmer was nominated as the Democratic candidate for judge of elections over two others. She received 15 votes while tw oothers rceeived one each. She also received the most votes for the Republican nomination, 4 votes to Ila McCombs' one.

Robert Camp became the Democratic candidate for inspector of elections with 6 votes. He defeated John Gallagher who had 3 votes and five other write-ins with one each.

Four, who tied for the Republican nomination for inspector of elections with one vote each, were John Gallagher, Jean McCombs, Mary Hanlin and Ila McCombs.

Of the 40 Democrats eligible to vote, some 19 cast ballots while 6 of the 19 Republicans voted.

The Hookstown primary had several write-in candidates with Caroline Wright receiving the Democratic nomination for one of two school director posts while three others tied for the second post.

She received 4 votes to 2 each for Margaret A. Anderson, Dorothea Brooks and Millard Dawson. There were four other write-ins.

Margaret Anderson, with 31 votes, received the Republican nomination along with Dorothea Brooks, who had 23. There were seven other write-ins.

The largest number of write-ins were for the four Council posts. About 22 sought the Democratic nomination with Homer B. Potts, leading with 5 votes, James B. Anderson, 2, and Norman H Brooks and T. W. Wright with 3 each.

Republicans receiving the Council nominations were Brooks with 34, Anderson, 31; Moore, 30, and Potts, 24. Ewart Dawson received 20 votes. There were four other write-ins.

Francis W. Doak Jr. received the tax collector nomination on the Democratic ticket with 10 votes, unopposed, and the Republican nomination with 41 votes, defeating Daymon Frazier who had one vote.

Glenn E. Mason and Donald Laughlin tied for the Democratic nomination for burgess. Laughlin received the Republican nomination with 29 votes while Daymon Frazier had 3 votes. There were four other Republican write-ins.

Gertrude L. Mott, with 3 votes received the Democratic auditor nomination over three write-ins. She also received 41 votes to win the Republican nomination over two other write-ins with one each.

Ewart Dawson won the Democratic justice of the peace nomination with 2 votes. Four write-ins had one vote each. Clair Potts won the Republican nomination with five votes. There were eight other write-ins with Virgil Septer next with 2 votes.

Beulah Robertson received the Republican nomination for judge of elections with 43 votes and the Democratic nomination with 6 votes.

Margaret Nickle received the Republican nomination for inspector of elections with 42 votes and the Democratic nomination with two votes. There was one Republican write-in and five Democrats with one each.

Some 12 Democrats and 43 Republicans voted of the 42 Democrats and 78 Republicans eligible.

Easy Way To Golf

CHICAGO (AP) — The golf car has displaced the caddy at George S. May's Tam O'Shanter Country Club. Last year he went all out for golf cars and dropped 450 on-call caddies.

May has 122 cars for his 450 active men golfers and some 200 women who golf occasionally.

Theft, Arrest Crash Plaque Visitor In City

A Canton man visiting in East Liverpool catalogued three unfortunate experiences within a five-hour span Tuesday night — and every one of them cost him money.

John Homan was:

Involved in a traffic accident at 7:30; victim of a theft from his parked car at 10:30 and finally arrested on an intoxication charge at 12:08 a. m. today.

Homan's 1954 two-door sedan was involved in a collision in Green Ln. with a 1960 model compact two-door operated by Alma I. Dotson, 524 Market St. It damaged the rear of the local woman's car, but there apparently was no damage to the Canton man's auto, police said.

The two drivers and several witnesses gave police conflicting stories. The local woman said she was parked when Homan's car hit her auto in the rear. Homan related that the woman's auto was not parked when he started to pull into a parking spot. She backed into his car, he told police.

Three hours later, Homan reported to police a .222-caliber rifle with a telescopic sight and three No. 9 wooden golf clubs and a golf bag were stolen out of his car while it was parked in Green Ln. He said the theft occurred between 10 and 10:30.

The final experience with the police department came shortly after midnight when Homan was arrested on Croft St. on an intoxication charge. He forfeited a $32.50 bond today in Municipal Court.

17 Kept By Angels

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Of the 28 players picked up at $75,000 apiece by the Los Angeles Angels in the American League expansion draft only 17 opened the campaign with the new club. Duke Maas, one of those caught in the expansion draft, was fortunate. He was returned to the Yankees in a deal for rookie shortstop Fritz Brickell.

Ceramic Lot Plan Passes By 4-3 Vote

until July 3 at the earliest. And if a 30-day wait also is required before it goes into effect, it would be August before the director could sign the contract for the land purchase.

Council's next three regular meetings are on June 5 and 19 and July 3. There are hurdles in the executive branch also — Mayor Bert H. Goodballet's signature. A veto would kill the legislation, as the number of favorable votes mustered on final reading would not be enough to override the mayor's disapproval.

Before the legislation finally was passed last night, all of the councilmen except Bucher took the floor to explain their stands.

Eckert cited the Ceramic project as " step in the right direction," but warned that "it won't solve our whole parking problem."

Costs Seen Burden

"There's been a lot of talk about hating to see an old landmark go," Eckert said. "True, it is an old part of East Liverpool, but many other things are, too. Look at the changes taking place in West End. We can't stand in the way of progress.

"It would be wonderful if someone would take over the building as a theater or for some other purpose, but the costs of operating such a huge building are prohibitive.

"Parking is one of our city's big problems, but we're not alone. Several years ago, Pittsburgh made a survey which showed it would require 700 new parking lots just to take care of the increase in the number of cars.

"It's a piece of property that's doing nothing and it's becoming more of an eyesore, particularly since the fire in the little house nearby," the ELMA president said. "Someday soon the Trinity United Presbyterian Church property will be razed and there will be parking facilities on that site. With the parking lot already operated by the hotel, it means we will have a general parking district in that area.

Parking Inadequate

"We have good egress to East Liverpool via highways, but once those cars arrive, the parking is inadequate. We wish to commend Council for its efforts so far. This is a step in the right direction, but it won't solve our whole parking problem," he concluded.

"I think Mr. Eckert put this thing quite well," Hancock said. "I don't think there's any doubt in anyone's mind that we need more off-street parking. I hope it won't be held up for 30 days. I hope you three who oppose it will reconsider. I requested the public's opinion on this project, but I got only one telephone call."

"I agree we need off - street parking," Cooper said. "I've had a lot of calls against this Ceramic deal. I think there's cheaper and better situated places than the Ceramic."

"I received numerous phone calls," Smith said. "They all felt they didn't want the Ceramic as a parking lot. They told me there are two city lots (at E. 3rd and Market Sts.) that are not metered and are not used for parking."

Cites Tax Defeat

"I think this will have a lot to do with defeating our income tax," Laughlin said.

Cooper was given permission to speak a second time. "The city put meters on two of its lots at 3rd and Market, but the other two aren't metered," he said. "The people ask what is wrong with the other two lots.

"They can't figure out why the city can't use those lots cheaper than buying the Ceramic property. Of course, some say it is a long way to walk uptown from 3rd and Market."

"I consider the Ceramic a good investment for the city and the public," Kelly said. "as Cooper said, it is too far to walk from 3rd St. It's only 260 feet from the Ceramic to the center of the business district. As Mr. Eckert said, it will start to create a parking district on E. 4th St."

"I believe the East Liverpool Review gave good coverage to the parking lot proposition, but somewhere along the line the citizens became confused on what money would be used," Melvin said. "I would be pleased to purchase such a piece of property for myself on the terms the city will have—borrow the money and then sit back for 12½ to 15 years and let it pay for itself.

"In the future, the lot could be used as a site for a department store or some other new business," he added. "The city could release the property at a handsome profit and also obtain a new business. A move has to be started somewhere to provide additional parking. This is one of our first moves forward. We hope sooner or later the rank and file of the public will get behind the administration — not just this administration, but whatever one happens to be in office."

A moment later the vote on final passage was taken, resulting in the 4-3 split. President Charles Edwards declared it passed.

Republicans seeking the four Council posts were unopposed. Louis Giovanelli 490 votes; Hugo C. Oberg, 511; John W. Reider, 514, and Will T. Leavell, 456.

Edward Cilli, with 1,157 votes, and James Morrison, 1,083, both incumbents, won the Democratic nominations for the two school director posts. They were unopposed.

Republicans unopposed for school director post were Nick Katich, 496 votes, and Sam D. Zuppe, 493.

Norma Jean Liberatore was unopposed for the Democratic nomination for auditor and received 1,224 votes. William R. Black, the Republican, received 312 votes, unopposed.

Bernard J. Gallagher, the incumbent Democratic candidate for constable, received 1,234 votes, unopposed. Steve Lucas Jr. defeated Philip D. DiCostro for the Republican nomination for constable. Their vote:

Lucas	315
DiCostro	256

Candidates of each party were unopposed for the nomination for justice of the peace. George Griffin, Democrat incumbent, received 1,238 votes and Mike Vilsack, Republican, 552 votes.

Democrats unopposed for judge of elections nominations were Sophie Trainer, 245 votes, 1st Precinct; Anna Papuzek, 185 votes, 2nd Precinct, Jennie Wirag, 352, 3rd Precinct, and Barbara C. Zapsic, 184, 5th Precinct. In the 4th Precinct, Frances Hartman defeated Helen Marie Vanlier. Their vote:

Hartman	201
Vanlier	169

Republicans nominated as judges of elections were Dorothy Z. Arndt, 280 votes, 1st Precinct; Eleanore M. Vranes, 113 votes, 2nd Precinct; Sue Tucker, 5 votes, 3rd Precinct; Lucy Ranelli, 5 votes, 4th Precinct, and Josephine Candito, 2 votes, 5th Precinct. Mrs. Ranelli and Mrs. Candito were both write-ins. There were several other write-ins in the 3rd, 4th and 5th Precincts.

Democratic inspector of elections nominations went to Antonette Dapollonio, 243 votes, 1st Precinct; Zita M. Reed, 194 votes, 2nd Precinct; Margaret Vorkapich, 314, 3rd Precinct; and Margaret L. Hulton, 185, 5th Precinct. Mildred Kosanovich defeated Gertrude Searcy for the 4th Precinct nomination. Their vote:

Kosanovich	238
Searcy	135

Republican inspector nominations went to Dorothy S. Wain, 281 votes, 1st Precinct; Eleanor Reed, 117, 2nd Precinct; Sue Tucker, 16, 3rd Precinct; Ann Giovanelli, 60, 4th Precinct; and Elma Vukas, 49, 5th Precinct.

There were 3,172 eligible to vote and 2,287 cast ballots. Democrats led with 1,709 out of 2,082 eligible. The Republican turnout was 578 out of 1,067.

Kidnap

of any stranger clad in a mint-green jacket."

Beard said the stranger apparently hid in his unlocked car while it was parked in the vicinity of the Sheridan Ave. playground in Youngstown.

The youth told deputies he went to purchase some cigarettes, and upon returning to the auto, felt something "cold" pressed against the back of his neck. The abductor then warned him against turning around.

Beard was able to furnish only a bare description reporting only that the gunman wore a green jacket and apparently was a Caucasian.

Deputies used bloodhounds in the area where the suspect vanished last night. The hounds followed a trail in a circle and deputies said the gunman apparently returned to the higway and caught a ride.

Deputies maintained roadblocks until 2 a. m. today but found no trace of the suspect.

FBI officials from Wheeling arrived this morning at the sheriff's office in New Cumberland to question Beard. The FBI has the authority to investigate in such cases where an abduction path crosses into another state.

Beard told authorities that the ride started in Youngstown about 7:40, and ended along Route 66 about 9:15. The young man was driving a 1955 model, yellow and white Oldsmobile.

Deputies were busy last night and today checking out many reports of strangers wearing green jackets. All proved futile, however.

The youth spent the night in the sheriff's office in New Cumberland. He is a former Youngstown University student and has lived there only a brief time.

Study Sought On Change In Alley Traffic

Council asked its street committee Tuesday night to investigate a suggestion to establish one-way traffic in Potters Alley between Broadway and Walnut St.

The proposal to allow only westbound traffic through the narrow alley was made by Councilman Norman Bucher. He said cars bound in opposite directions can pass only with difficulty and that the alley also handles comparatively heavy pedestrian traffic.

More than one narrow thoroughfare in the downtown area is known as Potters Alley, but Bucher explained he referred to the alley which connects Broadway and Walnut St. about midway between E. 6th St. and the Horn Switch. He referred to it as "the alley that runs alongside where Kroger's used to be."

The 1961 edition of the city map calls it Potters Alley, although that same name sometimes is applied to other little thoroughfares downtown. Bucher said a one-way section of E. 6th St. a block to the south handles east-bound traffic adequately.

Several other street and traffic matters were posed or disposed of.

Council approved legislation for installation of a traffic light on Lisbon St. at N. Shady Ln. Dr., Fisher Park, to help safeguard children crossing the busy thoroughfare en route to and from LaCroft School. The light was requested about two months ago by a delegation from the LaCroft Parent-Teacher Association.

The street committee was asked to investigate a petition requesting the city to vacate a short stretch of McKinnon Ave. between Smithfield St. and Fairmont St. The petition was signed by the owners of abutting property, Dr. and Mrs. C. Marvin Kinsey and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bateman.

Dr. Kinsey presented the petition in person. The street is costly for the city to maintain because of rubble that washes onto it, he said. If the stretch is vacated, the property - owners will landscape it and plant it in grass, he added.

Councilman John Kelly, reporting the street committee, presented a petition in which property-owners requested installation of an 18-foot concrete pavement on Princeton Ave. between Jennings Ave. and Auburn Alley, with a brick gutter on one side.

It's the first presented to Council under a new street program in which the city will assume a major share of costs. The petition was referred to the finance committee. Kelly said two other street petitions are circulating in his ward, the Second, and others are circulating in other wards.

Kelly also suggested that protective railings should be installed around the poles at Central Fire Station which firemen use to slide from the second floor of the building to the first on emergency calls.

"I think railings should be installed immediately — before someone falls down through one of those holes in the floor," he commented.

Councilman Donald Hancock said he has been asked several times how soon Council will put into effect some of the programs it has announced recently, including street paving, oiling and a recreation project.

"We're working on it; it takes time," he commented.

Council approved a report from Councilman Robert Laughlin rejecting claims filed against the city by five persons. Those who filed the claims were: Richard Feldman, 3285 St. Clair Ave., William R. Fry, 2047 Lisbon St., Marion Congo, 790 Pennsylvania Ave., Robert Corbett, 1120 Vine St., and Paul Headley, 1023 Anderson Ave., Wellsville.

The meeting opened with invocation by Maj. William Hathorn of the Salvation Army.

Cutoff

superintendent said. All pupils will be picked up at their regular bus stops, he said. The cafeteria will not operate tomorrow, so the students should have lunch before reporting, he added.

Water department crews will cut into a 6-inch line on old W. 8th St. at a point a short distance from the foot of Lisbon St. to install a T and a valve for the new main. The new main will extend 914 feet to the sewage plant, crossing the W. 8th St. "super-road" and then following old W. 4th St. Ext. to the plant.

However, the water will be off only for the time required to install the T and the valve, Duke said. Actual work on installation of the line will be performed by Chapin & Chapin, Inc., one of the contractors for the city freeway.

The new line will replace the present main which serves the sewage plant. It runs along W. 4th St. Ext. underneath the Newell Bridge—in the path of the freeway.

Merger

mended by an Ohio University survey team. Franklin was consolidated with Salineville, Yellow Creek and Wayne briefly some years ago, but the merger was dissolved because of technicalities. The other three districts subsequently merged as Southern Local.

In other business, the county board adopted the recommendation to use World History books for sophomore classes in the county system.

Mrs. Marilyn Solak, high school consultant; Richard Jones of Salineville, Supt. Dale Gates of United, George VanHorne, executive of Beaver Local, and Supt. Joseph Driscoll of Fairfield-Waterford selected the books.

Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, president, reported on a Northeastern Ohio School Boards Association meeting he attended in Kent recently. He was a member of the nominating committee. Willard Ferrall of Columbiana was appointed a member of the board as a representative of exempted villages. Atty. Elliott reported on what could be anticipated in state help for schools and also on the proposal for junior colleges or community colleges in Ohio.

The board recommended that the pupil accident insurance plan for 1961-1962 be purchased from the Erlston Agency of Canton, represented by Jack Mills of Guilford Lake. It will cost each child $1.50 per year with other rates for those in football practice or play.

The board also discussed the contract expiring Aug. 1 for Mrs. Solak but no official action was taken.

Supt. James L. McBride reported on replies received from Rep. J. Warren Bettis and Rep. Clarence Wetzel and the Senate Education Committee. He said he notified Dr. Samuel Hicks at Ohio University of approval of the Southern Local bond issue. Dr. Hicks was leader of survey made by Ohio University, which also suggested that Franklin Local and Southern Local merge. Supt. McBride also read letter from the Lake County Board of Education, approved junior college and community college legislation.

Supt. McBride said Fred Lohman, attendance officer for the county school system, made 26 home calls and 40 school calls during April and traveled 1,163 miles. He also read the monthly report of Hubert Lawrence county school psychologist.

Next meeting is June 20 at 8 p. m.

Cerebral Palsy Unit Gets Set For Election

Mrs. Dorothy Horsley, chairman, Mrs. Mary McCullough and Standley Hilbert were named to the nominating committee at the meeting of the Columbiana County Affiliate of the United Cerebral Palsy Association Tuesday night in the clinic rooms of the Mary Patterson Memorial. Twelve attended.

Lawrence Zollinger, president, conducted business and reported on the success of the recent open house event.

Miss Kathleen Potter, executive secretary, read the minutes. Routine reports were given by committee chairmen.

Election will be held at the annual business meeting June 12.

tion for inspector of elections in the 1st Precinct, and Mary Berovich, with 61, in the 2nd. Ellen P. Lemon received the Republican nomination with 125 votes in the 1st Precinct and Erma Strohm with 56 in the 2nd Precinct.

Some 146 Democrats and 183 Republicans voted of the 518 Democrats and 520 Republicans eligible.

In Glasgow Borough, where all nominations were made by write-ins, two candidates tied while one was unopposed, each with one vote for burgess.

William Keck and Leo Palmer tied for the Democratic nomination and Charles Rodway received the Republican nomination.

Patricia Keys received the Democratic tax collector nomination over the nearest candidate, Hazel Webb who had 2 votes and also tied with Niles Blackmore, with one vote each for the Republican nomination.

William Keck received 4 votes to win the Democratic nomination for justice of the peace over Edward Irwin who had 2 votes, and William Craine, one. Keck was the only write-in for the Republican nomination.

Daniel Gallagher, 15 votes, and Ralph Webb, 11 votes, won the Democratic nomination for two Council posts. They were opposed by Clifford Blackmore, who had 9 votes, Charles Rodway, 2, and John Gallagher, one.

Three tied for the Republican nominations for the two Council posts. They are Clifford Blackmore, Daniel Gallagher and Charles Rodway, with 3 votes each. Charles Camp and Ralph Webb received one each.

Charles O. Camp Jr. won the Democratic nomination for school director. The only other write-in was Ruth Blackmore, who had 2 votes. She won the Republican nomination with 4 votes and Camp received one.

William Craine received the most votes for the auditor nomination in both parties. He received 4, defeating Ila McCombs, who had one vote, on the Democratic ticket and 2 votes to Ethel Camp's one on the Republican ticket.

Emma Palmer was nominated as the Democratic candidate for judge of elections over two others. She received 15 votes while tw oothers rceeived one each. She also received the most votes for the Republican nomination, 4 votes to Ila McCombs' one.

Robert Camp became the Democratic candidate for inspector of elections with 6 votes. He defeated John Gallagher who had 3 votes and five other write-ins with one each.

Four, who tied for the Republican nomination for inspector of elections with one vote each, were John Gallagher, Jean McCombs, Mary Hanlin and Ila McCombs.

Of the 40 Democrats eligible to vote, some 19 cast ballots while 6 of the 19 Republicans voted.

The Hookstown primary had several write-in candidates with Caroline Wright receiving the Democratic nomination for one of two school director posts while three others tied for the second post.

She received 4 votes to 2 each for Margaret A. Anderson, Dorothea Brooks and Millard Dawson. There were four other write-ins.

Margaret Anderson, with 31 votes, received the Republican nomination along with Dorothea Brooks, who had 23. There were seven other write-ins.

The largest number of write-ins were for the four Council posts. About 22 sought the Democratic nomination with Homer B. Potts, leading with 5 votes, James B. Anderson, 2, and Norman H. Brooks and T. W. Wright with 3 each.

Republicans receiving the Council nominations were Brooks with 34, Anderson, 31; Moore, 30, and Potts, 24. Ewart Dawson received 20 votes. There were four other write-ins.

Francis W. Doak Jr. received the tax collector nomination on the Democratic ticket with 10 votes, unopposed, and the Republican nomination with 41 votes, defeating Daymon Frazier who had one vote.

Glenn E. Mason and Donald Laughlin tied for the Democratic nomination for burgess. Laughlin received the Republican nomination with 29 votes while Daymon Frazier had 3 votes. There were four other Republican write-ins.

Gertrude L. Mott, with 3 votes received the Democratic auditor nomination over three write-ins. She also received 41 votes to win the Republican nomination over two other write-ins with one each.

Ewart Dawson won the Democratic justice of the peace nomination with 2 votes. Four write-ins had one vote each. Clair Potts won the Republican nomination with five votes. There were eight other write-ins with Virgil Septer next with 2 votes.

Beulah Robertson received the Republican nomination for judge of elections with 43 votes and the Democratic nomination with 6 votes.

Margaret Nickle received the Republican nomination for inspector of elections with 42 votes and the Democratic nomination with two votes. There was one Republican write-in and five Democrats with one each.

Some 12 Democrats and 43 Republicans voted of the 42 Democrats and 78 Republicans eligible.

Easy Way To Golf

CHICAGO (AP) — The golf car has displaced the caddy at George S. May's Tam O'Shanter Country Club. Last year he went all out for golf cars and dropped 450 on-call caddies.

May has 122 cars for his 450 active men golfers and some 200 women who golf occasionally.

Theft, Arrest Crash Plaque Visitor In City

A Canton man visiting in East Liverpool catalogued three unfortunate experiences within a five-hour span Tuesday night — and every one of them cost him money.

John Homan was:

Involved in a traffic accident at 7:30; victim of a theft from his parked car at 10:30 and finally arrested on an intoxication charge at 12:08 a. m. today.

Homan's 1954 two-door sedan was involved in a collision in Green Ln. with a 1960 model compact two-door operated by Alma I. Dotson, 524 Market St. It damaged the rear of the local woman's car, but there apparently was no damage to the Canton man's auto, police said.

The two drivers and several witnesses gave police conflicting stories. The local woman said she was parked when Homan's car hit her auto in the rear. Homan related that the woman's auto was not parked when he started to pull into a parking spot. She backed into his car, he told police.

Three hours later, Homan reported to police a .222-caliber rifle with a telescopic sight and three No. 9 wooden golf clubs and a golf bag were stolen out of his car while it was parked in Green Ln. He said the theft occurred between 10 and 10:30.

The final experience with the police department came shortly after midnight when Homan was arrested on Croft St. on an intoxication charge. He forfeited a $32.50 bond today in Municipal Court.

17 Kept By Angels

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Of the 28 players picked up at $75,000 apiece by the Los Angeles Angels in the American League expansion draft only 17 opened the campaign with the new club. Duke Maas, one of those caught in the expansion draft, was fortunate. He was returned to the Yankees in a deal for rookie shortstop Fritz Brickell.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Millions of people read your column and talk about it on buses, trains and planes. My 8-year-old quotes you, and so does my 92-year-old grandfather.

Our minister used your "Rules for Raising Children" as a basis for his sermon a few months ago. You could go down in history with Joan of Arc and Helen of Troy if you would do one simple thing. Say a good word for the American mother-in-law.

It is my personal opinion that the America mother-in-law is the most maligned, abused, ridiculed figure alive.

My mother-in-law is a grand person. I a d o r e her. She never once has interfered or imposed herself on us. There must be millions of other wonderful mothers-in-law.

Why don't you ask your readers to write and tell you about the good relationship? Then print the best letters. It would be a national service. — A HAPPY DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

Deary Happy: I'll do better than that. I will send to the person who writes the best letter in praise of a mother-in-law a medal with an appropriate inscription.

Blubber Doll

Dear Ann: This decision is right in your lap. I'm a high school junior. My face wouldn't launch a thousand ships but I'm not bad looking. The truth is I'm about 22 pounds overweight.

All the fellows I know are friendly — and brotherly. But no dates. Yesterday one of the swellest guys I know said to me, half kidding, "You'd be a doll if you'd knock off some blubber." I decided right then and there to go on a diet.

The problem is my mother. According to her, if a fellow was the right kind he'd take me out no m a t t e r what I weighed. She says she's not going to let me make a nervous wreck out of myself from dieting.

How about this? Does Mama know best?—PUDGY.

Dear Pudgy: Mama usually knows best — but not in this case. I hear from more girls who are nervous because they haven't got dates than because they are dieting.

Go to a doctor and let him put you on a diet. You'll not only look better but you'll feel better. When a boy suggests that you shed some blubber — that's pretty frank talk, Toots.

Surgeon Searching

Dear Ann: I'm a girl, 20. I've had one year of business college and am fairly competent at office work. I am now employed by an insurance company.

Maybe you'll think I'm cracked but I've always dreamed of marrying a doctor—particularly a surgeon. The odd thing is I've never dated a doctor, a med student or anyone who was even remotedly interested in the medical profession. I'm very long on law students and engineers.

Do you have any suggestions?—DREAMER.

Dear Dreamer: If you have an urge to merge with a surgeon why not get a job in a hospital, a clinic or in a physicians's office?

I ought to warn you that most physicians (particularly s u r g e o n s) are married. But perhaps you can snag an intern.

P.S.: Hang on to your job. Toots; interns work for love and experience.

Confidentially

City Building Razing Urged

posed the move, stating Council already was on record as favoring the 12th St. location. He said "10 or 15 people are trying to run the city's business by m a k i n g Council change its mind."

Councilman William S t r o b l e said he was one who first favored the 12th St. site but that if a better deal can be obtained, "I will take it."

The general proposal would be that the city finance the construction with bonds which then would be retired from the revenue received from the government.

Councilman Clarence Cartwright said the city would lay out the money for the new post office and then find they have to build a new fire station. He said he would favor a new building to house the police and fire departments along with other city offices.

Mayor William J. Shoub suggested the proposal be projected into the future.

He said after the initial cost is paid, the city could then use the revenue for other purposes, possibly for a new fire station.

Miller said he would have to see facts and figures first. He also said he wants the residents to show him that they would go along with the proposal.

Mrs. Rahter said the government would be making a concession in this case, as it ordinarily does not combine the Post Office in a city building. But, she pointed out they would not be interested if there were any arguments from Council.

The Postal Department f i r s t proposed that a new building be constructed but no suitable sites were submitted. Later, bids were asked for the remodeling of the former Standard Hardware building at 12th St. This brought opposition from those who want a new building.

The plans were then r e v i s e d again and bids asked for razing the building and constructing a new one.

The site is owned by a Cleveland man. Some are opposed to the location of the Post O f f i c e away from the main business district.

The present facilities are not large enough.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Millions of people read your column and talk about it on buses, trains and planes. My 8-year-old quotes you, and so does my 92-year-old grandfather.

Our minister used your "Rules for Raising Children" as a basis for his sermon a few months ago. You could go down in history with Joan of Arc and Helen of Troy if you would do one simple thing. Say a good word for the American mother-in-law.

It is my personal opinion that the America mother-in-law is the most maligned, abused, ridiculed figure alive.

My mother-in-law is a grand person. I adore her. She never once has interfered or imposed herself on us. There must be millions of other wonderful mothers-in-law.

Why don't you ask your readers to write and tell you about the good relationship? Then print the best letters. It would be a national service. — A HAPPY DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

Deary Happy: I'll do better than that. I will send to the person who writes the best letter in praise of a mother-in-law a medal with an appropriate inscription.

Blubber Doll

Dear Ann: This decision is right in your lap. I'm a high school junior. My face wouldn't launch a thousand ships but I'm not bad looking. The truth is I'm about 22 pounds overweight.

All the fellows I know are friendly — and brotherly. But no dates. Yesterday one of the swellest guys I know said to me, half kidding, "You'd be a doll if you'd knock off some blubber." I decided right then and there to go on a diet.

The problem is my mother. According to her, if a fellow was the right kind he'd take me out no matter what I weighed. She says she's not going to let me make a nervous wreck out of myself from dieting.

How about this? Does Mama know best?—PUDGY.

Dear Pudgy: Mama usually knows best — but not in this case. I hear from more girls who are nervous because they haven't got dates than because they are dieting.

Go to a doctor and let him put you on a diet. You'll not only look better but you'll feel better. When a boy suggests that you shed some blubber — that's pretty frank talk, Toots.

Surgeon Searching

Dear Ann: I'm a girl, 20. I've had one year of business college and am fairly competent at office work. I am now employed by an insurance company.

Maybe you'll think I'm cracked but I've always dreamed of marrying a doctor—particularly a surgeon. The odd thing is I've never dated a doctor, a med student or anyone who was even remotedly interested in the medical profession. I'm very long on law students and engineers.

Do you have any suggestions?—DREAMER.

Dear Dreamer: If you have an urge to merge with a surgeon why not get a job in a hospital, a clinic or in a physicians's office?

I ought to warn you that most physicians (particularly surgeons) are married. But perhaps you can snag an intern.

Annual Senior Assembly Will Be Held Here Friday

A class of 301 seniors will wind up scholastic careers at East Liverpool High School during the annual Senior Assembly Friday at 1 p. m. in Memorial Auditorium.

Parents, relatives and friends are invited to attend the event, at which various awards will be presented to seniors judged outstanding in various areas, Principal George Hargraves said.

It will mark the first appearance of the seniors in caps and gowns.

The Senior Class sponsors the awards for citizenship, leadership and activities. Other awards to be presented will include those to the valedictorians, salutatorian, "Miss Secretary," Student Council citizenship, fellowship award by B'Nai Jacob Boosters Club, various dramatic, newspaper, yearbook, attendance and choir presentations.

The Senior Class officers are David Lampman, president; Ken Cunningham, vice president; Susan Shaffer, secretary, and Mike Geon, treasurer.

The annual Senior Ball for seniors and guests will be held Monday from 8 to 11:30 p. m. at Virginia Gardens, Rock Springs Park, Chester. An informal affair, there will be no charge for the seniors.

The baccalaureate rehearsal will be held at 10 a. m. Friday, May 26, at the M-A, with the service itself being held Sunday, May 28, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

Commencement rehearsal will be held at 1 p. m. Monday, May 29, in the M-A, with the annual exercise at which Dr. Dwight L. Arnold of Kent State University will speak scheduled at 8 that night.

Each senior will receive five reserved seats for both baccalaureate and commencement.

Juniors and sophomores will continue classes until June 2 when report cards will be issued.

Final examinations are scheduled the afternoon of May 26 and the mornings of May 29 and May 31.

No classes will be held on Memorial Day or on June 1.

Mayors' Appeals Assist 'Hire Now'

Area employers were urged today "to staff their plants and businesses now to prove their faith in the free enterprise system" as part of the nationwide "Hire Now" campaign.

The appeals were made in proclamations issued by Mayors Bert H. Goodballet and William J. Shoub of Wellsville endorsing the drive, which is spearheaded locally by the East Liverpool office of the Ohio State Employment Service.

The campaign slogan is "When They Work, You Profit. Hire Now!"

The campaign has been started to fill existing job openings which in turn will create new employment opportunities. The proclamation pointed out that many economic indicators show the national economy is on the rise.

The proclamations urged "local employers, industry and labor leaders and members of civic, veteran and fraternal organizations to cooperate and aid in the campaign for a successful job drive, increasing local payrolls and creating the buying power necessary to maintain a healthy and sound economy."

1 Killed, 1 Injured In 2-Car Collision

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Luchen Barat, 50, of Milford was fatally injured Tuesday night in an auto collision on Ohio 28, three miles west of Blanchester.

One driver, Nate Rosenzweig, 60, Batavia, was reported in critical condition. George W. Mason, Blanchester, driver of the car in which Barat was riding, was treated and released.

U.S. Officials Watching Korea With 'Concern'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials here are watching events in Korea with extreme concern, but have declined to issue any statement beyond saying that the situation is "unclear."

President Kennedy, now in Canada, is keeping in close touch with the State Department on events in Korea. Before he left he called Walter P. McConaughy, former U.S. ambassador to Korea and now assistant secretary to the Far East, to the White House for consultations.

U.S. military and embassy representatives in Seoul have called upon Koreans to support the government of Premier John M. Chang, and have claimed that only a small part of the Korean army took part in Tuesday's coup.

Officials here have said that such statements are within the scope of authority of the U.S. representatives in Korea, but they have cautiously refrained from subscribing to them.

The reason for this—having U.S. officials in Seoul making strong statements and officials here making cautious ones—is not lack of information, because the State Department is in constant communication with the embassy in Seoul.

The reason is that although the junta in Korea claims full control of the government and the country it may not be able to hold onto that power. This depends on several factors.

One is what the 600,000-man army does. Reports reaching here indicate only about 4,000 soldiers took part in the coup.

Another is what the students do. The high school and university students are Korea's intelligentsia, and have a strong influence on the people. Last year it was the students who toppled the government of strongman Syngman Rhee. If they support the junta, its success is likely. If they oppose it, Chang's return would be possible.

The United States, which has poured aid into South Korea as a bulwark against the Communist tide, has no desire to see Korea's democratic institutions founder. Neither has it any desire to antagonize a new regime which — despite the fact that it seized control by force—has emphatically stated its desire to cooperate with the West.

Thus, if the junta succeeds in holding onto its power, the high echelon of the State Department will not be on record as having opposed it — despite the statements of U.S. officials in Korea.

Army's Bid For 55,000 Men Reported 'Scuttled'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A high Army source said today the Army's request for 55,000 men to beef up the nation's limited war capability had been scuttled "somewhere above the Joint Chiefs of Staff."

This placed the decision with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara or in the White House.

The interview with the Army source was the first hint that the Army intends to fight for the manpower increase despite administration orders to shut up.

Meanwhile, the Army is circulating extracts of President Kennedy's special message to Congress on defense to its top brass as a reminder of what the President said about the need to meet non-nuclear war threats.

Presumably the Army intends to use Kennedy's own words to support its position that an increase is needed.

Nearly eight years ago Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, then chief of staff, said the Army's minimum need was 925,000 men if it intended to sustain its current military commitments and meet limited war threats.

This estimate of Taylor has been accepted by the two succeeding Army chiefs of staff — Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer and Gen. George Decker.

The Army is now authorized a total strength of 875,000 men, including a 5,000 man increase in guerrilla warfare forces.

Among the selections from the Kennedy speech being distributed by the Army are these words:

"I recommend the following:

"Strengthened capacity to meet limited and guerilla warfare.

"Increased flexibility of our conventional forces: our capacity to move forces in sizeable numbers on short notice and to be able to support them in one or more crisis areas could avoid the need for a much longer commitment later."

Since Kennedy became President, the Air Force has been authorized to acquire 129 additional aircraft in 1962 to improve airlift.

Even so, the source said, the air lift and sea lift picture remains dismal.

He pointed out that an unclassified briefing on air lift capabilities given in the administration of President Eisenhower by Army officers concluded that it would take at least four weeks to transport two Army divisions from the United States to Southeast Asia by air.

'Automatic' Garage Door Puzzled Owner

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Murdock L. Philpotts was at a loss to explain why his garage door opened and closed at about the same time each day.

Investigation revealed that the frequency of his radio - controlled door was the same used by an airlines flight that flew over his garage in its landing approach.

Gary Cooper Eulogized At Burial Rites

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —Eulogized as an unparalleled movie star of quiet integrity and great artistry, Gary Cooper was laid to rest Tuesday.

The simple, dignified rites for the actor, who died Saturday of cancer, was in keeping with the humble yet heroic movie characters he portrayed for more than three decades.

The greatest assembly of film stars in modern times—many weeping openly—attended the Solemn Requiem Mass at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Beverly Hills. Hundreds of ordinary citizens stood silently outside the church under leaden skies, respecting the family's wishes for a dignified service in contrast with the mob scenes that marred funerals of other matinee idols.

Kennedy Rules Out Tax Cuts To Speed Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has ruled out any massive spending efforts or income tax cuts to speed the reviving U.S. economy.

Kennedy has told Democratic congressional leaders he is going along with a group of his economic advisers who believe the recovery is solidly based despite a hard core of unemployment.

This was represented as a presidential decision to gamble on the effect of measures he already has recommended to Congress—some of which have passed, some still pending.

Some of the President's advisers are convinced that Kennedy's programs for housing, aid to education, highway construction, Social Security expansion, depressed areas and agriculture will give the economy's climb sufficient impetus.

There is a frank difference of opinion among his advisers, however. Some contend the recovery bears signs of weakness that can only be overcome by increased government spending or by tax cuts.

This group argued that even though factory sales and personal incomes showed gains, steel production remained at only about 68 per cent of capacity and little progress had been made in reducing unemployment.

Refrigerator cookie dough calling for granulated sugar and flavored with vanilla may be varied by omitting the vanilla and adding 1 tablespoon each lemon juice and grated lemon rind.

The annual Senior Ball for seniors and guests will be held Monday from 8 to 11:30 p. m. at Virginia Gardens, Rock Springs Park, Chester. An informal affair, there will be no charge for the seniors.

The baccalaureate rehearsal will be held at 10 a. m. Friday, May 26, at the M-A, with the service itself being held Sunday, May 28, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

Commencement rehearsal will be held at 1 p. m. Monday, May 29, in the M-A, with the annual exercise at which Dr. Dwight L. Arnold of Kent State University will speak scheduled at 8 that night.

Each senior will receive five reserved seats for both baccalaureate and commencement.

Juniors and sophomores will continue classes until June 2 when report cards will be issued.

Final examinations are scheduled the afternoon of May 26 and the mornings of May 29 and May 31.

No classes will be held on Memorial Day or on June 1.

Mayors' Appeals Assist 'Hire Now'

Area employers were urged today "to staff their plants and businesses now to prove their faith in the free enterprise system" as part of the nationwide "Hire Now" campaign.

The appeals were made in proclamations issued by Mayors Bert H. Goodballet and William J. Shoub of Wellsville endorsing the drive, which is spearheaded locally by the East Liverpool office of the Ohio State Employment Service.

The campaign slogan is "When They Work, You Profit. Hire Now!"

The campaign has been started to fill existing job openings which in turn will create new employment opportunities. The proclamation pointed out that many economic indicators show the national economy is on the rise.

The proclamations urged "local employers, industry and labor leaders and members of civic, veteran and fraternal organizations to cooperate and aid in the campaign for a successful job drive, increasing local payrolls and creating the buying power necessary to maintain a healthy and sound economy."

1 Killed, 1 Injured In 2-Car Collision

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Luchen Barat, 50, of Milford was fatally injured Tuesday night in an auto collision on Ohio 28, three miles west of Blanchester.

One driver, Nate Rosenzweig, 60, Batavia, was reported in critical condition. George W. Mason, Blanchester, driver of the car in which Barat was riding, was treated and released.

U.S. Officials Watching Korea With 'Concern'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials here are watching events in Korea with extreme concern, but have declined to issue any statement beyond saying that the situation is "unclear."

President Kennedy, now in Canada, is keeping in close touch with the State Department on events in Korea. Before he left he called Walter P. McConaughy, former U.S. ambassador to Korea and now assistant secretary to the Far East, to the White House for consultations.

U.S. military and embassy representatives in Seoul have called upon Koreans to support the government of Premier John M. Chang, and have claimed that only a small part of the Korean army took part in Tuesday's coup.

Officials here have said that such statements are within the scope of authority of the U.S. representatives in Korea, but they have cautiously refrained from subscribing to them.

The reason for this—having U.S. officials in Seoul making strong statements and officials here making cautious ones—is not lack of information, because the State Department is in constant communication with the embassy in Seoul.

The reason is that although the junta in Korea claims full control of the government and the country it may not be able to hold onto that power. This depends on several factors.

One is what the 600,000-man army does. Reports reaching here indicate only about 4,000 soldiers took part in the coup.

Another is what the students do. The high school and university students are Korea's intelligentsia, and have a strong influence on the people. Last year it was the students who toppled the government of strongman Syngman Rhee. If they support the junta, its success is likely. If they oppose it, Chang's return would be possible.

The United States, which has poured aid into South Korea as a bulwark against the Communist tide, has no desire to see Korea's democratic institutions founder. Neither has it any desire to antagonize a new regime which — despite the fact that it seized control by force—has emphatically stated its desire to cooperate with the West.

Thus, if the junta succeeds in holding onto its power, the high echelon of the State Department will not be on record as having opposed it — despite the statements of U.S. officials in Korea.

Army's Bid For 55,000 Men Reported 'Scuttled'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A high Army source said today the Army's request for 55,000 men to beef up the nation's limited war capability had been scuttled "somewhere above the Joint Chiefs of Staff."

This placed the decision with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara or in the White House.

The interview with the Army source was the first hint that the Army intends to fight for the manpower increase despite administration orders to shut up.

Meanwhile, the Army is circulating extracts of President Kennedy's special message to Congress on defense to its top brass as a reminder of what the President said about the need to meet non-nuclear war threats.

Presumably the Army intends to use Kennedy's own words to support its position that an increase is needed.

Nearly eight years ago Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, then chief of staff, said the Army's minimum need was 925,000 men if it intended to sustain its current military commitments and meet limited war threats.

This estimate of Taylor has been accepted by the two succeeding Army chiefs of staff — Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer and Gen. George Decker.

The Army is now authorized a total strength of 875,000 men, including a 5,000 man increase in guerrilla warfare forces.

Among the selections from the Kennedy speech being distributed by the Army are these words:

"I recommend the following:

"Strengthened capacity to meet limited and guerilla warfare.

"Increased flexibility of our conventional forces: our capacity to move forces in sizeable numbers on short notice and to be able to support them in one or more crisis areas could avoid the need for a much longer commitment later."

Since Kennedy became President, the Air Force has been authorized to acquire 129 additional aircraft in 1962 to improve airlift.

Even so, the source said, the air lift and sea lift picture remains dismal.

He pointed out that an unclassified briefing on air lift capabilities given in the administration of President Eisenhower by Army officers concluded that it would take at least four weeks to transport two Army divisions from the United States to Southeast Asia by air.

'Automatic' Garage Door Puzzled Owner

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Murdock L. Philpotts was at a loss to explain why his garage door opened and closed at about the same time each day.

Investigation revealed that the frequency of his radio - controlled door was the same used by an airlines flight that flew over his garage in its landing approach.

Gary Cooper Eulogized At Burial Rites

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —Eulogized as an unparalleled movie star of quiet integrity and great artistry, Gary Cooper was laid to rest Tuesday.

The simple, dignified rites for the actor, who died Saturday of cancer, was in keeping with the humble yet heroic movie characters he portrayed for more than three decades.

The greatest assembly of film stars in modern times—many weeping openly—attended the Solemn Requiem Mass at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Beverly Hills. Hundreds of ordinary citizens stood silently outside the church under leaden skies, respecting the family's wishes for a dignified service in contrast with the mob scenes that marred funerals of other matinee idols.

Kennedy Rules Out Tax Cuts To Speed Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has ruled out any massive spending efforts or income tax cuts to speed the reviving U.S. economy.

Kennedy has told Democratic congressional leaders he is going along with a group of his economic advisers who believe the recovery is solidly based despite a hard core of unemployment.

This was represented as a presidential decision to gamble on the effect of measures he already has recommended to Congress—some of which have passed, some still pending.

Some of the President's advisers are convinced that Kennedy's programs for housing, aid to education, highway construction, Social Security expansion, depressed areas and agriculture will give the economy's climb sufficient impetus.

There is a frank difference of opinion among his advisers, however. Some contend the recovery bears signs of weakness that can only be overcome by increased government spending or by tax cuts.

This group argued that even though factory sales and personal incomes showed gains, steel production remained at only about 68 per cent of capacity and little progress had been made in reducing unemployment.

Refrigerator cookie dough calling for granulated sugar and flavored with vanilla may be varied by omitting the vanilla and adding 1 tablespoon each lemon juice and grated lemon rind.

ing laws less favorable to utilities and more fair in rates to the consumer.

It was referred to the ordinance committee and solicitor to bring in a similar resolution.

Irving M. Duvall was granted permission to reserve 15 feet of curb space for a driveway into a used car lot he has opened at 3rd and Lisbon Sts.

Councilman Objects

Taggart objected, saying free parking space was being taken away from residents of the neighborhood.

Councilman Wilmer Ralston said the "Student Council" from Wellsville High School favored a wage tax, wanted to legalize gambling and offered various other ideas in a meeting Saturday. Students of the American Problems Class assumed the roles of city officials Saturday.

Council asked the Board of Control to check with county commissioners and state officials to learn if aid can be obtained for blacktopping Clark Ave. from 17th St. to the new super - road. Stroble, street and light chairman, said the bricks are vibrating loose from the heavy truck traffic.

Stroble said Council will meet informally Thursday night at 7:30 in the water department office to complete the street contracting program for the summer. Legislation then will be brought in advertising for bids on the project.

Playlot Lights Asked

Ralston said several youths have requested the playground at 17th St. and Maple Ave. be lighted at night during the summer so they can play basketball. The finance committee was asked to check on available funds.

Ralston said he still is receiving complaints of lime dust from the Georgetti River - Rail Terminal at 16th St. The Board of Control was asked to check the neighborhood and close down the unloading operations if the condition still exists. The firm was told at the last meeting the operations would be ordered to halt if the situation is not corrected.

Mayor William J. Shoub said he had not received any complaints since the last meeting.

Ralston said $1,000 was appropriated for a new dog pound and he was informed by Auditor Edgar S. Davidson that $1,500 in the sewage disposal construction fund can be used to construct a combination pound and garage near the disposal plant.

Bidding To Be Planned

Council agreed to meet with the Board of Control to draw up the necessary specifications for advertising for bids. It has been estimated the pound and garage will cost about $3,000.

Miller suggested relief workers be utilized to clean up the city playgrounds. Safety - Service Director William S. Robinson said there are not many on city relief now. He said the playgrounds will be ready by opening day.

Miller also suggested a parent cleanup day be established to obtain free labor.

Ralston said some youths had told him aid is needed in repairing the track at Nicholson Stadium. Robinson said the city has in the past and will loan the Board of Education equipment when it can.

Miller asked that the Board of Control and Council meet to discuss several parking meter problems.

Dog Complaint Aired

Nelson said he has received complaints that Bill Long, dog warden, is shooting dogs at the city dump off Route 39 and throwing them into the burning rubbish. Robinson said the carcasses are disposed of at the dump but said he hadn't heard of them being burned.

Nelson also reported on complaints that someone was burning old tires and oil at the dump. Robinson said he would check. Robinson reported a new section will be used for dumping in the near future. The move is being made in an effort to halt burning at the dump.

A caretaker may be obtained, Nelson reported.

In answer to a question from Council, Solicitor Bush said the city cannot legislate against junk yards as they are a legal business. He said they can be regulated.

Investigation Asked

Stroble asked that a letter be sent the Board of Health, asking an investigation of property on 17th St. where old trucks are parked. He said rodents infest the vehicles.

The property has been under discussion many times before.

Taggart said the city should clean up its own lots. One resident said children playing among the old trucks are liable to be injured.

O. W. Fullmer of Broadway complained of the rough condition of the street between 3rd and 4th Sts. and speeding by motorists.

Cars Splash Water

He said the bricks have come through the blacktop. He also said water lies in low spots and is splashed onto the homes by cars. Fullmer said the traffic is extremely heavy along the street.

Robinson said the streets needs a new coat of blacktop.

Mayor Shoub's report for April showed $384.75 collected in fines and fees. Reports from Auditor Davidson and Treasurer Charles W. Stewart for April showed balances of $127,757.49.

Arguments were the same as those when the bill originally was passed by both houses. Democrats argued the state would not be able to match federal highway spending. Republicans contended the state highway department would have plenty of money, even without the $15 million a year.

House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, took the unusual step during debate of surrendering the speaker's rostrum to House Majority Leader Robert Taft Jr., R-Hamilton, so Cloud could participate in the discussion.

Upshot of the matter—an action pledged by Republicans in their 1960 state platform — is to give local governments every penny of the money collected from motor vehicle license fees.

The $15 million in question, which now is returned to local governments beginning next Jan. 1, was used to help finance operations of the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, including the Bureau of Motor Vehicles and Highway Patrol. Republicans propose to finance the department from other highway revenues, particularly the last two cents of the gasoline tax.

The override of the governor's veto stole the entire legislative show, obscuring another "first" of this 19½-week-old session—DiSalle's allowing an act to become law without his signature. The measure concerned brings back the pre-1959 grain handling tax on grain stored by processors, substituting it for the personal property tax.

Senators had one of their longest legislative days of the session Tuesday, remaining on the floor more than four hours. During that time, they passed without dissent an emergency bill on horse racing at fairs. It would permit a fair to conduct racing even if another meet is being held in the same county or within 50 miles at the same time.

If the House and governor go along, the emergency clause will make the bill effective immediately instead of after the usual 90 days.

The Senate also completed passage of a much - discussed bill which exempts some aides of elected county officials from civil service, and a measure banning job discrimination because a person is 40-65 years old.

Opponents of the civil service exemption bill contend it will be used as a tool in "to the victor go the spoils" systems, perpetuating some political dynasties with patronage jobs.

Board At Lisbon Buys School Bus

LISBON — The Lisbon Board of Education bought a new 66-passenger school bus from Lewis Chevrolet of Lisbon at a special meeting Tuesday noon. The price was $6,915 for a Chevrolet chassis and Thomas body, according to Supt. Russell Armitage.

The bid, subject to approval of the State Board of Education, was one of four opened at last week's meeting. If the state approves, it will pay 80 per cent of the cost.

In other business, the board authorized the Booster Club to rearrange the lights at the Memorial Stadium. At present, the lights now illuminate the baseball field, which is not used. They will be directed at the football stadium alone and should improve the lighting. The board will furnish any new bulbs that are burned out, Armitage said.

The board will meet June 13.

Radio And Oil Costs, Repair Job Cleared

Council appropriated $12,300 Tuesday night to finance three major projects — a summer street-oiling program, installation of two-way radio equipment for the fire department and repair of a wash water tank at the city water department.

The allocations are:

A $5,000 item to finance purchase of 50,000 gallons of oil that the city will apply on unsurfaced streets and alleys at no cost to property-owners.

A $6,500 appropriation to repair the tank at the water treatment plant, an alternative to erecting a new facility that would have cost $40,000.

An $800 appropriation to provide for lease and maintenance of equipment that will give the fire department its own two-way mobile communications system.

Funds for the road oil and the fire department radio were appropriated out of income tax revenue. The money for the water plant project will be taken from water department funds, the legislation provides.

The summer oiling work is part of an overall street program Council intends to finance out of income tax revenue. In another phase, the city will assume a major share of street paving or resurfacing projects for which neighborhood groups petition.

As a companion to the appropriation, Council enacted legislation authorizing Safety - Service Director Lee Copenhaver to advertise for bids on the oil. It's the first time since 1958 — when the first income tax was in effect — that the city has oiled the streets entirely at its own expense. In other years, the city applied the oil free of charge after property-owners purchased it.

Separate legislation also was enacted authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to advertise for bids on the wash water tank repair. The board, which administers the water system, requested the appropriation in a letter to Council at the session May 1.

The tank is used to backwash filters, part of the water purification process. The board said replacement of the tank would cost $40,000.

The appropriation for the fire department radio equipment will provide $300 for installation of the units and $500 to cover the lease price for the balance of 1961. The system will include a base station, seven mobile units, three remote units and some other equipment.

At present, the department's only radio equipment is a transceiver in the chief's car operating on the police department frequency. However, it will be replaced when the new equipment goes into service.

Councilmen said a full communications system will permit the firemen to broaden their duties and still keep in touch with the station. For instance, they will be able to make safety inspections of homes, where requested, and a unit fighting a minor blaze can be summoned quickly if needed at a major new conflagration.

Exam Scheduled For Clerical Job

The Municipal Civil Service Commission announced today it will conduct a competitive examination Monday, June 12, at 7:30 p. m. at the Ohio Valley Business College to fill the recently - created post of female clerk - stenographer in the city income tax office.

The post pays $250 monthly. Applicants must be women between 21 and 45 who have been legal residents of East Liverpool and citizens of the U. S. for at least six months prior to the exam, the commission said.

The deadline for applications will be Monday, June 5, at 4 p. m. Application forms my be obtained at the office of Mayor Bert H. Goodballet or from any member of the commission — Donal I. Burcham, Ben H. Berman and Clarence E. Reagle.

A $1 fee must accompany the notarized applications. Successful applicants will be required to pass physical exams. The job consists of general office work, including typing.

Radio And Oil Costs, Repair Job Cleared

Council appropriated $12,300 Tuesday night to finance three major projects — a summer street-oiling program, installation of two-way radio equipment for the fire department and repair of a wash water tank at the city water department.

The allocations are:

A $5,000 item to finance purchase of 50,000 gallons of oil that the city will apply on unsurfaced streets and alleys at no cost to property-owners.

A $6,500 appropriation to repair the tank at the water treatment plant, an alternative to erecting a new facility that would have cost $40,000.

An $800 appropriation to provide for lease and maintenance of equipment that will give the fire department its own two-way mobile communications system.

Funds for the road oil and the fire department radio were appropriated out of income tax revenue. The money for the water plant project will be taken from water department funds, the legislation provides.

The summer oiling work is part of an overall street program Council intends to finance out of income tax revenue. In another phase, the city will assume a major share of street paving or resurfacing projects for which neighborhood groups petition.

As a companion to the appropriation, Council enacted legislation authorizing Safety - Service Director Lee Copenhaver to advertise for bids on the oil. It's the first time since 1958 — when the first income tax was in effect — that the city has oiled the streets entirely at its own expense. In other years, the city applied the oil free of charge after property-owners purchased it.

Separate legislation also was enacted authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to advertise for bids on the wash water tank repair. The board, which administers the water system, requested the appropriation in a letter to Council at the session May 1.

The tank is used to backwash filters, part of the water purification process. The board said replacement of the tank would cost $40,000.

The appropriation for the fire department radio equipment will provide $300 for installation of the units and $500 to cover the lease price for the balance of 1961. The system will include a base station, seven mobile units, three remote units and some other equipment.

At present, the department's only radio equipment is a transceiver in the chief's car operating on the police department frequency. However, it will be replaced when the new equipment goes into service.

Councilmen said a full communications system will permit the firemen to broaden their duties and still keep in touch with the station. For instance, they will be able to make safety inspections of homes, where requested, and a unit fighting a minor blaze can be summoned quickly if needed at a major new conflagration.

Tax Deduction Due For Ohioans On Cigarettes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Light up, you cigarette smokers. You've another federal income tax deduction in the making.

It still requires the governor's approval, but the Ohio Senate completed passage Monday of a bill which sponsors figure will save Buckeye smokers about $5 million annually.

As many smokers know, there's a five-cent Ohio excise tax on each pack purchased in this state. Until now, state law has been worded so that no deduction could be claimed for this by those who itemize deductions on their federal income tax form.

Monday's action by the Senate—which, like the House, passed the bill without a single "no" vote—changes this. Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is expected to go along.

Rep. Thomas D. Gindlesberger, R-Holmes, co-sponsor of the bill, said back in March that the average deduction probably will be about $25. The over-all $5 million yearly saving is based on average consumption of a pack and a half a day.

Because the measure will become effective about halfway along in the year, it will be up to the Internal Revenue Service to decide if those making out their income tax early in 1962 can claim deduction for all of 1961. But there is no question about the full deduction thereafter, Gindlesberger added.

Newspaperman Dies

BOSTON (AP)—John W. Kenney, 73, former general circulation director of the Hearst newspapers, died Tuesday after a long illness. Kennedy started with the Boston American's circulation department, became circulation head of the Detroit Times in 1939 and several years later went to New York to become director of circulation for all Hearst newspapers. He was born in Winthrop, Mass.

The 'Devils' Worry Tasmanian Farmers

HOBART, Tasmania (AP) — The Tasmanian devil — a prize exhibit in the big zoos of the world — is becoming a worry to some farmers in Tasmania.

The devil is a small flesh-eating animal peculiar to this island state of Austrlia.

Earlier this century there were fears it would become extinct and it is completely protected.

But today the animal is increasing in numbers, and some farmers have blamed Tasmanian devils for the killing of lambs and chickens.

Russian Tippers

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (AP) — You never know what to expect when Russian tourists tip you, bellboys here say. In addition to a flat 25 cents per bag, the standard tip, one suitcase-toter says he's been given Russian cigarettes, medals, or trinkets.

Chester Club Marks 16th Anniversary

Forty attended the 16th anniversary dinner and "Ladies Night" program of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the First Christian Church.

The Rev. John Mostoller of the First Church of Christ of East Liverpool spoke on "Faith in God, Faith in Our Country and Faith in Ourselves."

The invocation was given by William T. Parsons, the club's first president, who was a guest. Thomas Ridge read a history of the club.

Corsages were presented to the women. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Comm of Huntington and Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott.

The dinner was prepared by the Loyal Daughters Class of the Church and was served by Betsy Hobbs, Pamela Rockwell, Cassandra Reukauf and Sharon Brooks.

Past presidents were in charge of the dinner, with Alvin Arner as chairman.

PTA Elects At Wellsville

Mrs. Jean Steffen will head the McKinley Parent - Teacher Association of Wellsville for 1961-1962, members selecting her at a meeting Monday night.

Other officers are: Donald Stoll, first vice president; Mrs. Esther Williams, second vice president; Mrs. Dale McIntosh, secretary, and Mrs. Monell Stoll, treasurer.

They will be inducted at an installation ceremony of the County Council May 24 in the visual education room of Daw Junior High School. A dinner in the school cafeteria will precede the meeting.

The group approved listing in the Jaycees' activity calendar. Committee chairmen named for the school picnic at the Roadside Park were Mrs. McIntosh, games, and Mrs. Eileen Bush, refreshments. Reading Circle books will be purchased with the $151 made from a rummage sale. Remarks were made by Raymond Rolley, clerk of the Board of Education. The first grade of Mrs. Hazel Fraser will receive free milk for winning the attendance count.

Board of Education members and several of the personnel of the school system were guests at a coverdish dinner preceding the meeting. Mrs. Everet Bunfill, president, opened with the pledge of allegiance and the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by Miss Isa Anderson.

Idle Pottery Leasing Set At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Negotiations for the leasing of W. S. George Pottery Co. Plant No. 1, shut down for about five months, is nearing completion, the Chamber of Commerce was told at a meeting Tuesday night at the City Hall.

C.D. Brittain of East Palestine, director of the pottery, and M. J. Cappozzi of Cannonsburg, an official of the firm, said final negotiations are being made for a leasing arrangement.

The Chamber was also told negotiations are continuing for the sale of Chamber-owned land on a site west of the city power plant.

The Insul Corp., a chemical concern, seeks the former Linver Stone Co. building and about seven acres at the tract. The corporation operates such plants as the Lakewood Chemical Co. at Negley. Discussion was held on the need for street markers and for a display of city-made products. Harold Brittain, president, was in charge.

Cut avocados into halves and remove the seeds; do not remove shells; fill cavaties with French dressing to which catchup or chili sauce has been added and serve as a first course—to be eaten with spoons.

Other officers are: Donald Stoll, first vice president; Mrs. Esther Williams, second vice president; Mrs. Dale McIntosh, secretary, and Mrs. Monell Stoll, treasurer.

They will be inducted at an installation ceremony of the County Council May 24 in the visual education room of Daw Junior High School. A dinner in the school cafeteria will precede the meeting.

The group approved listing in the Jaycees' activity calendar. Committee chairmen named for the school picnic at the Roadside Park were Mrs. McIntosh, games, and Mrs. Eileen Bush, refreshments. Reading Circle books will be purchased with the $151 made from a rummage sale. Remarks were made by Raymond Rolley, clerk of the Board of Education. The first grade of Mrs. Hazel Fraser will receive free milk for winning the attendance count.

Board of Education members and several of the personnel of the school system were guests at a coverdish dinner preceding the meeting. Mrs. Everet Bunfill, president, opened with the pledge of allegiance and the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by Miss Isa Anderson.

Idle Pottery Leasing Set At Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — Negotiations for the leasing of W. S. George Pottery Co. Plant No. 1, shut down for about five months, is nearing completion, the Chamber of Commerce was told at a meeting Tuesday night at the City Hall.

C.D. Brittain of East Palestine, director of the pottery, and M. J. Cappozzi of Cannonsburg, an official of the firm, said final negotiations are being made for a leasing arrangement.

The Chamber was also told negotiations are continuing for the sale of Chamber-owned land on a site west of the city power plant.

The Insul Corp., a chemical concern, seeks the former Linver Stone Co. building and about seven acres at the tract. The corporation operates such plants as the Lakewood Chemical Co. at Negley. Discussion was held on the need for street markers and for a display of city-made products. Harold Brittain, president, was in charge.

Awards Presentation To Mark Jaycee Event

Presentation of the Patrick J. O'Farrell award will highlight the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce banquet and innaugural ball Saturday evening at the Country Club.

The award is given annually to the outstanding project chairman of the year. It is presented by life members of the organization in memory of the late O'Farrell, who was the executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Herschel A. Rubin, a past president and life member, will make the presentation. The recipient is selected by a committee comprised of life members.

The program will open with a cocktail hour at 5:30. Dinner will be served at 6:30. An intermission is scheduled for 7:45, with the main business session set for 8.

Jayceette officers will be installed by Mrs. Freda Adkins, a past president. They include Mrs. William R. Webber, president; Mrs. B. J. Mangano, vice president; Mrs. James Allison, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Dunlevy, recording secretary, and Mrs. Richard Milner, treasurer.

Russell Hall will be master of ceremonies. Following the Jayceette installation, Dr. Rubin will present the award. Other awards and certificates will be presented by James Allison, retiring president, and George Hales, secretary.

Atty. Francis Lang, charter president of the local Jaycees and a past state president, will seat Jaycee officers headed by William Webber, president. Allison will present the president's gavel to Webber. He also will make the closing remarks.

Dancing will follow from 9:30 p. m. to 1 a. m. Ben Hipsley and his Keynotes will play.

Paul Zehnder, recipient of the O'Farrell award last year, is chairman of the ball. His committee includes Jack Hales, Frank Dawson, Ed Adkins and Dale Kidd.

Mrs. Gretchen Dawson and Mrs. Joan Ferguson are in charge of table decorations.

Catholic Group Names Local Woman To Post

Mrs. George White of St. Aloysius Catholic Church was elected auditor during the 16th annual convention of the Youngstown Diocese of Catholic Women Tuesday in Youngstown. Approximately 500 attended.

Other officers elected are: Mrs. Francis Donnelly of Ashtabula County, president; Mrs. Norbert Roth, Portage County, secretary, and Mrs. Ida Harty, Mahoning County, treasurer.

Deanery vice presidents are: Mrs. Robert Carter, Columbiana; Mrs. Ray Sturgeon, Mahoning, and Mrs. Elton Wagner, Portage.

They were installed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Norman P. Kelly of Girard.

The 10 o'clock opening mass was held at St. Columba Cathedral. Communion breakfast and registration followed at the Pick Ohio Hotel.

Mrs. Marcus Kilch, retiring president, presided for business. Mrs. Arthur Zepf of Toledo, national president, brought greetings and discussed her recent visit to the Vatican in Rome.

Bishop James W. Malone, auxiliary Bishop, spoke on "Charity In All Things."

Bishop Emmett M. Walsh used the subject "Confraternity of Christian Doctrine" for his talk.

Workshops were featured in the afternoon. Mrs. Hugh McTeague of the local church participated in the one on "Organization and Development."

A 6 o'clock dinner was served to the group.

The local delegation included Mrs. A. J. Brown, grand regent of Court Dunne 937, Mrs. James Purton, Miss Florence Farrar, Mrs. James Buchheit, Miss Helen Auld, Mrs. McTeague and Mrs. White.

The 1962 convention is scheduled for Ashtabula.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1934 cancelled an amendment to the Constitution of Cuba which allowed the United States to intervene in Cuban affairs.

GUESS WHO? Fooled by the mask? Not likely, as the curves of this mysterious miss are still very much in evidence on a movie set in Hollywood. Even with the funny face, it's easy to see why actress Stella Stevens is often mistaken for Marilyn Monroe.

Work Scheduled Soon On Market

Construction of a new supermarket in Wellsville is expected to begin within a month, it was announced today.

Daniel Mason of Dover, co-owner of Mason's Foodliner chain stores, said the exact date has not been set, but that "it will be very soon."

The new market will be constructed on a section of the old mill property at the upper end of Wellsville, just off the super-road.

Parking facilities will be provided for 400 cars. Mason was to erect signs at the site today announcing the plans for construction. He said he will supervise the construction himself. He was a former construction engineer.

Mason and his father, H. L. Mason, already own a large store at Dover and are in the process of constructing others.

The building also will house a bakery. It will be concrete block with a brick front.

Glenmoor Legion Gets New Officers

Officers were elected when Glenmoor American Legion Post 736 met Tuesday night in the post home. A chicken dinner was served.

Bert Keck, an operator of a trucking firm in Columbiana, was elected commander to succeed Ronald Hopper.

Others elected are Robert Boyd, first vice commander; Robert Rudy, second vice commander; Fred Morgan Jr., finance officer; William Stowers, chaplain; Russell Turner, adjutant; Robert McQuistion, sergeant-at-arms, and Danny Wathey, historian.

Officers will be installed June 6. The new commander has been nominated for second vice commander of the Columbiana County American Legion Council.

Posthumous Award

CHATTANOOGA (AP) — The "best all around Key Clubber" of the Kentucky - Tennessee District of Key Clubs is a lad who didn't make the convention. The Kiwanis-sponsored high school service organization voted the honor to Fred Fly, 16, of Shelbyville, Tenn., who was killed in a traffic accident three days before the district spring convention began.

South Side Group Sets Memorial Day Events

Plans for Memorial Day observances were outlined at a meeting of the South Side Athletic Club Tuesday night at American Legion Post 952 near Hookstown.

The program will open at 10:30 a. m. at the post home with a flag ceremony. All members of the high school athletic teams will be in uniform, along with their managers and coaches.

A parade then will be held from the Legion to the athletic field. It will consist of the team members, South Side Band, South Side Boy Scouts and the volunteer fire departments from Hookstown, Shippingport and Lawrenceville.

William Green of Shippingport, club president, and Charles Ryland, a baseball commissioner, will be guest speakers. The Legion will raise the colors at the field.

All teams in the Hotstove League will play exhibition games. They will be two innings.

Final arrangements will be outlined at a special meeting to be held in conjunction with a dance at the Grange Hall May 26 at 9 p. m.

All districts were represented at last night's meeting. Green presided.

The club and the Hookstown firemen will sponsor a public dance Friday from 9 p. m. to midnight at the Twilight Zone dance hall.

Joseph Halstead was accepted as an umpire.

Driver Pays $17 In Shortcut Case

When a 27-year-old East Liverpool man took a shortcut through the driveway of a new service station at St. Clair and Lincoln Aves. today because he was late for work, he wound up in Municipal Court for violation of a city ordinance that prohibits just such a practice and paid a fine of $10 and $7.50 costs.

Danny L. Robinson, 355 Garfield St., was cited at 6:47 this morning, police said. The ordinance makes it a misdemeanor to use a service station driveway as a shortcut between two streets. Robinson pleaded guilty.

He told Judge Samuel M. Chertoff he took the shortcut because he was late for work. He also had been charged with driving without an operator's permit, but that charge was dismissed when he produced a valid license.

"The driveway at that new station is a pretty convenient shortcut," the judge commented. "But someone spent $50,000 to $100,000 for the property and the building and as far as the court is concerned it is going to be used only for business."

6 More Treated In Area Mishaps

A city man injured on a power mower and a boy struck by a ball at a Little League game were among six adults and youngsters treated at City Hospital Tuesday.

Joseph Searingen, 48, of 705 Lincoln Ave. suffered lacerations to two toes on the left foot on a power mower.

Ricky Babb, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Babb of Sunnyside Ave., was treated last night for a laceration of the cheek and bruised eye received when struck by a baseball in a Little League game.

Pearl Roush, 42, of 717 Edwards Ave., was treated for a laceration of the hand suffered on a wrench while repairing an auto.

Injured in a fall, Nancy Krawiec, 8, daughter f Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Krawiec, 1518 Smithfield St., received a laceration of the left leg.

David Chetwynd, 14, of Michigan Ave. suffered bruises of the left shin on bleachers at school.

Charles Butler, 68, of R. D. 2, an employe of the Homer Laughlin China Co., suffered a crushed finger on equipment while at work.

Nice to have in the freezer for unexpected company; balls of ice cream that have been rolled in coconut. Serve with fruit, chocolate or caramel sauce. This dressed-up ice cream also makes a great topping for fruit pies that you want to serve a la mode.

Common Pleas

NEW ENTRIES

In Re: Appropriation by the state of Ohio of easement for highway purposes over the property of Espedito Libiappa, et al, for State Route 30, section 33; upon director depositing with clerk of courts for the landowner the amount agreed upon, a writ of possession is awarded to the state.

NEW CASES

In Re: Sale of certain real estate of the Middleton Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends; petition for authority to sell former meeting house.

Dan Bogden Jr. and Elizabeth Mae Bogden, Box 77, Lisbon, vs. Alice K. Hoff and G. Cecil Rauch, Lisbon; action for $30,003.95 claimed in the purchase of a farm and house, alleging misrepresentation.

Charles R. Donaldson, Wellsville, vs. Reserve Life Insurance Co., Dallas, Tex.; action for $750 for services in establishing East Liverpool branch office.

Driver Pays $17 In Shortcut Case

When a 27-year-old East Liverpool man took a shortcut through the driveway of a new service station at St. Clair and Lincoln Aves. today because he was late for work, he wound up in Municipal Court for violation of a city ordinance that prohibits just such a practice and paid a fine of $10 and $7.50 costs.

Danny L. Robinson, 355 Garfield St., was cited at 6:47 this morning, police said. The ordinance makes it a misdemeanor to use a service station driveway as a shortcut between two streets. Robinson pleaded guilty.

He told Judge Samuel M. Chertoff he took the shortcut because he was late for work. He also had been charged with driving without an operator's permit, but that charge was dismissed when he produced a valid license.

"The driveway at that new station is a pretty convenient shortcut," the judge commented. "But someone spent $50,000 to $100,000 for the property and the building and as far as the court is concerned it is going to be used only for business."

6 More Treated In Area Mishaps

A city man injured on a power mower and a boy struck by a ball at a Little League game were among six adults and youngsters treated at City Hospital Tuesday.

Joseph Searingen, 48, of 705 Lincoln Ave. suffered lacerations to two toes on the left foot on a power mower.

Ricky Babb, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Babb of Sunnyside Ave., was treated last night for a laceration of the cheek and bruised eye received when struck by a baseball in a Little League game.

Pearl Roush, 42, of 717 Edwards Ave., was treated for a laceration of the hand suffered on a wrench while repairing an auto.

Injured in a fall, Nancy Krawiec, 8, daughter f Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Krawiec, 1518 Smithfield St., received a laceration of the left leg.

David Chetwynd, 14, of Michigan Ave. suffered bruises of the left shin on bleachers at school.

Charles Butler, 68, of R. D. 2, an employe of the Homer Laughlin China Co., suffered a crushed finger on equipment while at work.

Nice to have in the freezer for unexpected company; balls of ice cream that have been rolled in coconut. Serve with fruit, chocolate or caramel sauce. This dressed-up ice cream also makes a great topping for fruit pies that you want to serve a la mode.

Shakespeare's Macbeth Wins 5 TV Emmy Awards

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Macbeth, William Shakespeare's tragic play, won five Emmies Tuesday night and stole the 13th annual TV awards show.

But there were other moments of low comedy and high drama: Barbara Stanwyck, who has lost her sponsor, won her first TV awards, and—in the excitement—tore her dress. Bob Hope, nominated for the first time, suffered a stunning disappointment — but bore up manfully.

Macbeth won for best direction —George Schaefer; best actor—Maurice Evans; best actress — Judith Anderson; outstanding drama; and program of the year.

Miss Stanwyck, nominated for four movie oscars but never a winner, won on her first try in television.

As her name was called for best actress in a series, her beige dress caught on her coat.

She finally tossed away her coat and walked up to the podium with a torn dress. There she thanked everybody connected with her show.

Later she confided to a newsman: "I wanted to say I was the first Emmy winner to ever have her show dropped."

Her anthology series has not been renewed for next year.

Raymond Burr, the defense attorney who never loses a case on the Perry Mason TV show, was named best actor in a series.

Fred Astaire, who has nearly as many Emmies as the television academy, won two more to make a total of 11 in his collection.

The veteran dancer seemed embarrassed to win again for outstanding performance in a variety show and outstanding variety program.

In other awards, the NBC news team of Chet Huntley and David Brinkley beat out President Kennedy's news conferences for best news program.

The President and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, however, did get a special Emmy for "the great debates." Neither showed to accept the award.

Bob Hope suffered what was probably the biggest disappointment of the night.

Hope, nominated for the first time in his 25 years of stardom on talent alone, lost out in the humor category to Jack Benny, who has won before.

Benny, a pallbearer at Gary Cooper's funeral Tuesday, didn't show up to accept his award. It was accepted by Irving Fein, executive producer of the Benny show.

Hope quipped that he should move from the San Fernando Valley to Beverly Hills—where all the votes are concentrated.

Legion Auxiliary Picks 2

Poppy Queens Chosen At Newell

These two youngsters were selected Monday night by the auxiliary of Newell American Legion Post 114 to serve as "Poppy Day" queens for the annual project May 26-27.

They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George LaNeve, 916 Grant St., and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Franczek, 918 Grant St., and will reign as "Poppy Queens" when the auxiliary begins selling 1,000 of the red paper flowers.

The auxiliary will sell the poppies at a roadblock on Washington St., May 26, and members of the Junior Auxiliary will visit Newell homes May 27 in a door-to-door sale.

The auxiliary purchased the poppies from a Veterans Hospital and proceeds will be used to aid needy families of former servicemen.

Winners of a Poppy Day poster contest named at the auxiliary's meeting Monday night were Margaret Jones, a sixth grader, first; Mary Jane Copestick, fourth grader, second, and Rick Nally, fifth grader, third. They will receive cash prizes of $5, $3 and $2.

Mrs. Mae Hupp, president, conducted brief business and plans were made for a dinner May 27 honoring George LaNeve, department first vice commander.

L. O. Bickle of Fairmont, national committeeman, will be guest speaker.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Nally, Mrs. Jenny LaNeve and Mrs. Ann Juszczak. Next meeting is June 5.

$409 Collected On Water Bills

About $409 has been collected on Chester water bills overdue prior to Jan. 1 since a crackdown on delinquent accounts went into effect May 1, it was reported today.

Councilman W. F. Bishop, chairman of the water committee, said 38 delinquent accounts have been turned over to Squire John Herron of New Cumberland, and of these cases, $184 has been received.

Bishop, due to make a full report at a meeting of Council tonight, said a total of $1,283 has been paid into the water works since May 1, with $1,058 on the first quarter of this year. Some $224 was paid on accounts delinquent prior to Jan. 1.

Some $5,000 was overdue when the water committee ordered shutoff action late in April.

Since then some 15 shutoffs have been made, but 13 customers were restored service when bills were paid or if agreements on payment were reached, Lewis Govey, superintendent, said.

New Officers Selected For Legion's Unit

Several area women were elected to offices at the meeting of the Columbiana County Council of American Legion Auxiliaries Tuesday night at the Post 374 home in East End.

Mrs. Eileen Bird, of the host unit, was named first vice president; Mrs. Sara Rose of Wellsville Post 70, secretary, and Mrs. Jane Wiley of Glenmoor Post 736, chaplain.

Other officers elected are: Mrs. Helen Thompson of Salineville, president; Mrs. June Patchin, Columbiana, second vice president, and Miss Elizabeth Chick, East Palestine, treasurer.

Mrs. Freida Skvarka of Post 374, Mrs. Martha Zoellers, Columbiana, and Mrs. Ella Mae McCoy of Lisbon were named to the auditing committee.

Mrs. Gertrude McLaughin of Columbiana is retiring president. Mrs. Bird presided.

Mrs. Ann Needham of Salem conducted the memorial services.

The drill prize was won by Mrs. Skvarka. Mrs. Julia Baumgard and the social committee served refreshments.

Installation of officers will be held June 20 at East Palestine.

Probation Quiz Set

LISBON — A probation investigation has been ordered by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard for Roy Custer Jr. of Greenford, found guilty by a jury May 10 for non-support of his two minor children of a former marriage. He was indicted by the April Grand Jury and pleaded not guilty. He since has remarried and has six more children.

County Will Send 10 To Convention

LISBON — Albert R. Hanna, recently-elected president of the Columbiana County Public Health League, will head a 10-member county delegation of tuberculosis workers at the annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association Sunday through Thursday at Cincinnati.

Also attending will be George L. Lafferty of Lisbon, Atty. Donald W. Elliott of Rogers, E. S. Kerr of Salem, Mrs. Arthur Patholt of Leetonia, Mrs. Russell Forney, Miss Bonnie Lohr and Miss Lillian R. Schroeder of the Health League and Mrs. Robert Hendricks and Mrs. Roy Thornton of the tuberculosis clinic in Lisbon.

Among the topics are newer techniques in tuberculin testing a a report by Dr. Edward T. Blomquist on the U. S. Public Health Service tuberculosis prophylaxis trials. He will report on the results observed on the effectiveness of drugs in preventing tuberculosis infection.

'Cleanup' Schedules Are Set At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — Mayor Kenneth Leishman today announced the collection schedule for the annual spring "cleanup days" next week.

Collections will be made in the east sector and Foundry Hill Tuesday. The center section to the Church of Christ, including School House Hill and Ottumwa Addition, will be canvassed next Wednesday. The entire west end will be covered Thursday, May 25, the mayor said.

He pointed out the workers will not pick up any garbage. All trash is to be placed at the curb.

For an appetizing glaze: about half an hour before a ham is ready, baste it with honey.

Bucs Have 'The Law' On Their Side Again After 2-1 Victory

Stuart's Homer Is Margin

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Vernon Law's injured shoulder has shown a lot of improvement, but it still isn't 100 per cent healed.

That's the impression the Pittsburgh Pirates got of their big righthand pitcher Tuesday night as he hurled five scoreless innings in the Bucs' 2-1 victory over St. Louis.

Law was pulled in the fifth inning for a pinch-hitter after he complained his shoulder was starting to tighten up.

It was Law's first mound appearance since April 29 when he was taken out of a game against Cincinnati because of the shoulder. Doctors said the trouble was a torn muscle.

Pittsburgh's victory Tuesday night came on Dick Stuart's booming home run high over the left field wall that broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth. It was Stuart's third homer of the year.

The Pirates took a 1-0 lead in the fifth on a single by Don Hoak and a double by Smoky Burgess.

Elroy Face, replacing Law in the sixth, gave up the Cardinals' only run in the sixth on consecutive singles by Bill White, Kenny Boyer and Stan Musial.

Then came Stuart's big blast in the bottom half of the inning that settled things.

Face got credit for the victory, his second against one defeat. Cardinal starter Curt Simmons took the loss, giving him a 3-1 record.

The series closes out tonight with Pirate southpaw Vinegar Bend Mizell (2-1) going against Ernie Broglio (3-3).

Jack Sanford pitched his first complete game in six starts for San Francisco Tuesday night, giving up six hits for a 2-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs that gave the Giants a three-game lead in the National League race.

Pittsburgh took over second place by beating St. Louis 2-1 while Milwaukee dropped Los Angeles to fourth place by defeating the Dodgers 5-3. Cincinnati defeated Philadelphia 4-2.

Sanford (2-3) walked none and struck out five. Orlando Cepeda, with three of the Giants' hits off loser Dick Drott (0-1) and reliever Don Elston, tied it with a single in the fourth. He singled and scored the winning run on Hobie Landrith's single in the sixth.

The Braves beat Dodger southpaw Sandy Koufax (3-2) on a three-rum homer by Frank Bolling that made it 5-0 in the fourth inning. Don Nottebart (2-2) and reliever Moe Drabowsky held the Dodgers to four hits.

Gene 'Freese, whose error helped the Phils get a 2-0 lead in the second inning, brought the Reds from behind with a three-run homer in the fourth at Philadelphia off Frank Sullivan (1-4). Joey Jay (3-3) won his third in a row.

In 8-7 Loss To Boston

Tribe Hits, No Pitch

Hawkins Gets Tabbed With Second Loss

BOSTON (AP) — Manager Jimmie Dykes of the Cleveland Indians was supplicating of late for his boys to start getting some runs to back the fine performances of the pitching staff. It was no sooner said that done.

After that 15-inning 1-0 cliffhanger last Sunday, the Indians have gotten 6, 13 and 7 runs, respectively, in their last three games.

But against the Red Sox Tuesday night, the pitching cracked, and the seven runs went down the drain. In beating Cleveland 8-7, Boston got 16 hits—two more than the total of its previous five games. Cleveland collected 15 safeties.

Cleveland used four hurlers, as did Boston. Wynn Hawkins started for the Tribe and took his second loss against three wins. He was succeeded by Bob Allen, Johnny Antonelli and Russ Heman. Heman, who came on in the eighth inning, was the only one who didn't give up a run.

Cleveland picked up a pair of runs off Ike Delock in the first inning on Johnny Temple's single and doubles by Tito Francona and Vic Power. Three singles loaded the bases for Boston in their first. Hawkins then walked in a run.

Boston scored twice in the second to go ahead 3-2. Frank Malzone hit a home run for the first tally. A single, a sacrifice and a double produced the second and chased Hawkins.

The Red Sox got single runs in the third and fourth off Allen. They added three in the sixth off Antonelli. Two singles and a forceout accounted for one run and Jim Pagliaroni's homer netted two more. That put Boston ahead 8-3.

Cleveland rallied in the eighth, scoring three runs. John Romano tripled and scored on Woodie Held's double. Don Dillard doubled, scoring Held. Temple poked a single to plate Dillard. When Jim Piersall walked and Chuck Essegian singled, Billy Muffett, third reliever of the inning, came out of Boston's bullpen and got Power for the third out.

The Indians made a last-gasp try in the ninth. Willie Kirkland and Phillips both doubled, accounting for a run. But Dillard grounded out to end the game.

The Indians play Boston tonight in the rubber game of the series. Bobby Locke (0-0) is slated to hurl against Boston's ace, Bill Monbouquette (2-3).

Bucs Have 'The Law' On Their Side Again After 2-1 Victory

Stuart's Homer Is Margin

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Vernon Law's injured shoulder has shown a lot of improvement, but it still isn't 100 per cent healed.

That's the impression the Pittsburgh Pirates got of their big righthand pitcher Tuesday night as he hurled five scoreless innings in the Bucs' 2-1 victory over St. Louis.

Law was pulled in the fifth inning for a pinch-hitter after he complained his shoulder was starting to tighten up.

It was Law's first mound appearance since April 29 when he was taken out of a game against Cincinnati because of the shoulder. Doctors said the trouble was a torn muscle.

Pittsburgh's victory Tuesday night came on Dick Stuart's booming home run high over the left field wall that broke a 1-1 tie in the sixth. It was Stuart's third homer of the year.

The Pirates took a 1-0 lead in the fifth on a single by Don Hoak and a double by Smoky Burgess.

Elroy Face, replacing Law in the sixth, gave up the Cardinals' only run in the sixth on consecutive singles by Bill White, Kenny Boyer and Stan Musial.

Then came Stuart's big blast in the bottom half of the inning that settled things.

Face got credit for the victory, his second against one defeat. Cardinal starter Curt Simmons took the loss, giving him a 3-1 record.

The series closes out tonight with Pirate southpaw Vinegar Bend Mizell (2-1) going against Ernie Broglio (3-3).

Jack Sanford pitched his first complete game in six starts for San Francisco Tuesday night, giving up six hits for a 2-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs that gave the Giants a three-game lead in the National League race.

Pittsburgh took over second place by beating St. Louis 2-1 while Milwaukee dropped Los Angeles to fourth place by defeating the Dodgers 5-3. Cincinnati defeated Philadelphia 4-2.

Sanford (2-3) walked none and struck out five. Orlando Cepeda, with three of the Giants' hits off loser Dick Drott (0-1) and reliever Don Elston, tied it with a single in the fourth. He singled and scored the winning run on Hobie Landrith's single in the sixth.

The Braves beat Dodger southpaw Sandy Koufax (3-2) on a three-rum homer by Frank Bolling that made it 5-0 in the fourth inning. Don Nottebart (2-2) and reliever Moe Drabowsky held the Dodgers to four hits.

Gene Freese, whose error helped the Phils get a 2-0 lead in the second inning, brought the Reds from behind with a three-run homer in the fourth at Philadelphia off Frank Sullivan (1-4). Joey Jay (3-3) won his third in a row.

Dr. Miller Needs Rider; 'Shoe' Is Off

BALTIMORE (AP) — The one seat open in a game of musical saddles leading up to Saturday's $150,000 added Preakness at Pimlico was expected to be filled today.

Trainer Hirsch Jacobs will decide who will ride Dr. Miller instead of Willie Shoemaker.

Wellsville Babe Ruth League Sets Meeting

The Wellsville Babe Ruth League will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in Room 101 of Daw Junior High School. Parents of players are urged to attend.

That should complete the jockey list, after some dizzy off and on maneuvering, for the eight 3-year-olds counted on to start in the mile-and-three - sixteenth second leg of the triple crown.

Shoemaker is the second ace jockey to leave a saddle vacant for the Preakness after riding in the Kentucky Derby. Earlier, Eddie Arcaro had moved off Jacob Sher's Sherluck and was replaced by Sammy Boulmetis.

The trainers of Sherluck and Dr. Miller weren't upset. Both indicated they felt Shoemaker and Arcaro didn't get the utmost out of their colts in the derby.

"The boy simply didn't get into him in the derby," said Jacobs of Shoemaker's ride on Dr. Miller.

The colt, who is raced in the name of Mrs. Jacobs, was in 14th place and behind by 21 lengths with only a quarter of a mile left in the derby. He rushed up to fourth place to finish only five lengths behind the winning Carry Back.

Sherluck was in a striking fourth position turning into the derby stretch. He faltered suddenly and wound up fifth. Arcaro said a flying piece of paper threw Sherluck off stride.

It was Arcaro's first ride on Sherluck. Before that, there had been a fast and furious shifting of jockeys.

Although Johnny Sellers will be on Mrs. Katherine Price's Carry Back for the 11th straight time, they didn't get together until after last Oct. 15. Sellers took over after Bill Hartack and Carry Back finished ninth in the Champagne Stakes and the small powerhouse has won seven times since then.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A record-crashing state track - field meet is shaping up for Ohio's high school cinder stars May 26-27.

State standards in three events were bettered last week as the scholastic athletes responded to warmer weather and neared their peak in various relays.

Dan Hughes of Grandview whipped through the half-mile in 1:56.8 to eclipse the 1:56.9 set 16 years ago in the state meet by Canton McKinley's Steve Orfandes. Cincinnati Taft's 3:21.2 for the mile relay at the Miami University meet was under the 3:23.8 state record set last year by Cleveland East Tech. And Dayton Roosevelt's John Henderson ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.2 seconds, matching the mark of Marietta's Bob Fogle and two-tenths under the state record.

Five other new leaders popped up this week, in the listings made by Ed Chay of the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

They include Chuck Crawford of Dayton Roosevelt, :48.7 for the quarter-mile; Henry Weaver of Mansfield, :18.9 for the 180-yard low hurdles; Dave Evans of Akron South, 23'7¼" for the broad jump, and Jim Goings of Toledo Libbey and Perry Shazier of Hamilton Taft, 6-3 in the high jump.

The half-mile in the state meet could be a classic. Challenging Hughes are state cross - country champion Warren Hand of Dayton Roosevelt and John Kolovich of Cleveland St. Joseph with 1:58 2 clockings, and Bob Miller of Upper Arlington with 1:58.7.

Cincinnati Taft, in addition to bettering the mile relay record, matched Cleveland East Tech's state mark of 1:28.4 in the half-mile relay.

Other top performances of the year:

100-yard dash: Weaver, Mansfield, 9.8; Orr, Cleveland East Tech; Espy, Sandusky; Sugden, Akron Buchtel; Gordon, Canton McKinley, and Morrow, Cleveland Collinwood, all 9.9.

220-yard dash: Orr, 21.3; Sugden, 21.8; Weaver, 21.9.

Mile run: Brose, Dayton Belmont, 4:23.2; Hand, 4:26.3; McCann, Cleveland St. Edward, 4:27.9.

Shot Put: Housteau, Youngstown Ursuline, 56-9; Johnson, Cincinnati Taft, 56-30 Duda, New Philadelphia, 54-10.

Discus: Bialous, Canton McKinley, 164-9½; Hartley, Covington, 164.4.

Pole vault: Scruggs, Sandusky, and Hord, Kenton, 13 ft.; Waddell, Marion, 12-10¼.

Boxer Dies Of Injuries

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lightweight boxer Harry Campbell, 23-year-old former Olympic star who turned pro, died Tuesday night—24 hours after suffering a brain injury in a 10-round main event.

Campbell, who underwent surgery for a hemorrhage, never regained consciousness. An accumulation of hard, but not devastating punches was blamed for the fatal injury.

San Jose State sophomore and member of the 1960 Olympic tema collapsed in the Kezar Pavilion ring Monday night after losing a 10-round decision to Al Medrano, Sacramento, Calif.

Doug Hayden, San Francisco member of the state athletic commission, said he would start an investigation to determine whether any negligence was involved in Campbell's fatal injury.

Referee Verne Bybee said he was surprised to learn that Campbell had collapsed.

"I didn't realize he was badly hurt until after I was in the dressing room and they came in to get a stretcher," said Bybee.

The anxious Medrano accompanied Campbell to St. Luke's Hospital and awaited a report by Dr. Don Lastreto, physician for the California Athletic Commission.

Dark May Have Solved Sanford's Big Problem

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A neat bit of applied psychology by Manager Alvin Dark may have resolved the troubles of Jack Sanford, the only one of five starting San Francisco pitchers with big problems.

Sanford, who won 12 games for the Giants last season and was the major league shutout king with six, hadn't finished a game in five starts this season until Dark sent in Hobie Landrith Tuesday night to catch him. That did it.

Landrith not only kept the easily-ired Sanford on even keel for nine innings but singled in the winning run of a 2-1 decision over the Chicago Cubs. The win pushed the Giants three games in front of Cincinnati, Los Angeles and Pittsburgh in the National League.

Dark said afterward he recalled that Landrith had caught and counseled Sanford during two previous seasons and so decided to give Ed Bailey the night off after catching 14 straight games.

Sanford was quick to emphasize that "Bailey is one helluva catcher" but he lauded Landrith—also second sacker Chuck Hiller whose deft double play snuffed out the Cubs in the ninth when two were on and only one out.

Today, with Sam Jones pitching, Bailey goes back behind the plate. Prof. Dark has recessed the psychology class.

Player Maintains Golf Money Lead

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — If Gary Player keeps booming along professional golf's money trai' the way he has in the past, he stands to better Arnold Palmer's annual winning record of more than $80,000.

In round figures, Player's total of $48,954 matches Palmer's winnings on the tour this time last year.

However, Palmer isn't to be counted out in the race for king of the money winners. Palmer's total so far this tour is $40,085.

Holding up third spot in the Professional Golfers Association official list is Doug Sanders with $26,703. Fourth is Tommy Bolt with $19,991. Jay Hebert is fifth with $18,725.

The rest of the top 10 in order are: Bill Casper Jr., $18,150; Paul Harney, $15,855; Ken Venturi, $15,430; Sam Snead, $14,940, and Don January, $14,167.

McCormick; Wilhelm 1st In ERA Race

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike McCormick of San Francisco and Hoyt Wilhelm of Baltimore, each a previous major league earned run champion, have taken the leads in this year's competition.

Through Monday's games, McCormick, the young southpaw, topped the National League with a 1.32 average while Wilhelm, veteran right - hander, paced the American with 1.54.

McCormick, last season' NL titleholder, has given up only six earned runs in 41 innings, figures compiled by The Associated Press showed. He has won his last four games after dropping his first and has yielded only one earned run in his last 18 innings.

Wilhelm is seeking his third ERA crown. He was the National League leader in 1952 while with the New York Giants and the American League kingpin in 1959 with the Orioles. He has worked 35 innings this year, all in relief, and allowed only six earned runs. The knuckleball pitcher has a 4-1 record.

Bill Monbouquette of Boston, who fanned 17 Washington players in beating the Senators 2-1 last Friday, is the American League runner-up with a 2.36 mark. He is followed by Don Mossi of Detroit 2.39, Bob Shaw, Chicago 2.45 and Tom Sturdivant of Washington, 2.53. The leaders are based on 30 or more innings pitched.

Johnny Podres of the Los Angeles Dodgers is in second place in the National League with a 1.94 ERA. The left-hander dropped his first game Monday night after winning five in succession. He has yielded 11 earned runs in 51 innings.

Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia is third with 2.11. Then come Warren Spahn, Milwaukee 2.17, rookie Ken Hunt, Cincinnati 2.25, Bob Gibson, St. Louis 2.40 and Joey Jay, Cincinnati 2.65.

Field Problem Faces Church Softball Loop

Representatives from ten churches were present Tuesday night to discuss plans for the organization of the YMCA-Church Softball League.

Fifteen teams are interested in participating this year, but the fate of the league depends on the securing of four fields that will be available for games on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Last year some 250 adult players participated in the league.

The League organized several years ago has provided summer recreation for a large number of players, as well as aiding in church attendance on the part of the players enrolled.

Representatives present at the meeting were Glenn McGaffic, Ben Weber, Robert Wagoner, William Wolfe, Robert McGaffic, Dale Channels, Robert Talbott, L. A. Tomb, Joe Buchheit, Ernest Bell, Charlie Bell, Al Dawson and Carl A. Werner of the YMCA.

The next meeting of the church representatives will be held May 25 at 7:30 at the Y.M.C.A. A report will be made on the fields available at this time, if enough have been secured the rules and regulations will be adopted and the schedule of play drawn. It is hoped to open the current season of play on June 5.

Crable Paces Potter Golf Team To 9th

Rounding into form for Saturday's District eliminations, the East Liverpool High golf team decisioned Weirton 7-6, Tuesday over the Country Club course.

Rick Crable led the Potter golfers around with a 40 while Bob Putt fired a 41. Dave "Digger" Thorne recorded a 48 and Bob Gilmore shot 52.

Ray Rupinsky was low for Weirton with 43.

The victory pushed East Liverpool's record to 9-2 and the Potters meet Youngstown Ursuline today.

Dr. Miller Needs Rider; 'Shoe' Is Off

BALTIMORE (AP) — The one seat open in a game of musical saddles leading up to Saturday's $150,000 added Preakness at Pimlico was expected to be filled today.

Trainer Hirsch Jacobs will decide who will ride Dr. Miller instead of Willie Shoemaker.

That should complete the jockey list, after some dizzy off and on maneuvering, for the eight 3-year-olds counted on to start in the mile-and-three - sixteenth second leg of the triple crown.

Shoemaker is the second ace jockey to leave a saddle vacant for the Preakness after riding in the Kentucky Derby. Earlier, Eddie Arcaro had moved off Jacob Sher's Sherluck and was replaced by Sammy Boulmetis.

The trainers of Sherluck and Dr. Miller weren't upset. Both indicated they felt Shoemaker and Arcaro didn't get the utmost out of their colts in the derby.

"The boy simply didn't get into him in the derby," said Jacobs of Shoemaker's ride on Dr. Miller.

The colt, who is raced in the name of Mrs. Jacobs, was in 14th place and behind by 21 lengths with only a quarter of a mile left in the derby. He rushed up to fourth place to finish only five lengths behind the winning Carry Back.

Sherluck was in a striking fourth position turning into the derby stretch. He faltered suddenly and wound up fifth. Arcaro said a flying piece of paper threw Sherluck off stride.

It was Arcaro's first ride on Sherluck. Before that, there had been a fast and furious shifting of jockeys.

Although Johnny Sellers will be on Mrs. Katherine Price's Carry Back for the 11th straight time, they didn't get together until after last Oct. 15. Sellers took over after Bill Hartack and Carry Back finished ninth in the Champagne Stakes and the small powerhouse has won seven times since then.

Record-Crashing Should Mark State Cinder Meet

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A record-crashing state track - field meet is shaping up for Ohio's high school cinder stars May 26-27.

State standards in three events were bettered last week as the scholastic athletes responded to warmer weather and neared their peak in various relays.

Dan Hughes of Grandview whipped through the half-mile in 1:56.8 to eclipse the 1:56.9 set 16 years ago in the state meet by Canton McKinley's Steve Orfandes. Cincinnati Taft's 3:21.2 for the mile relay at the Miami University meet was under the 3:23.8 state record set last year by Cleveland East Tech. And Dayton Roosevelt's John Henderson ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.2 seconds, matching the mark of Marietta's Bob Fogle and two-tenths under the state record.

Five other new leaders popped up this week, in the listings made by Ed Chay of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. .

They include Chuck Crawford of Dayton Roosevelt, :48.7 for the quarter-mile; Henry Weaver of Mansfield, :18.9 for the 180-yard low hurdles; Dave Evans of Akron South, 23'7¼" for the broad jump, and Jim Goings of Toledo Libbey and Perry Shazier of Hamilton Taft, 6-3 in the high jump.

The half-mile in the state meet could be a classic. Challenging Hughes are state cross - country champion Warren Hand of Dayton Roosevelt and John Kolovich of Cleveland St. Joseph with 1:58.2 clockings, and Bob Miller of Upper Arlington with 1:58.7.

Cincinnati Taft, in addition to bettering the mile relay record, matched Cleveland East Tech's state mark of 1:28.4 in the half-mile relay.

Senators' Victory Streak Reaches 4

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Washington's surprising Senators, allowing just 13 hits and five runs in five games, won their fourth in a row Tuesday night as southpaw Hal Woodeshick and reliever Dave Sisler checked the New York Yankees on two hits for a 3-2 decision. That pushed the Detroit Tigers, who won 10-4 at Baltimore, four games ahead of New York in the American League race.

The Chicago White Sox defeated Minnesota 5-4, Boston beat Cleveland 8-7 and Kansas City rapped the Los Angeles Angels 6-4.

The Yankees scored a run in the third inning on two walks, a wild pitch and an infield out, but didn't get a hit off Woodeshick until Mickey Mantle cracked his 10th home run with one out in the sixth. Their only other hit was an eighth-inning single by Bill Skowron off Sisler, who had come on in the seventh and fanned pinch-hitter Yogi Berra with the bases loaded.

The Senators had 10 hits and scored all their runs in the third on consecutive singles by Danny O'Connell, Chuck Hinton, Jim King and Willie Tasby and a clinching sacrifice fly by Dale Long. Bill Stafford (0-1) was the loser.

Detroit scored 10 runs for the second night in a row at Baltimore, with this barrage backing right-hander Frank Lary for his 100th victory in the majors.

Steve Barber (4-3) was the loser, giving up a two-run homer by Rocky Colavito and a two-run triple by Bubba Morton in a decisive four-run fourth. Norm Cash also homered for Detroit.

Early Wynn (4-1) nailed his 288th victory with a two-out tie-breaking single for the White Sox in the eighth inning. Minnie Minoso's seventh inning home run had tied it 4-all for the Sox, who three times came from behind. Loser Pete Ramos (3-3) had three of the Twins' six hits, one a home run.

Frank Malzone and rookie Jim Paglionari homered for the Red Sox. Ike Delock won his second with relief help in the eighth. Wynn Hawkins (3-2) was the loser.

A single by Dick Howser gave the A's the winning run in the sixth inning against Eli Grba (3-4) while rookie Norm Bass blanked the Angels on four hits for eight innings. Jim Archer relieved in a four-run ninth, and saved it for Bass (2-1).

NBA Looks Even Better In Face Of New League

NEW YORK (AP) — President Maurice Podoloff took stock of his National Basketball Association today and — even in the face of opposition from the upstart American Basketball League — liked what he saw.

"For the first time in a long while," Podoloff said, "there was absolutely no talk at our board of governors meeting of shifting franchises. Last season every team in the league made at least a little money and all are happy where they are."

Tuesday, Baltimore was accepted into the league for the 1962-63 season bringing the total teams to 10.

"But that isn't the end," said Podoloff. "We have a bid from San Francisco, too. My personal feelings are that eventually we will have three divisions spread across the country."

Chicago was awarded a franchise last January and will begin playing this fall.

"That's quite a bit of expanding in a short time," Podoloff pointed out. "So we figure we'll let matters stay where they are a while — sort of get a chance to shake the new alignment down."

The league now consists of Baltimore, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Syracuse, Boston, St. Louis, Detroit, Cincinnati and Los Angeles.

Pedro Ramos of the Minnesota Twins has won opening day pitching assignments in the American League the last three years.

Durbin Takes 2 Firsts At Struthers

Beaver Local's track forces fell 74-20 Tuesday afternoon at Struthers but Mike Durbin kept up his scoring pace.

The Beaver Local star turned in a 10.4 clocking in the 100-yard dash and was timed in 24.2 for the 220.

Other Beaver Local scoring came from Pete Wilkinson with a second in the high hurdles and a third in the lows. Mike Klembara finished third in the half mile and John Detchon was third in the 440.

Smith of Struthers ran the 440 event in 52.7.

Whitey Ford of the Yankees started the 1961 season with a 24-5 career record over the Washington Senators.

O'Rourkes Become Parents Of 3rd Boy

Jack O'Rourke, Beaver Local's head track, football and wrestling coach, couldn't travel to Struthers Tuesday with his team since his wife gave birth to a bouncing baby boy — the third boy for the O'Rourkes. They also have one girl.

Some people won't listen to facts relative to the various laws which have been enacted under the revised code of the State of Ohio.

It is most peculiar when one will ask an enforcement officer about a law and it is then explained to the individual and he wants to give the officer an argument.

In this case, the officer will let the person do as he pleases until the time comes for him to act when a law has been violated and the victim comes to realize that because he would not listen he has to "feel" the smack on his pocketbook at one of the county courts of jurisdiction.

I AM REFERRING specifically to the law that now permits motors of not more than 3.5 horsepower on Lake Guilford.

I have had people give me the argument that 3.5 motors are practically obsolete and have been replaced with the 3.6 motors and such motors will be allowed on Guilford. I would like to state here and now if you try to get a permit for a 3.6 motor to be used on Guilford the parks manager, Walter Burbick, will not issue and cannot issue such a permit as the laws are laws exactly as they read.

If you buy your permit some place else with intentions of using it at Guilford you are asking for trouble.

Boaters living in the East Liverpool, Wellsville section should stay out of the part of Ohio River under Pennsylvania control.

Your licenses and permits are not recognized by that state. Stay on the West Virginia and Kentucky waters and you are O.K. At the same time, we do not recognize recognize Pennsylvania licenses in our waters. Residents of West Virginia and Kentucky can place their boats on any waters under Ohio control and leave them there for a period of three months. After then they must be removed.

THE SUDDEN rise in the water temperature which hit 64 degrees last Saturday activated the bass and spawning began in full force. Spawning bass do not pay any attention to the fishermens lures with their gills full of romance.

Locally, bullhead catfish, crappies, bluegills, sunfish, carp and eastern chain pickerel are being taken along with an occasional bass.

Bow hunters can get set as the carp will be in the shallows any day now either feeding or spawning.

One bow fisherman has taken more than 200 carp from Berlin Reservoir, and still is going after more.

If I can possibly find the time, my intentions are to set up a carp smoking outfit at Guilford as a demonstration to prove that carp are as delicious as any other smoked fish. More will be said about the time and place after arrangements have been completed.

Shoemaker Ready For '4,000 Club'

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—The exclusive "4,000 club" of race riders awaited its fourth member today—jockey Willie Shoemaker.

The mighty mite was just five winning mounts away from the charmed circle as he entered the afternoon action at Hollywood Park.

Shoemaker had mounts booked in the first seven of the eight races on the card.

Members of the "4,000 club are:

Johnny Longden, at 54 still going strong—he's riding here—and earlier this spring passed the 5,000 mark.

Sir Gordon Richards of England, who retired with a total of 4,780.

Eddie Arcaro, also very prominent in racing in his mid-40s, who scored his 4,000th victory in 1958, and is approaching 4,700 at Aqueduct.

Shoemaker is only 29 and the remarkable part of his brilliant career is that he will reach 4,000 in apprxoimately 12 years on the race track, and before his 30th birthday next Aug. 19.

It took Longden and Arcaro, as well as such other outstanding riders as Ted Atkinson, Ralph Neves and Sir Gordon, 20 or more years to win 3,000.

Beaver Local Beaten, 8-2, By Big Red

The Beaver Local nine suffered its first regular season defeat when Steubenville Big Red hammered out an 8-2 victory Tuesday at the Beaver Local field.

Before yesterday, the Beavers had won five straight contests, losing only one tourney start.

Big Red jumped on starter Tom Shallenberger for one run in the second inning and seven in the third. Righthander Dave Myer relieved Shallenberger in the third and blanked Steubenville the rest of the way.

Beaver Local scored both of its runs in the first inning and was limited to three hits by Steubenville's Bruckel who went all the way. One safety was a triple by catcher Dale Beagle.

Big Red collected six hits with four coming in the big third inning uprising.

Beaver Local plays at Salineville this afternoon.

Governor Urges 'A More Potent' WVU Grid Team

CHARLESTON (AP) — The political powers and prestige of the governor's office will be put to use to provide a more potent West Virginia University football team.

A rabid fan, Gov. Barron, said so himself.

The governor particularly is interested in a strong football team at WVU by the State Centennial in 1963.

"We're trying to create an atmosphere through the prestige of my office to get outstanding state high school players to attend West Virginia University," Barron said.

The governor said he felt a top-flight football team could serve as a "status symbol" for the state and could be a factor in industrial development and tourist programs.

He said he thought the team should be built into one all West Virginians could follow with pride — a football team with the same national prestige enjoyed by the Mountaineer basketball team.

Dallas will play in the eastern division of the National Football League next fall.

Governor Urges 'A More Potent' WVU Grid Team

CHARLESTON (AP) — The political powers and prestige of the governor's office will be put to use to provide a more potent West Virginia University football team.

A rabid fan, Gov. Barron, said so himself.

The governor particularly is interested in a strong football team at WVU by the State Centennial in 1963.

"We're trying to create an atmosphere through the prestige of my office to get outstanding state high school players to attend West Virginia University," Barron said.

The governor said he felt a top-flight football team could serve as a "status symbol" for the state and could be a factor in industrial development and tourist programs.

He said he thought the team should be built into one all West Virginians could follow with pride — a football team with the same national prestige enjoyed by the Mountaineer basketball team.

Dallas will play in the eastern division of the National Football League next fall.

600 Attend Gymnastic Show At East Junior

Some 600 people representing the largest turnout, watched the third annual gymnastic show presented by the physical education classes of East Junior High School Tuesday night in the school gymnasium.

About 100 boys and girls took part in the show which was directed by Mrs. Gyla Nicely and Dom Cascio, physical education instructors.

San Juan Club In Somewhat Of Dilemma Today

By The Associated Press

The San Juan Marlins are in a dilemma today.

Despite a 4-2 loss to Richmond Tuesday night, they are only a game out of first place in the International League—but may suddenly find themselves deposed from their island home in Puerto Rico.

"We are not happy about the situation," General Manager Joe Ryan said today after hearing that IL president Tommy Richardson said the team might be moved to Charleston, W.Va., if details can be worked out.

He said he felt Jersey City, not San Juan, is the league's greatest problem, adding he could not understand why plane transportation could be considered so expensive.

Jersey City's game with league-leading Columbus was postponed while Rochester shut out Syracuse 8-0 and Buffalo beat Toronto 5-4 after Toronto took the double-header opener 12-5.

Richmond's Ted Wieand and Hal Reniff held San Juan to two hits. Rochester got all its runs on five homers. Steve Demeter clubbed two homers in the first game and drove in five Toronto runs, then he added another homer in the nightcap.

Yesterday's Stars

Hitting — Orlando Cepeda, Giants, had half of club's six hits, drove in tying run with a single, then singled and scored tie-breaking run in 2-1 victory over the Cubs.

Pitching — Hal Woodeshick and Dave Sisler, Senators, held Yankees to just two hits for 3-2 victory.

Rummage Sale Plans Completed By Class

PUGHTOWN — Final plans were made for a rummage sale when the Friendship Sunday School Class of the Presbyterian Church met Monday night. It will be held May 29-June 3 at Weirton.

Thirteen attended in the home of Mrs. Fred Herron. Mrs. Robert Swain presided. Mrs. Harl Stover led devotions.

The next meeting June 3 will feature a dinner in the Timberlanes in Salem. Mrs. William Bailey Jr. and Mrs. Donald Glenn are in charge of arrangements.

Kurii San Notches First Win At Beulah

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Kurii San posted his first victory of the year Tuesday in the feature race at Beulah Park and covered the six furlongs in the fastest time of the meet at the Grove City track —1:10 1-5. The track record is 1:09 2-5.

The 3-year-old gelding, owned by Mrs. John Brockman of Dayton, paid $5.20.

GI Trains At Knox

HAMMONDSVILLE — Pvt. Gerald A. Madden, son of Mrs. Hilda Madden, is receiving basic combat training with Co. A, 13th Battalion of the 4th Training Regiment at Ft. Knox, Ky. The eight-week program ends June 16. He attended Stanton Local High School before entering the Army.

Ohio Girl Picked As Cook-Of-Year

CINCINNATI (AP) — Bettijean Jeska, a 17-year-old high school senior from Swanton, Ohio, today won the 1961 national junior cook-of-the-year award with her "Peanut Streusel Pie", a meringue-topped vanilla cream pie layered with streusel-like peanut butter crunch.

Bettijean's selection brought her a $5,000 cash award and a two-week trip to Europe for herself and her mother.

Bettijean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jeska.

She won out over a field of 44 other girls and 5 boys from 18 states, selected in the regional contests.

The contest is sponsored annually by the Kroger Co., grocery chain, and the Westinghouse Electric Co.

The contestants, each with his or her own stove and refrigerator, prepared their dishes Monday in a downtown hotel and the panel of food experts, serving as judges, judged the entries Monday night.

Gov. Bert Combs of Kentucky crowned Miss Jeska "1961 junior cook-of-the-year."

Logan Elm Split By Heavy Winds

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's famed Logan Elm, beneath which the Indian Chief Logan made his famous address to the white men, fell victim Monday to the high winds which hit this area.

Caretakers reported that the trunk of the tree, braced by cables in late years to preserve what was left of it, split down the middle in the high winds. The two huge limbs which still remained were ripped off.

The tree is on a small plot of ground maintained by the state just south of Circleville on Ohio 361, a mile east of U. S. 23 in Pickaway County. For many years it has been an attraction to visitors and was venerated as the state's oldest historic tree.

It was under this tree in 1774 that Chief Logan of the Mingo tribe delivered his famous lament in which he asked, "Who is there to mourn for Logan?" His family had been killed by the white men.

On the site is a marker erected by the state, where the speech may be read. One of the caretakers said after the storm that "it's a shame — about the only thing left to do is to cut it up for souvenirs."

Reece's Widow Elected By Big Vote To Congress

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (AP)—Louise Goff Reece, schooled in Republican politics all her life, has been elected in a landslide to the congressional seat held by her late husband 34 years.

Mrs. Reece, widow of the former Republican national chairman B. Carroll Reece, easily defeated two opponents in Tuesday's special election called in the First District of Upper East Tennessee after Reece's death March 19. The district has not sent a Democrat to Congress since 1878.

Mrs. Reece, 62, who was making her first political race, is the daughter of the late Sen. Guy Goff and the granddaughter of the late Sen. Nathan Goff, both West Virginia Republicans. She married Reece in 1923.

She will fill his unexpired term until January, 1963.

Ohio Man Charged In Attacks, Burglaries

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three charges of rape and three of burglary of an inhabited dwelling have been placed against Mack Dean, 24, of Cincinnati. Dean was arrested Monday night. Police said he then admitted rape of two women last December and a 14-year-old girl last April.

Police said Dean has since admitted three more rapings. They said he told them he found the women alone at homes he was trying to burglarize.

Rabbit Is Blamed In Fatal Accident

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A Vandalia woman swerved her car to avoid hitting a rabbit Tuesday night, the car went out of control, hit a utility pole and a passenger in the vehicle was killed, the Montgomery County sheriff's office reported.

Mrs. Carmen South, 42, of Vandalia died. The driver, Mrs. Joyce Cooper, 32, and another passenger suffered minor injuries in the accident just north of Dayton on a county road.

Beef round or chuck is usually used for Swiss Steak.

Prosecutors To Meet

The San Juan Marlins are in a dilemma today.

Despite a 4-2 loss to Richmond Tuesday night, they are only a game out of first place in the International League—but may suddenly find themselves deposed from their island home in Puerto Rico.

"We are not happy about the situation," General Manager Joe Ryan said today after hearing that IL president Tommy Richardson said the team might be moved to Charleston, W.Va., if details can be worked out.

He said he felt Jersey City, not San Juan, is the league's greatest problem, adding he could not understand why plane transportation could be considered so expensive.

Jersey City's game with league-leading Columbus was postponed while Rochester shut out Syracuse 8-0 and Buffalo beat Toronto 5-4 after Toronto took the doubleheader opener 12-5.

Richmond's Ted Wieand and Hal Reniff held San Juan to two hits. Rochester got all its runs on five homers. Steve Demeter clubbed two homers in the first game and drove in five Toronto runs, then he added another homer in the nightcap.

Yesterday's Stars

Hitting — Orlando Cepeda, Giants, had half of club's six hits, drove in tying run with a single, then singled and scored tie-breaking run in 2-1 victory over the Cubs.

Pitching — Hal Woodeshick and Dave Sisler, Senators, held Yankees to just two hits for 3-2 victory.

Rummage Sale Plans Completed By Class

PUGHTOWN — Final plans were made for a rummage sale when the Friendship Sunday School Class of the Presbyterian Church met Monday night. It will be held May 29-June 3 at Weirton.

Thirteen attended in the home of Mrs. Fred Herron. Mrs. Robert Swain presided. Mrs. Harl Stover led devotions.

The next meeting June 3 will feature a dinner in the Timberlanes in Salem. Mrs. William Bailey Jr. and Mrs. Donald Glenn are in charge of arrangements.

Kurii San Notches First Win At Beulah

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Kurii San posted his first victory of the year Tuesday in the feature race at Beulah Park and covered the six furlongs in the fastest time of the meet at the Grove City track —1:10 1-5. The track record is 1:09 2-5.

The 3-year-old gelding, owned by Mrs. John Brockman of Dayton, paid $5.20.

GI Trains At Knox

HAMMONDSVILLE — Pvt. Gerald A. Madden, son of Mrs. Hilda Madden, is receiving basic combat training with Co. A, 13th Battalion of the 4th Training Regiment at Ft. Knox, Ky. The eight-week program ends June 16. He attended Stanton Local High School before entering the Army.

Ohio Girl Picked As Cook-Of-Year

Bettijean's selection brought her a $5,000 cash award and a two-week trip to Europe for herself and her mother.

Bettijean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jeska.

She won out over a field of 44 other girls and 5 boys from 18 states, selected in the regional contests.

The contest is sponsored annually by the Kroger Co., grocery chain, and the Westinghouse Electric Co.

The contestants, each with his or her own stove and refrigerator, prepared their dishes Monday in a downtown hotel and the panel of food experts, serving as judges, judged the entries Monday night.

Gov. Bert Combs of Kentucky crowned Miss Jeska "1961 junior cook-of-the-year."

Logan Elm Split By Heavy Winds

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's famed Logan Elm, beneath which the Indian Chief Logan made his famous address to the white men, fell victim Monday to the high winds which hit this area.

Caretakers reported that the trunk of the tree, braced by cables in late years to preserve what was left of it, split down the middle in the high winds. The two huge limbs which still remained were ripped off.

The tree is on a small plot of ground maintained by the state just south of Circleville on Ohio 361, a mile east of U. S. 23 in Pickaway County. For many years it has been an attraction to visitors and was venerated as the state's oldest historic tree.

It was under this tree in 1774 that Chief Logan of the Mingo tribe delivered his famous lament in which he asked, "Who is there to mourn for Logan?" His family had been killed by the white men.

On the site is a marker erected by the state, where the speech may be read. One of the caretakers said after the storm that "it's a shame — about the only thing left to do is to cut it up for souvenirs."

Reece's Widow Elected By Big Vote To Congress

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (AP)—Louise Goff Reece, schooled in Republican politics all her life, has been elected in a landslide to the congressional seat held by her late husband 34 years.

Mrs. Reece, widow of the former Republican national chairman B. Carroll Reece, easily defeated two opponents in Tuesday's special election called in the First District of Upper East Tennessee after Reece's death March 19. The district has not sent a Democrat to Congress since 1878.

Mrs. Reece, 62, who was making her first political race, is the daughter of the late Sen. Guy Goff and the granddaughter of the late Sen. Nathan Goff, both West Virginia Republicans. She married Reece in 1923.

She will fill his unexpired term until January, 1963.

Ohio Man Charged In Attacks, Burglaries

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three charges of rape and three of burglary of an inhabited dwelling have been placed against Mack Dean, 24, of Cincinnati. Dean was arrested Monday night. Police said he then admitted rape of two women last December and a 14-year-old girl last April.

Police said Dean has since admitted three more rapings. They said he told them he found the women alone at homes he was trying to burglarize.

Man Gives Wife 'Living Insurance' Policy

What birthday gift could a man give his wife that would mean more to her than any other gift he could possibly give her? One husband has decided on the most precious gift of all — a living - insurance policy in the form of a reducing diet. His appreciative wife, wanting to do her part, has asked for diet help. She writes: from my husband — the written promise to lose weight at the rate of about five pounds per month for the next four months!

Ida Jean Kain

"Naturally I would like to make it as easy as possible for him to keep this promise. I would appreciate any advice you can give me.

"My husband is not quite 5 feet 9 and now weighs 180 pounds. When we met in high school 22 years ago — he weighed 120 so you see he has not always been heavy.

HE IS MOSTLY 'all stomach,' although his face, too, appears fat. He has an annual check-up by our family physician and is in good health.

"Have we set the right weight goal, 160 pounds? What should we consider as his daily calorie requirement? What exercises will help? He is athletically inclined and plays softball and swims in the summer, although in the winter there is little time for sports, except as a spectator.

"His favorite food is ice cream, very high in calories we know, but I would hate for him to have to give it up completely. Could we possibly allow him one dish of ice cream per week as a reward for sticking to his diet the other six days?

"I am enclosing a stamped envelope for the revised calorie chart and another for any additional information we will need. I will follow your column for any tips for people like us. My husband is 39 years old. Thanks from both myself and my streamlined - to - be husband.

Cheers for this couple. He wants to take steps to insure that they celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary and she wants to learn the cooking ways to a man's health.

In figuring a man's desirable weight, go by this gauge. For average frame, allow 110 pounds for the first five feet of height and five and a half pounds for each extra inch. Height is computed without shoes, weight without clothing. Big bones, a wide frame, and heavy muscles entitle a man to carry from five to ten percent more weight. It is excess fat that is associated with chronic degenerative diseases.

ON THE CALORIE score: allow 16 calories per pound of ideal body weight as calculated by structure. Note: excess fat is not to be figured in this estimate. Reducing diets for men range from 1400 to 2000 calories a day, or one-third less than maintenance levels.

Since I'm running out of space, the cooking tips will be given tomorrow.

Send a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart" and "Mr. and Mrs. Reducing Diet." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Post care requests cannot be answered.

Ike's Honored At West Point

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—"It's trite but true," says West Point grad Dwight D. Eisenhower, "that the older you get the more value West Point has for you."

"Fashions come and go," the former president added. "Everything changes in the world but human nature."

"The values for which West Point is noted are imperishable," he continued and added: "Values change but never the value of integrity."

Eisenhower talked of his alma mater Monday night as he received the Sylvanus Thayer medal, top honor of the Association of Graduates of the U.S. Military Academy.

The gold medal was for "outstanding service to the nation." Eisenhower was the fourth recipient of the honor and the first West Point graduate to receive it.

County Heads Laud Civil Defense Group

LISBON — County commissioners Monday commended the 31st Mobile Support Group of Civil Defense for its work in Columbiana County during the past nine years.

The group is being demobilized by the state and will not be supported in the future.

The commissioners also approved travel allowances for Russell Reichenbach of North Georgetown, county dog warden, and Harold McCall, assistant, who attended the Eastern Ohio Dog Wardens Association convention yesterday at Carrollton.

The commissioners will meet again Thursday from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Good Handwriting Aids In Spelling

Do you remember when, as a school child, you used to write "i" to look like "e", "o" to look like "a", or vice versa, in a spelling test? You assumed you would be given the benefit of a doubt. It really worked for me, and Caroline (my wife) has just told me it worked for her. Of course, you may have had such a good spelling conscience or spelled so well as never to have sunk into this "sin". I understand that a certain typewriter manufacturer now makes a "blur-rite" key, to add to the regular keyboard. When you are not sure of the next letter in a word you can press this key and it types a neat blur.

WITH TYPING courses available in most high schools and with local "business schools", there seems to be a good supply of persons who say they can type. But thos ewho can type well and spell correctly are relatively scarce.

Yet almost any person who practices spelling and typing can do pretty well. If accuracy is the emphasis, speed will come.

Even the youth who spells and types accurately may have so meager a vocabulary as to write down senseless words.

Any youth aspiring to become an efficient secretary needs to read wisely and accumulate a vast amount of information. Good preparation in this direction presupposes good spelling skills and a spelling conscience which makes one look up doubtful words in the dictionary; also neatness and legibility in handwriting in the grades.

THE PERSON who for years in school has written neatly and legibly will, as a rule, strive for precision on a typewriter.

Some poor spellers in the grades are hampered in written spelling tests by their poor handwriting. Many a parent has written of the child who can correctly spell aloud at home, but who misses many words in the test at school, or in regular written work.

You may help such a child at home by having him write the words as you pronounce them and by prevailing on him to practice handwriting, with neatness and legibility, about 10 minutes a day under your supervision.

When you check on written work your child prepares for school, be very exacting about the legibility of letters like "i", "e", "a" and "o".

IT'S WONDERFUL, too, if you can help this child make it a practice to copy neatly and accurately in a special notebook the words he has spelled wrong in written papers returned to him; and then of learning to spell them.

My bulletins, "Your Child and His Handwriting" and "Home Helps for Poor Spellers," may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Mary Lou Tolson Becomes Bride In Salineville Rites

Miss Mary Lou Tolson, daughter of Mrs. Ona Tolson of Salineville, became the bride of Tom Price of Leetonia in a double-ring ceremony conducted at St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Salinevile April 22.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Price of Leetonia.

Fr. Thomas Beldue, pastor, officiated.

The bride wore a powder blue suit and bone color accessories, and carried a white prayerbook topped with a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Conlin were attendants. Mrs. Conlin wore an apricot color ensemble and carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Tolson wore a beige gown and Mrs. Price a Navy blue ensemble.

The bride is a clerk at the Shaff Drugstore, and her husband, a veteran of the Navy Air Command for four years, is employed at the Youngstown Alloy Co.

Fabian Pozderac of Salineville R. D. returned Sunday after a visit with Cleveland relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Javersak and children of Mechanicstown visited Salineville Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pless spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Madison of Alliance.

Robert Skinner, rural mail carrier, returned Saturday from Salem Central Clinic.

Marty Whelan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Whelan of W. Main St., is convalescing from measles.

60 At Lisbon PTA Dinner

LISBON — The McKinley Parent-Teacher Association held its final meeting of the term Monday evening with a coverdish dinner attended by some 60 parents and teachers.

Teachers were presented corsages and men of the faculty received boutonnieres. Howard Lehman gave the invocation.

Business followed with Mrs. John Borza, president, in charge and reports were given by Mrs. Roger James, secretary, and Mrs. Earl Dickey, treasurer.

Mrs. Eugene Tolson, program chairman, introduced representatives of the auxiliary of Wilfred Clunk VFW Post 4111, who presented a 50-star flag to the school. Miss Katherine McKee represented the president and Mrs. Agnes Ford, Americanism chairman made the presentation to Miss Della Wetzel, principal. Mrs. Elizabeth Polite, acting patriot instructor, spoke briefly on the flag and its proper display. She said each room will receive a booklet on the flag in the near future.

Mrs. Russell Dixon, a past president, presented Mrs. Borza with her past president's pin.

Supt. Russell Armitage installed new officers for the next term, Mrs. Eddie James, president; Mrs. Glen Ward, vice president; Mrs. Edgar Chapman, treasurer, and Mrs. Jack Hill, secretary.

The Rev. C. O. Armstrong led group singing of old favorites with Mrs. Vernon Duke pianist.

Man Called For Jury Duty Sends 'Regrets'

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP) — R. L. McKeighan, a farmer called for jury duty in U.S. District Court, has sent his regrets to Judge Frederick O. Mercer.

He said he didn't have the proper attire for a courtroom—and in fact had very little attire at all.

Court aides investigated and found McKeighan had told the truth. A tornado Sunday had carried away most of his farmhouse, including his clothing.

McKeighan was excused. Judge Mercer observed that in a long career of listening to reasons why people should not serve on juries, this was a new one.

Rotarians Told Goal Needed For Investing Successfully

The success formula for investing in the stock market is "establish your goals, follow your goals, and have plenty of patience," Harvey L. Zeve of Youngstown told the Rotary Club Tuesday.

Zeve, representing the brokerage firm of Singer, Deane & Scribner, discussed "Investing for Profits In Today's Market" at the club's luncheon meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

He emphasized that patience is of paramount importance to investors, warning against trying to make a big - killing fast.

"Avoid hot tips," Zeve advised "as none is good for you. Everyone hears them and gets excited. I hear at least 25 a day."

"Always investigate a security before buying," Zeve cautioned, pointing out there are excellent sources of information on industries at brokerage firms and in daily newspapers.

While emphasizing the importance of waiting for stocks to increase their value, Zeve also advised, "don't put them in a drawer and forget you have them."

Zeve pointed out things to remember in planning an investment program include "creating a program to suit individual needs, avoiding hot tips, investitating before buying, do not expect to buy an issue at its low and sell at its high, and periodically review stock portfolios."

Investors must be aware of the "dynamic" changes in industry to decide whether to hold or sell," Zeve said.

Zeve said investing is "for people who have enough cash on hand for emergencies, have already purchased adequate life insurance, and have surplus funds which they would like to see grow in value or provide additional income."

"The best place to put excess money is in the stock market," Zeve declared. He commented the "stock market is only a meeting place where stocks are sold and bought at a commission of 1 per cent of the funds invested." Investors should become acquainted with the trade language, he said.

Zeve also discussed corporations, common and preferred stock and bonds, and some market terms of "ex-dividends, stock splits and dividends."

Zeve said tax-free municipal bonds are the "No. 1 consideration for a conservative investor seeking a protective investment." The record of such bonds shows they are second only to government bonds in safety.

He listed banks, utilities and fire insurance companies as "conservative investments." Those seeking more income must take additional risks for their higher returns, he pointed out.

Zeve was introduced by Dr. R. Jay Kinsey, program chairman and president - elect of the club. The speaker distributed literature on investments.

George Hargraves, president, said the club's Rotary Ann Night scheduled May 23 had been postponed indefinitely.

Bowles To Face Questioning On Kennedy-Mr. K Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee plans to question Acting Secretary of State Chester Bowles about reported negotiations for a meeting between President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., said he and other members would "seek some answers" from Bowles at a closed-door committee session this morning.

While Bowles is scheduled to brief the committee on crises in Laos, the Congo, Cuba and elsewhere, members said they also would demand some official light on published reports of efforts to arrange an informal conference between the two leaders early next month.

"We have read a good deal in the papers that such a conference is being talked about, but our committee has not been informed," Gore told newsmen.

"I, for one, intend to ask Mr. Bowles if the reports are correct and whether, if there is to be a conference, it will be without a plan or agenda or any real hope for success."

Kennedy received a personal message from Khrushchev Tuesday, in reply to one of Feb. 22 in which the President expressed hope for improvement of U.S.-Soviet relations.

Khrushchev's letter was delivered by Soviet Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov who spent 30 minutes with the President. But neither Menshikov nor the White House would disclose its contents nor say whether they talked about a Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting.

Justice Douglas Says U.S. Will Win In End

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — The United States is losing the ideological struggle with communism in Asia, but this country will win out in the end, says Justice William O. Douglas of the U.S. Supreme Court.

"With all the laws and ideals of freedom we have on our side, I do not see how we can possibly lose the ideological contest," Douglas said Tuesday night in a speech at Allegheny College.

Medical Figure Dies

9 With City BPW To Attend State Event At Toledo

Nine members of the East Liverpool Business & Professional Women's Club will attend the 41st annual convention of the Ohio Federation Friday through Sunday at the Hotel Commodore Perry in Toledo.

They are: Mrs. Geraldine Bricker, Mrs. Clara Hall, Miss Frances Jones, Mrs. Virginia Manypenny, Mrs. Gertrude Reese, Mrs. Ila Shingler, Miss Joan Witt, Mrs. Faye Wright and Mrs. Ethel Lynn Wambaugh.

The theme is "Effective Living — Our American Way." Delegates from 164 clubs in the state are expected.

A reception is planned for Friday night. Mrs. Hermine Tobolowsky of Dallas will be representative from the national organization.

Mrs. Louise Bushnell of New York will be the key speaker at the Saturday luncheon.

Mrs. Wambaugh, director of District 8, will moderate one of the workshops scheduled Saturday afternoon.

George Alexander Bowie, lecturer-author of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron will speak at the formal banquet Saturday night.

Model, 2 Photos Show Details Of River-Lake Road

Two huge aerial photographs and an eight-foot model of an interchange, all illustrating the completed appearance of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Freeway, have been placed on display in East Liverpool by the State Highway Department's Division 11 office.

The aerial photos are in the windows of the Ohio Power Co. building and the interchange model is displayed in the lobby of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. building. Both were brought here originally for the Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting Monday night at the Country Club, which dealt with area highway projects.

Depicted on the aerial photos are artists' conceptions of the finished appearance of the first two southern stages of the lake-river road — the segment now under construction inside the city limits and the next stage extending from the city limits north to an interchange at State Route 170.

The model shows an interchange of the type that will be use on the lake-river road. The model shows an interchange on Interstate Route 70 near St. Clairsville —the same type proposed for the lake-river highway.

Lewis To Entertain At President's Party

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedian Jerry Lewis, who actively supported former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the 1960 presidential campaign, will entertain at President Kennedy's birthday party May 27.

Lewis said he got a personal invitation from the White House Tuesday and accepted immediately.

"He's President for all of us," said Lewis, a Republican.

The $100-a-plate affair, sponsored by the Democratic National Committee, will be held at the armory in Washington. President Kennedy will address the gathering.

Peanut Vendor, 64, Has Cracked Hard Nut

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peanut vendor John J. Costello has cracked a hard nut.

After being arrested more than 300 times for peddling without a license, Costello, 64, finally escaped a fine. He was acquitted Tuesday when the prosecution forgot to establish that he had no license to sell his peanuts, popcorn and ice cream.

After the trial, he was asked where he was going now.

"Back to the monument grounds," said Costello. "I got to sell some ice cream."

Cocker Spaniel Plays Mother Of 5 Rabbits

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Bootsie is a 7-year-old cocker spaniel who is expecting a family of her own in about a week.

For five days she's been playing mother to five little rabbits which apparently took to Bootsie while she was lying outdoors.

"The awful part is that poor Bootsie thinks they're hers," explained her owner, Mrs. Stanley Atlas.

"She treats them so tenderly. It's natural in a way, I suppose. Bootsie was raised with a cat."

Killed In Crash

NORWALK, Ohio (AP) — An Akron man was killed Tuesday night when his car crashed into the rear of a truck and landed in a ditch on the Ohio Turnpike about nine miles west of the Norwalk-Sandusky interchange. He was Gerald J. Rolenzio. The truck driver was not injured.

Mary Lou Tolson Becomes Bride In Salineville Rites

Miss Mary Lou Tolson, daughter of Mrs. Ona Tolson of Salineville, became the bride of Tom Price of Leetonia in a double-ring ceremony conducted at St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Salinevile April 22.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Price of Leetonia.

Fr. Thomas Beldue, pastor, officiated.

The bride wore a powder blue suit and bone color accessories, and carried a white prayerbook topped with a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Conlin were attendants. Mrs. Conlin wore an apricot color ensemble and carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Tolson wore a beige gown and Mrs. Price a Navy blue ensemble.

A reception followed at the home of the bride of North St. where a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple centered the table.

The bride is a clerk at the Shaff Drugstore, and her husband, a veteran of the Navy Air Command for four years, is employed at the Youngstown Alloy Co.

Fabian Pozderac of Salineville R. D. returned Sunday after a visit with Cleveland relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Javersak and children of Mechanicstown visited Salineville Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pless spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Madison of Alliance.

Robert Skinner, rural mail carrier, returned Saturday from Salem Central Clinic.

Marty Whelan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Whelan of W. Main St., is convalescing from measles.

60 At Lisbon PTA Dinner

LISBON — The McKinley Parent-Teacher Association held its final meeting of the term Monday evening with a coverdish dinner attended by some 60 parents and teachers.

Teachers were presented corsages and men of the faculty received boutonnieres. Howard Lehman gave the invocation.

Business followed with Mrs. John Borza, president, in charge and reports were given by Mrs. Roger James, secretary, and Mrs. Earl Dickey, treasurer.

Mrs. Eugene Tolson, program chairman, introduced representatives of the auxiliary of Wilfred Clunk VFW Post 4111, who presented a 50-star flag to the school. Miss Katherine McKee represented the president and Mrs. Agnes Ford, Americanism chairman made the presentation to Miss Della Wetzel, principal. Mrs. Elizabeth Polite, acting patriot instructor, spoke briefly on the flag and its proper display. She said each room will receive a booklet on the flag in the near future.

Mrs. Russell Dixon, a past president, presented Mrs. Borza with her past president's pin.

Supt. Russell Armitage installed new officers for the next term, Mrs. Eddie James, president; Mrs. Glen Ward, vice president; Mrs. Edgar Chapman, treasurer, and Mrs. Jack Hill, secretary.

The Rev. C. O. Armstrong led group singing of old favorites with Mrs. Vernon Duke pianist.

9 With City BPW To Attend State Event At Toledo

Nine members of the East Liverpool Business & Professional Women's Club will attend the 41st annual convention of the Ohio Federation Friday through Sunday at the Hotel Commodore Perry in Toledo.

They are: Mrs. Geraldine Bricker, Mrs. Clara Hall, Miss Frances Jones, Mrs. Virginia Manypenny, Mrs. Gertrude Reese, Mrs. Ila Shingler, Miss Joan Witt, Mrs. Faye Wright and Mrs. Ethel Lynn Wambaugh.

The theme is "Effective Living — Our American Way." Delegates from 164 clubs in the state are expected.

A reception is planned for Friday night. Mrs. Hermine Tobolowsky of Dallas will be representative from the national organization.

Mrs. Louise Bushnell of New York will be the key speaker at the Saturday luncheon.

Mrs. Wambaugh, director of District 8, will moderate one of the workshops scheduled Saturday afternoon.

George Alexander Bowie, lecturer-author of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron will speak at the formal banquet Saturday night.

Model, 2 Photos Show Details Of River-Lake Road

Two huge aerial photographs and an eight-foot model of an interchange, all illustrating the completed appearance of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Freeway, have been placed on display in East Liverpool by the State Highway Department's Division 11 office.

The aerial photos are in the windows of the Ohio Power Co. building and the interchange model is displayed in the lobby of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. building. Both were brought here originally for the Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting Monday night at the Country Club, which dealt with area highway projects.

Depicted on the aerial photos are artists' conceptions of the finished appearance of the first two southern stages of the lake-river road — the segment now under construction inside the city limits and the next stage extending from the city limits north to an interchange at State Route 170.

The model shows an interchange of the type that will be use on the lake-river road. The model shows an interchange on Interstate Route 70 near St. Clairsville —the same type proposed for the lake-river highway.

Lewis To Entertain At President's Party

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedian Jerry Lewis, who actively supported former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the 1960 presidential campaign, will entertain at President Kennedy's birthday party May 27.

Lewis said he got a personal invitation from the White House Tuesday and accepted immediately.

"He's President for all of us," said Lewis, a Republican.

The $100-a-plate affair, sponsored by the Democratic National Committee, will be held at the armory in Washington. President Kennedy will address the gathering.

Peanut Vendor, 64, Has Cracked Hard Nut

WASHINGTON (AP) — Peanut vendor John J. Costello has cracked a hard nut.

After being arrested more than 300 times for peddling without a license, Costello, 64, finally escaped a fine. He was acquitted Tuesday when the prosecution forgot to establish that he had no license to sell his peanuts, popcorn and ice cream.

After the trial, he was asked where he was going now.

"Back to the monument grounds," said Costello. "I got to sell some ice cream."

Cocker Spaniel Plays Mother Of 5 Rabbits

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Bootsie is a 7-year-old cocker spaniel who is expecting a family of her own in about a week.

For five days she's been playing mother to five little rabbits which apparently took to Bootsie while she was lying outdoors.

"The awful part is that poor Bootsie thinks they're hers," explained her owner, Mrs. Stanley Atlas.

"She treats them so tenderly. It's natural in a way, I suppose. Bootsie was raised with a cat."

Killed In Crash

NORWALK, Ohio (AP) — An Akron man was killed Tuesday night when his car crashed into the rear of a truck and landed in a ditch on the Ohio Turnpike about nine miles west of the Norwalk-Sandusky interchange. He was Gerald J. Rolenzio. The truck driver was not injured.

Man Called For Jury Duty Sends 'Regrets'

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (AP) — R. L. McKeighan, a farmer called for jury duty in U.S. District Court, has sent his regrets to Judge Frederick O. Mercer.

He said he didn't have the proper attire for a courtroom—and in fact had very little attire at all.

Court aides investigated and found McKeighan had told the truth. A tornado Sunday had carried away most of his farmhouse, including his clothing.

McKeighan was excused. Judge Mercer observed that in a long career of listening to reasons why people should not serve on juries, this was a new one.

Sets Public Hearing

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Commodity Stabilization Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture has set June 13 for a public hearing here on 20 proposed amendments to Order 75 of the Northeastern Ohio Milk Marketing Area.

Rotarians Told Goal Needed For Investing Successfully

The success formula for investing in the stock market is "establish your goals, follow your goals, and have plenty of patience," Harvey L. Zeve of Youngstown told the Rotary Club Tuesday.

Zeve, representing the brokerage firm of Singer, Deane & Scribner, discussed "Investing for Profits In Today's Market" at the club's luncheon meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

He emphasized that patience is of paramount importance to investors, warning against trying to make a big - killing fast.

"Avoid hot tips," Zeve advised "as none is good for you. Everyone hears them and gets excited. I hear at least 25 a day."

"Always investigate a security before buying," Zeve cautioned, pointing out there are excellent sources of information on information on industries at brokerage firms and in daily newspapers.

While emphasizing the importance of waiting for stocks to increase their value, Zeve also advised, "don't put them in a drawer and forget you have them."

Zeve pointed out things to remember in planning an investment program include "creating a program to suit individual needs, avoiding hot tips, investitating before buying, do not expect to buy an issue at its low and sell at its high, and periodically review stock portfolios."

Investors must be aware of the "dynamic" changes in industry to decide whether to hold or sell," Zeve said.

Zeve said investing is "for people who have enough cash on hand for emergencies, have already purchased adequate life insurance, and have surplus funds which they would like to see grow in value or provide additional income."

"The best place to put excess money is in the stock market," Zeve declared. He commented the "stock market is only a meeting place where stocks are sold and bought at a commission of 1 per cent of the funds invested." Investors should become acquainted with the trade language, he said.

Zeve also discussed corporations, common and preferred stock and bonds, and some market terms of "ex-dividends, stock splits and dividends."

Zeve said tax-free municipal bonds are the "No. 1 consideration for a conservative investor seeking a protective investment." The record of such bonds shows they are second only to government bonds in safety.

He listed banks, utilities and fire insurance companies as "conservative investments." Those seeking more income must take additional risks for their higher returns, he pointed out.

Zeve was introduced by Dr. R. Jay Kinsey, program chairman and president - elect of the club. The speaker distributed literature on investments.

George Hargraves, president, said the club's Rotary Ann Night scheduled May 23 had been postponed indefinitely.

Bowles To Face Questioning On Kennedy-Mr. K Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee plans to question Acting Secretary of State Chester Bowles about reported negotiations for a meeting between President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., said he and other members would "seek some answers" from Bowles at a closed-door committee session this morning.

While Bowles is scheduled to brief the committee on crises in Laos, the Congo, Cuba and elsewhere, members said they also would demand some official light on published reports of efforts to arrange an informal conference between the two leaders early next month.

"We have read a good deal in the papers that such a conference is being talked about, but our committee has not been informed," Gore told newsmen.

"I, for one, intend to ask Mr. Bowles if the reports are correct and whether, if there is to be a conference, it will be without a plan or agenda or any real hope for success."

Kennedy received a personal message from Khrushchev Tuesday, in reply to one of Feb. 22 in which the President expressed hope for improvement of U.S.-Soviet relations.

Khrushchev's letter was delivered by Soviet Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov who spent 30 minutes with the President. But neither Menshikov nor the White House would disclose its contents nor say whether they talked about a Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting.

Justice Douglas Says U.S. Will Win In End

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP) — The United States is losing the ideological struggle with communism in Asia, but this country will win out in the end, says Justice William O. Douglas of the U.S. Supreme Court.

"With all the laws and ideals of freedom we have on our side, I do not see how we can possibly lose the ideological contest," Douglas said Tuesday night in a speech at Allegheny College.

Medical Figure Dies

By HAL HUMPHREY

Are You An 'Egghead'?

Have you ever wondered if you could qualify as an egghead or intellectual type? Well, there is a sure-fire test now. If you own a TV set but have quit looking at it, you definitely are an egghead first class.

Hal Humphrey

Your TV set must be in working order, though. It doesn't follow that you are an egghead just because your picture tube has blown and you don't have enough scratch to buy a new one. Don't take my word for this new egghead test. TV's brass have thought it up themselves.

You may have noticed recently that TV is trying to convince you thinkers that TV isn't all sex and busted heads.

USUALLY these TV ads are decorated with John Groth drawings depicting some crises. Everyone knows that intellectuals are crisis-conscious. On top of this Groth drawing is some learned copy about the world we live in and how TV is bringing it right to your living room, if you only will take the time to flick the switch.

Elsewhere in the ad is a list of the truly worthwhile programs and the days they are telecast. These ads are paid for by the Television Information Office, an industry - subsidized propaganda dispenser.

TV is running these ads, because iti s convinced that the egg-heads, the country's pacemakers, have forsaken the medium for reading or maybe just sitting on a park bench and meditating.

ONE OF OUR BIGGEST soap companies had the Nielsen rating people take a special survey recently and discovered from it that TV viewing has declined during the past two seasons. A CBS statistical analyzer hastened to prove that this time Nielsen was nuts — the survey was "out of phase" —but the industry was shaken, nonetheless.

In fact, prior to Nielsen's revelation, another CBS executive reported that he went to a dinner party in New York one night and discovered that none of the 15 guests had seen a CBS Reports program, "A Real Case of Murder."

Since it was about a famous New York criminal trial, and 9 of the 15 party guests were lawyers, the CBS executive naturally was appalled.

There have been other indications that the egghead has broken the TV habit. Lecture and concert - tour bookers used to try to avoid putting their attractions on nights when "Playhouse 90" or other special -quality TV shows were scheduled. Now they don't have to bother. Every night is "The Untouchables" night on TV.

AT RARE unguarded moments, a few of TV's brass will admit that quality programming has declined numerically in recent years and that they now are trying to do something to repair the damage and lure the intellectual back into the fold.

NBC's Don Hyatt, producer of such fine documentaries as the "Project 20" series, is more militant.

"The intellectual must share some of the blame if TV has lost some of its satisfaction for him," says Hyatt. "Our thought leaders frequently just complain and really don't know what they are complaining about because they aren't looking at TV. It's time they get honest with themselves.

"Everyone must band together. We all get disenchanted with democracy once in a while, but we don't give up. There is too much negative talk about TV, and I don't believe the audience has lived up to what it expects of TV. It hasn't given enough support to good programming when it is made available."

HYATT MAKES a couple of valid points here. There is a breed of egghead which tends to make a career of carping, when actually he doesn't really know if the conditions he's unhappy with are bad or not. He's doing most of his carping from hearsay.

Nevertheless, it does seem that at least some of the more intelligent members of our society are shunning TV. The networks are beginning to think so anyway, and they wouldn't kid themselves about a thing like this.

Another problem is that egg-heads use toothpaste, stomach remedies and cigarettes, too.

Hodges Sees 2 New Signs Of Recovery

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges today announced two new signs of economic recovery:

Personal incomes climbed above the March peak in April and factory sales and new orders both rose.

Sales by manufacturers rose 4 per cent from the previous month, Hodges told a news conference, while new orders were received at the same rate of increase to assure a continued rising trend in output.

The secretary, newly returned from Europe, reported that the economies of Germany, France, Italy and other European nations are "kicking at the roof."

"Ours is not kicking at the roof," he said, "but it is out of the cellar."

The individual incomes of Americans reached $410.3 billion annual rate in April or half a billion higher than in March and $4 billion above February, Hodges said.

The April gain was more significant than it appeared on the surface; the March total was boosted by the one-shot payment of GI insurance dividends to veterans. If this is removed from the March total, the April increase amounts to $2.5 billion.

The rise was concentrated in salaries and the wages of workers. It was the second month in a row in which payrolls advanced, but the April increase was twice that recorded in March and was more widespread among industries.

Factory employment alone accounted for more than half of the payroll advance. The fatter pay checks resulted from greater-than-seasonal hiring of workers and a lengthening of the work-week as overtime operations increased in some factories and curtailed operations were stepped up in other plants. Wage rates rose, but only slightly.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove some rust stains from porcelain or enameled sinks?

A. One method of coping with these is to cover the stains with kerosene for about four hours, then wash off with piping hot water and strong soap. Another method is to rub them with a piece of raw lemon, followed by soap and water.

Q. How can I mend a tear in a woolen garment so that it will not be too noticeable?

A. Draw a few ravelings from the goods and darn with these. Then press with a hot iron, under a thin, damp cloth.

Q. How can I quickly relieve the pain of a burn?

A. Try applying the white of an egg to the wound.

Q. How can I clean and freshen black satin or moire shoes?

A. By rubbing briskly with a cloth that has been saturated in ammonia and thoroughly wrung out.

YMCA Begins Registration For Annual Camping Season

Chafing at the bit with the end of school only days away, some youngsters already have registered for the 38th camping season at the YMCA's Camp Pine Ridge, Carl A. Werner, general secretary, said today.

The camp does not begin operation until July 2, Werner said, but a few registrations have been made for each of the eight weekly sessions to be held.

The camp is open to any boy or girl between 10 and 14 and to boys between 8 and 9 for two "midget" periods, Werner explained. A Y membership is not necessary to attend the camp, he emphasized.

Werner urged early reservations, pointing out the camp has a capacity of 63 campers a week. The fee for the regular periods is $16 and the charge for the midget sessions is $10.

Registrations must be accompanied by a $3 fee which will be applied toward the total cost. Fees must be paid in full the day prior to the opening of the period for which the camper is registered.

Girls' sessions will be held July 2-8; July 23-29, and Aug. 6 - 12. Boys' camps are scheduled July 9-15; July 30-Aug. 5, and Aug. 13-19.

The sessions for midget boys will be July 16-19 and Aug. 20-23.

Campers will be under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Werner with Jerry Camp and Jack Gibbons as associate directors. Camp, a student at Kent State University, will be returning for his second year. Older high school students will serve as cabin leaders.

The cooks will be Mrs. Laveda Moore and Mrs. Charlotte Gorrell.

William B. Cooper is chairman of the camp committee. Members include J. D. Thompson, Leonard C. Webber, Edwin L. Bayley, C. Walter Ashbaugh, the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, William H. Vodrey Jr., William D. Ogilvie, Francis H. Lang, Sidney C. Porter Jr. and William B. Pomeroy.

NEW YORK (AP) — A month before the season opened, Yankee Manager Ralph Houk said he planned to carry 10 pitchers. However, the American League champions began the pennant race with 13.

Beef, Lamb Prices Down

The beef situation should remain favorable to consumers.

The wholeale beef trade has been slow because cuts from forequarters do not sell readily, according to Richard Skinner, marketing agent with the Co-operative Extension Service at Canfield.

Prices on forequarters have declined the past three weeks, while hindquarters have held unchanged. This leaves prices on individual wholesale cuts from 4 to 11 cents per pound below last year. Relatively large supplies of better grade beef can be expected throughout the spring.

This is a good time to include lamb in the menu as wholesale prices have continued to decline and are now around 10 cents per pound below a year ago.

Very large supplies of broilers are keeping prices at low levels. This is the time of year that broilers are in greatest demand and in most years are not featured during the spring months. Turkey supplies continue larger than normal for this time of year with retail prices quite low.

On the fresh fruit counters householders will find bananas the most economical fruit. Low price tags can be expected on good quality bananas until mid-June. Grapefruit and oranges remain at attractive prices on some markets.

The vegetable situation changes quickly at this time of year. Consumers will want to look for economical price tags on lettuce, asparagus, rhubarb and potatoes. Watch food ads closely, but remember that quality is more important than price in many instances, Skinner said.

In the canned goods sections one will find economical prices on canned tuna as supplies are large but canned salmon supplies are light.

Dartmouth Prospect

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Are You An 'Egghead'?

Have you ever wondered if you could qualify as an egghead or intellectual type? Well, there is a sure-fire test now. If you own a TV set but have quit looking at it, you definitely are an egghead first class.

Hal Humphrey

Your TV set must be in working order, though. It doesn't follow that you are an egghead just because your picture tube has blown and you don't have enough scratch to buy a new one. Don't take my word for this new egghead test. TV's brass have thought it up themselves.

You may have noticed recently that TV is trying to convince you thinkers that TV isn't all sex and busted heads.

USUALLY these TV ads are decorated with John Groth drawings depicting some crises. Everyone knows that intellectuals are crisis-conscious. On top of this Groth drawing is some learned copy about the world we live in and how TV is bringing it right to your living room, if you only will take the time to flick the switch.

Elsewhere in the ad is a list of the truly worthwhile programs and the days they are telecast. These ads are paid for by the Television Information Office, an industry - subsidized propaganda dispenser.

TV is running these ads, because iti s convinced that the egg-heads, the country's pacemakers, have forsaken the medium for reading or maybe just sitting on a park bench and meditating.

ONE OF OUR BIGGEST soap companies had the Nielsen rating people take a special survey recently and discovered from it that TV viewing has declined during the past two seasons. A CBS statistical analyzer hastened to prove that this time Nielsen was nuts — the survey was "out of phase" —but the industry was shaken, nonetheless.

In fact, prior to Nielsen's revelation, another CBS executive reported that he went to a dinner party in New York one night and discovered that none of the 15 guests had seen a CBS Reports program, "A Real Case of Murder."

Since it was about a famous New York criminal trial, and 9 of the 15 party guests were lawyers, the CBS executive naturally was appalled.

There have been other indications that the egghead has broken the TV habit. Lecture and concert - tour bookers used to try to avoid putting their attractions on nights when "Playhouse 90" or other special -quality TV shows were scheduled. Now they don't have to bother. Every night is "The Untouchables" night on TV.

AT RARE unguarded moments, a few of TV's brass will admit that quality programming has declined numerically in recent years and that they now are trying to do something to repair the damage and lure the intellectual back into the fold.

NBC's Don Hyatt, producer of such fine documentaries as the "Project 20" series, is more militant.

"The intellectual must share some of the blame if TV has lost some of its satisfaction for him," says Hyatt. "Our thought leaders frequently just complain and really don't know what they are complaining about because they aren't looking at TV. It's time they get honest with themselves.

"Everyone must band together. We all get disenchanted with democracy once in a while, but we don't give up. There is too much negative talk about TV, and I don't believe the audience has lived up to what it expects of TV. It hasn't given enough support to good programming when it is made available."

HYATT MAKES a couple of valid points here. There is a breed of egghead which tends to make a career of carping, when actually he doesn't really know if the conditions he's unhappy with are bad or not. He's doing most of his carping from hearsay.

Nevertheless, it does seem that at least some of the more intelligent members of our society are shunning TV. The networks are beginning to think so anyway, and they wouldn't kid themselves about a thing like this.

Another problem is that egg-heads use toothpaste, stomach remedies and cigarettes, too.

Hodges Sees 2 New Signs Of Recovery

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges today announced two new signs of economic recovery:

Personal incomes climbed above the March peak in April and factory sales and new orders both rose.

Sales by manufacturers rose 4 per cent from the previous month, Hodges told a news conference, while new orders were received at the same rate of increase to assure a continued rising trend in output.

The secretary, newly returned from Europe, reported that the economies of Germany, France, Italy and other European nations are "kicking at the roof."

"Ours is not kicking at the roof," he said, "but it is out of the cellar."

The individual incomes of Americans reached $410.3 billion annual rate in April or half a billion higher than in March and $4 billion above February, Hodges said.

The April gain was more significant than it appeared on the surface; the March total was boosted by the one-shot payment of GI insurance dividends to veterans. If this is removed from the March total, the April increase amounts to $2.5 billion.

The rise was concentrated in salaries and the wages of workers. It was the second month in a row in which payrolls advanced, but the April increase was twice that recorded in March and was more widespread among industries.

Factory employment alone accounted for more than half of the payroll advance. The fatter pay checks resulted from greater-than-seasonal hiring of workers and a lengthening of the work-week as overtime operations increased in some factories and curtailed operations were stepped up in other plants. Wage rates rose, but only slightly.

YMCA Begins Registration For Annual Camping Season

Chafing at the bit with the end of school only days away, some youngsters already have registered for the 38th camping season at the YMCA's Camp Pine Ridge, Carl A. Werner, general secretary, said today.

The camp does not begin operation until July 2, Werner said, but a few registrations have been made for each of the eight weekly sessions to be held.

The camp is open to any boy or girl between 10 and 14 and to boys between 8 and 9 for two "midget" periods, Werner explained. A Y membership is not necessary to attend the camp, he emphasized.

Werner urged early reservations, pointing out the camp has a capacity of 63 campers a week. The fee for the regular periods is $16 and the charge for the midget sessions is $10.

Registrations must be accompanied by a $3 fee which will be applied toward the total cost. Fees must be paid in full the day prior to the opening of the period for which the camper is registered.

Girls' sessions will be held July 2-8; July 23-29, and Aug. 6 - 12. Boys' camps are scheduled July 9-15; July 30-Aug. 5, and Aug. 13-19.

The sessions for midget boys will be July 16-19 and Aug. 20-23.

Campers will be under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Werner with Jerry Camp and Jack Gibbons as associate directors. Camp, a student at Kent State University, will be returning for his second year. Older high school students will serve as cabin leaders.

The cooks will be Mrs. Laveda Moore and Mrs. Charlotte Gorrell.

William B. Cooper is chairman of the camp committee. Members include J. D. Thompson, Leonard C. Webber, Edwin L. Bayley, C. Walter Ashbaugh, the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, William H. Vodrey Jr., William D. Ogilvie, Francis H. Lang, Sidney C. Porter Jr. and William B. Pomeroy.

NEW YORK (AP) — A month before the season opened, Yankee Manager Ralph Houk said he planned to carry 10 pitchers. However, the American League champions began the pennant race with 13.

Beef, Lamb Prices Down

The beef situation should remain favorable to consumers.

The wholeale beef trade has been slow because cuts from forequarters do not sell readily, according to Richard Skinner, marketing agent with the Co-operative Extension Service at Canfield.

Prices on forequarters have declined the past three weeks, while hindquarters have held unchanged. This leaves prices on individual wholesale cuts from 4 to 11 cents per pound below last year. Relatively large supplies of better grade beef can be expected throughout the spring.

This is a good time to include lamb in the menu as wholesale prices have continued to decline and are now around 10 cents per pound below a year ago.

Very large supplies of broilers are keeping prices at low levels. This is the time of year that broilers are in greatest demand and in most years are not featured during the spring months. Turkey supplies continue larger than normal for this time of year with retail prices quite low.

On the fresh fruit counters householders will find bananas the most economical fruit. Low price tags can be expected on good quality bananas until mid-June. Grapefruit and oranges remain at attractive prices on some markets.

The vegetable situation changes quickly at this time of year. Consumers will want to look for economical price tags on lettuce, asparagus, rhubarb and potatoes. Watch food ads closely, but remember that quality is more important than price in many instances, Skinner said.

In the canned goods sections one will find economical prices on canned tuna as supplies are large but canned salmon supplies are light.

Dartmouth Prospect

HANOVER, N. H. (AP) — Third baseman Mike Nyquist of West Hartford, Conn., is one of Dartmouth's highly regarded baseball players. As a freshman last spring he hit .433 in eight games. He's an end during the football season.
